The intense eagerness exhibited, in these parts, for the Land office and Post-office plumb, by our Democratic fellow-Americans, is evidently traceable to lack of anything more substantial than "liquid consolation" for the past 25 years.

NOTICE!

Persons indebted to us will please call at our office and settle their accounts before December 31st, 1884. All over-due notes held by us on January 1st, 1885, will be put in our lawyer's hands for collection. All parties having accounts against us will please present them for payment at once.

Frees & Hocknell.

Cubas at Metropolitan Drug Store.

Ketchum—We've got 'em—you bet.

Wall Pockets at Metropolitan Drug Store.

New Home and White Sewing Machines at Metropolitan Drug Store.

Why do it? When it is known that you can buy solid Gold Goods for less at McCracken's than you can buy snide goods at other places.

Benkelman will not be without Holiday attractions. On New Year eve, a grand mask ball will be indulged in by the fair ladies and gallant knights of that burg and vicinity.

Our merchants did an immense Atwood business, Monday. One man from that point bought a bill of $225 worth of goods. Others from the same point bought bills ranging well up into the dollars of our dads.

Cattlemen are unanimous in saying that stock went into the winter in prime condition, and that grass was never better and feed plentiful. This severe weather will try their metal, though.

Buy your Christmas candy at the City Bakery, where a consignment of curiously designed and handsomely decorated candies has just been opened. The finest, by all odds, ever brought into McCook. Call and see for yourself.

W. A. Clate's Art School will commence on Friday evening, January 2d, 1885. Drawing in all its various branches will be taught. Those desiring instruction, or information regarding the same, will find him at the B. & M. Eating House.

Have our business men ever considered that they could save more by having their insurance rate decreased, than an effective fire organization would cost them. Rate of insurance on goods, is we believe, 5½ per cent, and on building 5 per cent. Just figure on this proposition a little.

We would be pleased to entertain a few hundred of such men as R. F. Loomis of the Willow. Mr. Loomis dropped in, last week, and made our acquaintance, and before departing, subscribed and paid for four copies of THE TRIBUNE. One copy goes to his address and three to friends in different parts of the country.

This week we are sorry to state that Blue Hill loses one of her finest young men. Mr. Ebert, who has held a position in Mr. Thierman's store for a long time. He takes a position in the bank at McCook, as cashier, for which place he departed Tuesday evening. The well wishes of his young friends go with him.—Blue Hill Times.

Crete Nurseries paid Twelve Thousand Dollars for labor in 1884, and have raised more Nursery Stock than they can sell by ordinary methods. Those who dislike to sell farm products at present prices will appreciate the terms they offer. Send for a catalogue to E. F. STEPHENS, Supt., Crete, Nebraska.

Wm. McPherrin was arrested last Saturday at McCook, by sheriff Miles, of this county, on a charge of setting the prairie on fire on the east side of Deer Creek. Mr. McPherrin claims to be innocent of the act and that he will prove it to the satisfaction of all, on the day of trial. The crime is one that deserves punishment if the guilty parties can be found.—Faber.

The Superior Journal refers to the inexplicable (to us) action of "two young dudes of the first water," of that village. These dudslets have not sworn to forebear from the use of the fragrant weed or liquid lighting for a month, but have actually agreed not to speak to two certain young ladies for the specified time. Such a thing is unprecedented in McCook. Why our average "dotlet on the eye" can't refrain from conversation with our winsome, fascinating lassies more than 24 hours, and a fortnight of such abstinence would kill him.

NOTICE!

All persons indebted to me are requested to call and settle before the 15th day of January, 1885. After that date all unpaid accounts and over-due notes will be put in the hands of any attorney for collection.

J. E. BERGER.

S. H. Colvin has assorted and picked over all his apples, and offers a very fine winter apple for $3 per barrel.

Remember the lectures by Prof. Arnold, commencing December 31st, and continuing four evenings. Tickets are now on sale by W. O. Moody at Frees & Hocknell's lumber yard.

Reserved Seats for all entertainments in the Opera Hall will be sold at McCracken's Jewelry Store hereafter. With an improved ticket board people will be sure of their seats, there being no possible chance for mistakes.

The Union Sunday School gives an entertainment in the Congregational Church, to-night, for the little folks. All interested in the little ones, and in Sunday School matters, should be present. The program will doubtless be interesting.

An exchange remarks, "Don't become excited, we will be accommodated with a little winter in due time." We should smile—were the thermometer not down so low as to forestall the cracking of such a thing. 15 degrees below zero indicates an atmospheric condition very like winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fitzgerald of South McCook hailed the advent of a bouncing boy baby into their household, last Thursday. The stranger is a lusty little Celt of 12½ pounds. West McCook also received an addition of one to her population. A girl—to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McInroy.

