

The Sterling (Colo.) News thinks that the loss will be large on the range on account of the great destruction of winter feed by fire.

The turn things have taken, among prominent Republicans, since the election, is to be most sincerely regretted and deprecated.

EARTHQUAKES are getting shockingly common down in New England this fall, and the people are waxing very tired.

It is a melancholy reflection that Dakota gave sixty thousand republican majority at the recent election of a territorial delegate.

In the heat and hurrah of their first flush of triumph the democratic and mugwump free trade journals hastened to extol the value and importance of the grand free trade victory they had won.

ONE brave federal office-holder has bared his neck for the political gullotine. George A. Mott, postmaster of Pearsall's, L. I., has written as follows to Governor Cleveland.

There ought not to be a moment's delay in this city, and in the entire country, in making thorough preparation for a visitation of cholera.

Wolves and coyotes are becoming too numerous for the comfort of sheep and poultry.

W. C. T. U.

"Evil is wrought by lack of thought, As well as lack of heart."

Where are the Boys?

Where are the boys the long evenings? Will their fathers and mothers take the trouble to know? Is there a man in Waukegan or Lake county mourning over the fact that his boys are on the down grade morally!

FRANCE thought it had a good joke on America to accuse the American bog of trichinosis and exclude him from her territory.

BLACKWOOD. Snow. November 17th, 1884. Many new houses have gone up on the divides during the past few weeks.

Wolves and coyotes are becoming too numerous for the comfort of sheep and poultry. The extensive prairie fires have driven them into settlement.

Wm. Black has fenced in his tree claim, joining Wats land, and dug a well. Will soon have a wind-mill up.

Hudson Bros. have gone north for a hunt. They are the most successful hunters in Western Nebraska.

AGAIN!

Something New!

I wish to say to the public that I have a scheme by which any one can Strike it Rich.

All enterprising firms are continually looking after something new in the way of advertising, and the papers of to-day are full of advertising schemes, etc., and in order to keep pace with the moving, have decided to GIVE AWAY an elegant

STEM WIND WATCH, a Keystone Coin, beautifully engraved, with a full 15 Ruby Jeweled Movement, Pat. Regulator, Pat. Pinion Dust Bands, &c., of the Elgin make, and guaranteed to be an accurate time piece.

GALL AND INSPECT THE SCHEME. I have now the finest line of Jewels to be seen in the West. All goods are new and fresh.
