PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, A joint resolution was adopted by the legislature of the state of Nebraska, at the eighteenth session thereof, and approved February 27th, A. D. 1883, proposing an amendment to section four (4) of article three (3) of the constitution of said state, and that said section as amended shall read as follows, to-wit: "Section 4.—The term of office of members of the legislature shall be two years, and they shall each receive a salary of three hundred dollars for their services during said term, and ten cents for every mile they shall travel in going to and returning from the place of meeting of the legislature, on the usual route. Provided, however, that neither members of the legislature nor employes shall receive any pay or perquisite other than their salary and mileage. Each session, except special sessions, shall not be less than sixty days. After the expiration of forty days of a session, bills not joint resolutions of the nature of bills shall be introduced, unless the governor shall, by special message, call the attention of the legislature to the necessity of passing any law on the subject matter embraced in the message, and the introduction of bills shall be restricted thereto."

WHEREAS, A joint resolution was adopted by the legislature of the state of Nebraska, at the eighteenth session thereof, and approved February 28th, A. D. 1883, proposing an amendment to section one (1) of article five (5) of the constitution of said state, and that said section as amended shall read as follows, to-wit: "Section 1.—The executive department shall consist of a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Attorney General, Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings, and Board of Railway Commissioners, and shall perform such duties and receive such compensation as may be provided by law. The Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Attorney General, Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings, and Board of Railway Commissioners, shall reside at the seat of government during their terms of office, and keep the public records, books and papers thereof, and the officers herein named shall perform such duties as may be required by law. The ballots at the election at which said amendment shall be submitted to section one (1) of article five (5) of the constitution, shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. All other officers that may be provided for by the constitution and the provisions of this section, shall be chosen in such manner and at such times, and shall hold their offices for such length of time as may be provided by law, and shall perform such duties and receive such compensation as may be provided by law."

Therefore, I, James W. Dawes, Governor of the State of Nebraska, do hereby give notice, in accordance with section one (1) of article five (5) of the constitution, and the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to provide the manner of proposing amendments to the constitution and submitting the same to the electors of this state," approved February 13th, A. D. 1877, that said proposed amendments shall be submitted to section one (1) of article five (5) of the constitution, entitled, "Executive Department."

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the State of Nebraska.

Done at Lincoln, this 18th day of July, A. D. 1884, the eighteenth year of the state, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and ninth.

By the Governor, JAMES W. DAWES, EDWARD P. ROGGEN, Secretary of State.

So infatuated, fascinated and entranced is R. H. Rohr with Senator Dolan, that the first-named gentleman in his speech, Tuesday evening, became so gushingly demonstrative in passing his encomiums upon our Senator that the friends of the gentleman first mentioned were compelled to request him to desist. Rohr! Well, yes.

KING HUMBERT, of Italy, still continues to add to his fame as a philanthropist. A subscription had already been started of small sums to coin gold medals in honor of King Humbert, when the perfect of Naples received an intimation that by the king's order the money should be distributed among the cholera sufferers.

SUPERIOR, this state, we believe, is justly entitled to the bakery. There is a family in that neighborhood, composed of the mother and four charming daughters, whose aggregate weight is 1,079 pounds, respectively 207, 216, 200, 199 and 197. Let's see, though. Oh, yes, corn is cheap and mush plentiful in Nuckolls.

INTEREST in the location of the soldier's home has not yet abated since the announcement of the refusal of General Sheridan and the secretary of war to accept the situation at Leavenworth, Kas. Beatrice still retains strong hopes of securing the home. The institution should be located in this state somewhere, and Beatrice seems to be the most eligible point.

EVERYTHING indicates an old-fashioned republican victory all along the line in Nebraska. It is probable that Mr. Laird will carry every county in his district. Weaver in the First may lose Douglas, and Sarpy, but will carry the other nine. Dorsey will be elected by a very large majority in the Third, but may lose two or three counties by small majorities. The state ticket will scarcely feel the unimportant defections from one or two of the candidates. The majorities for it are going to surprise the moss-backs.—Lincoln Journal.

THE French people are evidently believers in the old doctrine—formulated and enforced in the world's early history—"an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." French officers say the reason why they showed no mercy to the Chinese during the naval engagement at Foo-Chow, was because of the outrages committed by the Orientals upon two French sailors who fell into their hands at Kelung, these unfortunate men having been mutilated and decapitated. Of course the French did not display the Christian spirit recommended in the New Testament, yet, after all, they are not deserving of severe censure, for retaliation is the only measure that will bring the "heathen Chinese" to a realizing sense of the fact that an honorable warfare is preferable to that of barbarians. When one is in Rome it is wisdom, as a rule, to do as the Romans do.

THE Chicago Inter-Ocean very truthfully says that Cincinnati had a narrow escape from riot on Tuesday. If once the spirit of bloodshed had gained the ascendancy, death and destruction would have swept over that city. Desperadoes, many of them imported for that purpose by the democratic leaders, attempted to capture the polling places and by the intimidation of republican voters, colored men especially, and the repeating of democratic thugs they hoped to prevent republican victory, at least in Hamilton-county. Ruffs from Chicago were reported on hand in considerable numbers. Silk stocking gentry furnished the money and shoulder hitters were to do the work. The entire machinery of state and local government being in the hands of the democracy, the tiers were of confidence of success, and it was on that confidence that the democratic mathematicians figured in predicting good news from Ohio. The city was largely saved from riot and the polls from fraud by the United States marshal and his deputies. The howling and bloodthirsty mob, eager for a melee and deliberately aiming at "confusion worse than confounded," was overawed by a wholesome fear of the federal constabulary. Even as it was some fatal shots were fired and many wounds inflicted, but at no time and in no precinct did anarchy prevail. The marshal's force was equal to the emergency.

We take great pleasure in announcing the arrival of Miss Alice Butler, a charming young lady from Colorado Springs, Colo. She is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crockford while looking after her interests here. She leaves to-night for Colorado Springs, but will return in the spring, her sister, Miss Louise, will accompany her. They will make this their future home. Their many friends will give them a cordial welcome, for they are enterprising young ladies. X.