Both the Oberlin papers are of opinion that a daily stage line between McCook and Oberlin would be a paying investment. When the importance and extent of the travel and traffic between these points are considered, that such an enterprise could be ought else but a paying one, seems improbable.

On January 1st, 1885, a penalty of 5 per cent. will be added to all unpaid taxes of the year 1884, and interest, computed at 10 per cent. per annum after said date. The Treasurer is ordered to levy and collect the same after January 1st, 1885.

J. H. GOODRICH, JR., County Treasurer.

Extensive preparations are being made for the Masonic ball and supper, to be held in the B. & M. Dining Hall, to-night. The ladies are vying with each other in the matter of dress, and the party that will assemble on this occasion will be the most brilliant one, in all probability, that has ever come together in our city. And apropos, in the matter of stylish dress our ladies are unapproachable.

Crete Nurseries offer of their own growth one hundred and twenty acres of nursery stock, carrying a good supply of Apple, Pear, Cherry, Plum, Peach, Apricot, and all the reliable small fruits. Forty thousand Evergreens of our own growth. Ornamental trees and plants. Hedge plants, Russian mulberry, Catalpa and Forest trees. Those who appreciate the advantage of dealing with a home nursery should send for a catalogue to E. F. STEPHENS, Supt., Crete, Nebraska.

The crew on No. 3, indulged in a humorous performance, some time since, at Hastings. It seems that No. 3 has about two hours time at Hastings, and that the crew take advantage of the fact and indulge in a "little snooze," to be awakened at the proper time by certain parties. On this particular time the operator, who, it appears, had also thrown himself into the arms of Morphine for a season, upon waking, and evidently supposing that the train was late, rustled around and informed the train men that they were 20 minutes late. Agreeable to which, the train was rapidly gotten under headway, and had reached the neighborhood of Blue Hill or beyond, before they ascertained that they were an hour ahead of time. The performance is unprecedented. More? No more.

The railroad boys are making preparations for holding a social hop in the Opera Hall; New Year's Eve. The boys are having some handsome programs printed at this office.

NOTICE.

All those persons knowing themselves to be in debt to Lytle Bros. are requested to call and square up accounts before the 1st of January, 1885.

Coal thieves seem to be numerous and active these cold nights, concluding from reports of a number of our citizens concerning the unusual and disproportionate amount of coal they have been buying lately. Friday evening, some parties were attracted to the plethoric coal bin of the Colvin House, and deliberately drawing a wagon along side of the same, they filled their wagon and quietly drifted away, without exciting any suspicion. We might note other instances. Just here we desire to call attention to the fact that our diminutive bunker of black diamonds is protected by a charge of dynamic death and destruction, not conducive to longevity. Others have equipped themselves with shot guns, but we will not speak of it, as a charge of bird-shot insinuated into the fleeing form of one of these thieves may create a healthy impression.

Toilet Soaps at Metropolitan Drug Store.

We failed to note the arrest and punishment—$10 and costs—of the shootist from Frontier county, last week. The individual giving the assumed name of Jones, was an unerring shot with the revolver, and after taking on board a super-cargo of a beverage of hell, he was in a superinduced mental and physical condition which made the shooting into private residences, snuffing of street lamps, etc., a very ordinary exploit. It is a wonder that no one was killed by the fool's reckless shooting. A simple fine is inadequate punishment for such an offense the endangering of an innocent life—and nothing short of imprisonment comes near recompensing or expiating for the crime. This high handed outlawry should be tolerated no more.

Hand Painted Toilet Sets at Metropolitan Drug Store.

School closed for the Holidays, Wednesday evening, and will open again January 5th, 1885. Mr. Stephenson, the present principal, whose term of employment ends with this term, we are informed, has accepted a clerkship in the County Clerk's office, and will move to the county-seat as soon as the weather permits. Mr. Stephenson, with his able assistants, has gotten the different departments of the school in good working order, for which much credit is due. The only change in teachers, we have it from a director, will be in the principalship; but Mr. Stephenson's successor has not yet been decided upon, or at least is not given us for publication.

Hanging Lamps at Metropolitan Drug Store.

We take it as being the imperative duty of every citizen of this town to assist in the enforcement of its ordinances rather than in defending those who transgress against them and outrage the dignity of its every law. If the idea goes forth that no matter what crime may be perpetrated against the peace, property or lives of our citizens, 'tis only necessary to engage counsel to escape with a small fine, we are likely to have more like the proceedings of last week. How much of this earth's treasures will pay for the loss of one noble life—at the hands of some drunken maniac?

