Thanksgiving Proclamation.

The year now drawing to a close has been freighted with blessings in abundant measure to the people of Nebraska.

The conditions that move the human heart to thankfulness surround us upon every hand. The glad songs of peace and plenty go up from the happy homes of a prosperous and contented people.

Thursday, November 27th, United States as a day of National Thanksgiving, and in harmony therewith, I, JAMES ka, do hereby recommend to the People of this State that the day so appointed be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer to Almighty God in humble acknowledgment of His continued mercies.

"Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto him and bless his name."

Let the voice of praise and thank-offering be heard-from all-at the hearthstone altar of Home, and in the Sanctuary. If such there be in your midst, then from your abundance relieve the wants and gladden the hearts of the needy, and the suffering. "So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Nebraska. Done at Lincoln, this Fifteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty Four, of this

State the Eighteenth, and of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Ninth. JAMES W. DAWES. By the Governor, EDWARD P. ROGGEN, Secretary of State.

BRETHREN, if we must have a scapegoat upon which to rest the burden of our defeat, let us be charitable and divide the load between the Independents, St. John and Cock-eyed Ben.

During the past year more homestead claims have been taken up in Nebraska than in any other state. The state has increased wonderfully in population during the past four years, having almost doubled in that time, and a large portion of this increase is made up of farmers. At the recent election Nebraska cast about 135,000 votes, which shows that her population is nearly 800,000.

In view of the fresh outbreak of cholera in France, Secretary McCul- designated as a suitable time to hold a demoloch has issued a circular order in relation to the importation of old rags | Willey the chair was empowered to appoint from infected ports, which modifies an executive committee. The chair appointed John Collins, Thos. Colfer and A. P. Leech as existing orders on that subject so as to continue the embargo until further notice and to declare all French and Mediterranean ports to be infected. This is eminently proper, and the or der should be strictly enforced. We can better afford to pay a higher price dricks. for paper than to take any chances of introducing cholera in this country through imported rags.

to have received at least two votes for president-one at White River Junction, Vermont, and the other at Vincennes, Indiana. The vote at Vincernes was cast by a lady and was received and counted by the board. This is probably the first vote ever east by a woman for president. This ought to be regarded as a glorious victory for womans suffrage, and the event ought to be celebrated in a becoming manner.-Bee.

WE believe too much stress is being laid upon the St. John element in the election in the Empire state, and Co. the consequent effect of the same element in the national result. If Roscoe Conkling, Carl Schurz, Curtis, and a host of others had not concluded to run amuck in this campaign, St. John would have done but little or no damage to the Republican cause. Nothing so seriously distracts and endangers the life and perpetuity of a government, as internal dissensions, and the same is true, and equally true, as to party. James G. Blaine, though heavily handicapped by the active opposition of many eminent Republicans, a few of whom we have named

The extraordinary illogical reformer may find that by treading where she does not comprehend she will make her own ruin. The women espoused the cause of St. John. Why? Because they imagined that by following the lead of a demagogue they would empty out the whisky and has been designated by the President of the close the dram shops. It was not the wives and mothers who used their in-W. Dawes, Governor of the State of Nebras- fluence against the interests of a grand old party, but the extremists-the agonizers. When will women learn that only steady, patient education will uplift the nation into the glorious light of temperance and morality? We are sure to merge some time from all that is bad and pernicious, but those who advocate abrupt measures are millstones about the neck of progress and enlightenment. Let the women, then, who fasten their fortunes to the devastating trail of St. John's polluted shirts, take home to their hearts the sad lesson that such a course ought to teach. Let us be temperate, let us be chaste, but above all things, do not let us be fools."
