By using Leis' German Baking Powder you encourage the manufacture of purity. Remember that Leis' German Baking Powder is absolutely pure. Sold by C. H. ROGERS.

Why not agitate the matter, and take a census of our city, by private subscription. We have heard the matter spoken of favorably by a number of citizens, who take pride in knowing our population. Talk the matter over.

A great many of the best consumers of Leis' German Baking Powder commenced using it out of curiosity, seeing it advertised so extensively. But when once they tried they have continued its use. Leis' German Baking Powder is a pure grape Cream Tartar. Sold by C. H. ROGERS.

The skating rink, as is usually the case, is a prime, favorite resort for young and old, and many there are who frequent it. The manager has recently received a large shipment of new skates, and the amusement continues unabated.

Messrs. Small and Liddell desire to inform the public that they are now ready to do all kinds of job work at their new Blacksmith and Wagon Shop (west of Pike's lumber yard). Good Stable for feeding horses in connection. All work warranted to give satisfaction and horses boarded by day or week.

Workmen have been engaged for a few days in getting out the frame work for Stanton Rolla's new building, that that he proposes erecting on Dennison street, in the rear of the bank. His old shop has been moved aside to accommodate the new building, which will be a combined shoe shop and residence, two stories high.

We failed, in the hurry of going to press, last week, to make a note of the lecture of W. W. W. Jones, our worthy State Superintendent of Public Instruction, that was delivered in the new school house, Wednesday evening. The lecture is highly spoken of, however, and we know that Prof. Jones never fails to interest and instruct his hearers.

The demand for houses in McCook is greatly in excess of the supply. Many have been compelled to leave, we are informed, by reason of this lack. It is impossible to secure even desirable rooms. A few houses to rent would be a paying investment just now, and it is to be wondered at that some of our men of capital do not take advantage of the fact.

Hanging lamps and hand lamps at Metropolitan Drug Store.

J. E. Cochran and T. M. Helm, recently Register of the Kirwin, Kas., Land Office, have entered into a co-partnership in the land business. Mr. Cochran is too well known to require any introduction, and Mr. Helm's five year's experience as U. S. Register at Kirwin, makes him a safe man to transact business before the department. We wish them success.

For pure drugs and medicines go to Metropolitan Drug Store.

The Democrats and Antimonops, and Fusionists, held their initiatory "blow out" at the Opera Hall, Tuesday evening. Among the speakers were Ex-Senator Tipton, Capt. Stieckels, A. L. Burke and R. H. Rohr. We were unable to be present to hear our bourbon brethren lay down the gospel of truth—in Democratic lingo—but imagine we can carry the refrain. The Senator doubtless expatiated on "How I fell off the Fence—into the Democratic Fold," and the doughty Captain peradventure may have graphically delineated his masterly retreat from St. Louis, while he was farming insurance in a very productive manner in that city. And so on, ad infinitum. Come again, boys, and call to see us the next time you invade this province. Do.

10c. will buy an American dog at Metropolitan Drug Store.

The report of a very sudden death comes to us from the south side. On Thursday last, James Garner, who came into this country, last spring, and located on a claim south of the river, while standing in the doorway of his home, observed game of some kind on the neighboring divide, and procuring his gun, started in quest of it. He had proceeded in that direction some distance, when he was seen to falter and turn toward his house, in which direction he was enabled to go but a short distance, when he fell to the earth, and expired in about ten minutes thereafter. We append the finding of the coroner's jury:

State of Nebraska, Red Willow Co. At an inquisition holden at L. Hieman's, Driftwood, Red Willow county, on the 15th day of October, 1884, before me L. L. Johnson, Coroner of said county, upon the body of Jas. Garner lying dead, by the Jurors whose names are hereto subscribed. The Jurors upon their oath do say, that from the evidence produced, that said Jas. Garner died from natural causes, presumably the rupture of the heart. In testimony whereof, the Jurors have hereunto set their hands the day and year aforesaid.

The report of the sudden death of William Steinhaus of Culbertson, Monday evening, reached this city, late the same evening. Very startling were the rumors afloat at the time, but recent developments and the finding of the coroner's jury is to the effect that Steinhaus came to his sudden death by apoplexy or fatty degeneration of the heart.

The Free Masons of McCook seem to be having a revival. Saturday after noon and night they were in session, also all day Sunday, and we guess they are still at it. Saturday and Sunday their preacher was here from Hastings. Glad to see the good work going on. The name of the new lodge is McCook Lodge U. D. G. L. Laws, Worshipful Master; S. L. Green, Senior Warden; W. W. Fisher, Junior Warden; Dr. Z. L. Kay, Treasurer; T. G. Rees, Secretary; Dr. A. J. Willey, Senior Deacon; A. M. Kelly, Junior Deacon; John Roxby, Tyler.

Tube Paints, full line, at Metropolitan Drug Store.

We are heartily glad to report the greatly improved condition of things at the home of J. W. Howell, who has been on a bed of sickness for the past two months. As we stated, in directing the attention of our people to the matter, the generosity of the citizens of McCook can always be depended upon. Kind hands have been setting things to rights, due attention has been given to sanitary measures and the laws of hygiene, some pecuniary assistance, which with a draft received from England, will place everything in a much more comfortable and cheerful state. Mr. Watts, father of Mrs. Howell, came up from his home on the Sappa, the last of the week, and is now in charge. To the railroad boys, who have generously donated over $50, and to those ladies, who have kindly and tenderly ministered to the necessities of the family, great credit is due.

A painful accident happened, Mrs. Clothier of Mt. Holly, N. J., who with her husband, has been visiting for some time at the ranch of Stokes & Troth. Last Thursday, a party from the Stokes & Troth ranch went over to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Tate at the Red Willow Cattle Co.'s ranch, and after spending an enjoyable time at that ranch, the party started home, toward evening. While mounting a hill, where the road is cut in along the side of the same, one of the horses balked and commenced backing rapidly and overturned the wagon. All were thrown to the earth, Mrs. Clothier having her leg broken just above the ankle, the bone protruding through the skin, the rest of the occupants of the carriage escaped uninjured. The broken member was temporarily bandaged, and the home ranch soon reached. Dr. Johnson was summoned with all possible expedition, and the broken limb received professional attention. In order that the patient might be immediately under the doctor's care, Mrs. Clothier was removed, Friday, to the Eaton house in South McCook, where she is receiving every attention at the hands of her husband and Mrs. H. H. Troth. The doctor reports the break as a bad one, that will require considerable time to repair.

The McCook Dramatic Company held forth at Menard's Opera Hall, in "Our Boarding House," Monday evening, to a fair and appreciative audience. The company, composed entirely of home talent, had made considerable preparation in the way of property and make-up, and in rehearsing for the occasion, and from the praise of the evening's entertainment uttered in our presence, we feel safe in saying that the company acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner, and that the audience was well pleased and satisfied with the entertainment. We feel moved to say that the company comprises some fine dramatic talent, and that the company, if it receives proper appreciation, will be able at different periods during the coming winter, to place upon the boards plays that will be equal, if not superior to the foreign productions that our citizens may witness.

The make-up of some members of the company was grotesque in the extreme, and J. F. Forbes "the Colonel," and S. D. Hunt, "old Flying Machine," both took the bakery at wholesale rates. All the parts were well taken and sustained.

The band boys for whose benefit the entertainment was given, paraded all over town in the evening, and played as an orchestra during the play. Few bands in the state are superior.