Violins and Cases at Metropolitan Drug Store.

There is no one day in the entire year that is so full of meaning and benediction to all men, Christian and non-Christian, as Christmas Day, and no day that should be and we presume will be so, universally and joyfully observed. The little ones (and larger ones as well) should be remembered, not necessarily with a costly present, but with some memento within the means of the donors. If there are any deserving poor whose hearts can be made glad by a generous gift from the bounty of the more provident, let it not be withheld.

Positive Corn Cure at Metropolitan Drug Store.

A Meadville, (Pa.) girl bet her lover fifty kisses against a winter wrap that Blaine would be elected. She loses the wrap and he wins the rapture. That girl will insist upon a fair count, too, if she has to go over it a dozen times to make sure of it.

Any person having a Timber Claim, near McCook, for sale, should call on H. W. Pike.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

W. H. Hayden made his accustomed visit to McCook, Friday.

Mr. Hayward, representing Seaman, was in town, Tuesday.

Fred Pitney and Mrs. Kneff, teachers of the Culbertson schools, were in town, Saturday.

Mrs. Ed. Hocksworth went down to Superior, Monday night of last week, where she will visit her friend, Miss Mamie Valbehr.

I. J. Starbuck informs us that his law partner, J. B. Jennings, is now in Hamburg, Iowa, quite ill with the fever.

George Chenery took a jaunt out to Denver, the first of the week. George, we understand, has resigned his position with Hayder & Co.

A. P. Leech has been absent a number of days at Lincoln. Mr. L. is on the qui vive for some droppings from the Democratic sanctuary.

Messrs. Criswell, Ashmore and Snavely of the legal and judicial talent of the county-seat, transacted business before the land office, Tuesday.

S. E. Solomon editor of the Culbertson Sun, was in town on business, and found opportunity to invade this sanctum and form our acquaintance.

W. D. Cumming, familiarly known by the abbreviated title of "Scotty," came up, last week, from Red Cloud, where he has been in the employ of the B. & M., and will spend a number of days in town.

L. Morse of Benkelman stopped over in town, a few days the first of the week, on his way down the Valley after corn. Mr. Morse thinks this kind of winter requires more than hay to keep cattle comfortable.

Postmaster Harry Jones of Russell, Frontier county, was in town, two or three days, last week, a witness on a land suit. Litigation over disputed corners and lines is becoming a common occurrence and will become more so and more bitter as land increases in value.

A. E. Powers, editor of the Stockville Faber, was in town on business, Monday. A. E. says that they (some individuals unfriendly to Mr. Powers) are actually threatening to put another paper in Stockville. And still we mourn.

Mr. Shipman, a young man from Chicago, was in town, Monday, laying in some supplies and furnishings for his claim, up in Hayes county, recently entered by him, in the vicinity of the Dyers. Mr. S. made us a pleasant call, during the day.

Mr. H. C. Rider, the projector of the West McCook interests, is absent at Lincoln. H. C. doubtless wanted to see which way the cat would jump at the meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee, Tuesday. It seems to be a question with Dr. Miller and J. Sterling Morton, "to be or not to be."

The longest pole knocks the persimmons, and who manipulates the longest rod will appear.

The murderer of Eugene Sherwood, Jonas Nelson, was taken by a number of citizens to the tree at which he brutally assassinated Sherwood, and suspended to the nether end of a good piece of hemp, after which the body was mutilated by cutting the man's throat and shooting into his body. Nelson deserved the hanging, but the cutting and shooting was barbarous and unmanly, to put it mild. No man should let his animal nature get away with him to the extent of making a barbarian of him, no matter how great the crime.

Hand Painted Moustache Cups at Metropolitan Drug Store.

The first issue of The Trumpet came out last Saturday. 'Tis unnecessary for us to introduce either of the gentlemen-proprietors to the public, as both are old-timers and well known. Mr. J. P. Israel's successful career as editor of THE TRIBUNE, in the early history of McCook, assures to the readers of The Trumpet a most excellent journal. Mr. A. H. Davis' journalistic experience is limited, but his sterling qualities will bring him to the front.

Dolls, in all sizes, at Metropolitan Drug Store.

The long and short of it is: Woman's rights men wear long hair and woman's rights women wear short hair. Do we anticipate when we remark that the w. r. m.'s Sussman locks, shall their fondest hopes be realized, are destined to increase by an inverse ratio, while long-haired Delilah's will be as numerous as autumn leaves.—JENKINS JR.

Tribune Job Department.

We take especial pride in our job facilities, and now have in stock a full line of stationery of all kinds. Ball programs, invitations, etc. And with new type, presses, cutter, etc., we are prepared to do good work. Give us a trial.
