The Davis claims south of the river, and the McQuay and Shaw claims east of town, were sold last week; to whom and prices received we were unable to ascertain. Claims along any of the water courses or near McCook bring good figures.

The crosswalk ball has been opened by Messrs. Rogers, Lewis, LaTourette and Johnson & Spalding, who have put in a substantial walk from the hardware to the drug store. A capital move, which will amply repay the outlay to these gentlemen.

A reward of $200 is offered for the arrest of Eugene Burdett Fry, alias W. H. McCartney, who is wanted by the sheriff of Red Willow county, on the charge of embezzling and horse stealing. He is 24 years of age and 5 feet 9 inches in height.—Bee.

The Ludell (Kas.) Settler says: "A daily mail to McCook is needed." And the Oberlin (Kas.) Eye joins the refrain saying: "As the people all seem to favor it, and our merchants desire it, the next thing to do is to HAVE it." Why not? If not, why not?

The "tin-horn" gambler is most numerous in this vicinage at present writing, and are industriously plying their trade, without hindrance from the law's minions, in the face of the fact that we have a stringent law in our village against gambling in any and all of its phases.

W. C. LaTourette is having a large repair shop built onto the rear of his store, and will add also a shed for machinery and wagons. Corrugated iron is the material used in the erection of these buildings, which is practically fire proof, and will doubtless be considerably used in the erection of sheds, etc.

The Orleans Sentinel opines that "for every $1,000 the saloons pay the school fund, $3,000 is paid to the saloon keeper. This way it costs the people $4,000 to get $1,000." And the facts indicate that Bro. Martin is eminently correct in his observation. Have at them, Bro. M., "The battle is not always to the strong."

H. H. Troth came down from the Willow, Friday, with a small bunch of fine steers for Brewer Bros., our Dennison street butchers. H. H. experienced considerable annoyance and loss of time at Culbertson, in getting his cattle weighed at the B. & M. scales. The matter was adjusted and stock weighed after a delay of a few hours.

The place to buy goods is of the men who advertise. It is an almost invariable rule that the business man who by printer's ink informs you that he has goods to sell and invites you to deal with him, will give you better bargains for your money than will the one who by his actions says he does not care whether you deal with him or not.

The new postal arrangement went into effect, Saturday. This gives McCook excellent mail facilities—two mails each way daily. All mail matter is now worked between Pacific Junction and this point. From McCook to Denver combination postal and smoking cars are used, and only local mail handled. The new arrangement is most advantageous to the Republican Valley.

Our friend Solomon of the Sun, failing to appreciate in its proper and intended spirit, a kindly suggestion which recently appeared in THE TRIBUNE, has ostracised us from friendly communion with himself, henceforth and forever, and not being satisfied with this, he has heaped insult upon injury, and rudely lacerated the tenderest tendrils of our heart, by refusing to exchange with our "little 8x12 sheet." Shall the presence of the Sun nevermore give us renewed courage and inspiration we perish. Hence this lachrymose demonstration.

We are informed by Mr. Roxby that he has lost 10 more head of cattle, making in all 22 head that have died out of his herd of 72. Also, that others in the neighborhood where his stock are being wintered have lost proportionately of their herds. Mr. Roxby was unable to determine the cause of the sudden death of his stock, although he made as careful and thorough examination as possible, finding the stomachs of the dead animals considerably inflamed. He says that death ensues shortly after the first symptoms of the disease are apparent, and that the animals become wild and frantic in their movements.

The town of McCook is flourishing. It is a most charming town, beautifully located and brim full of enterprise and energy. The land office was running over full of applicants for homesteads, pre-emptions or timber claims. Quite a number of new buildings have gone up since spring, some of them substantial brick structures. We found R. Y. Brown taking out a load of lumber to his homestead up on the Red Willow, but missing Dr. Harlan, who passed through town with his family, for his claim, which is close by Mr. Brown's. They are located about 12 miles from McCook, in Frontier county.—York Republican.
