FARM AND GARDEN.

Eggs packed in well dried ashes, and so as not to touch each other, have been kept perfectly sweet for twelve months.

Do not be afraid to mix sulphur and red pepper with a mess of warm feed for your chickens twice or three times a week. It tends to keep them in good health.

The bark of the pear tree is thinner than that of the apple, hence it suffers. more severely from exposure of its her of dizziness in the head. So it has trunk to the heat of the summer sun, and should be protected.

Standard pear trees one year from the bud are safer to buy than those of greater age and size. Every element of cost is less, and the trees suifer less from transplanting.

An English gardener, who has great success in raising radishes, makes his radish beds with nearly or quite onehalf soft coal ashes and soot. Under this plan his beds are not infested by worms.

Surface manuring in fruit culture is also mulching in a measure, and all mulching benefits the soil. The losses. from evaporation are not great, but all manures should be well composted before applying.

Ohio's maple trees are not an insignificant figure in her crop statistics. She has 2,800,000 trees which produced sugar to the amount of 1,968,000 pounds, and 564,198 gallons of syrup, worth in round numbers about $800,000.

Where stumps are numerous and farms small, it pays farmers to unite and buy a large stump puller. The expense to each would be comparatively light, and the stumps could soon be routed by co-operation in work and machinery.

Little or no profit can be expected from old fowls, those in excess of two years. Very valuable hen-mothers may sometimes be retained several years longer for chicken raising, but the rest should be got rid of. The most profitable fowls are pullets.

When butter is kept in tubs or earthen vessels, it must be packed as closely as possible, and no interstices or vacant spaces left, for the butter quickly spoils around these interstices, and the evil spreads through the whole tub. In large establishments, it is considered essential that a tub be filled with butter made all in Grain, grass and stock-farmers can not be expected to carry on small truit culture for market along with general farming, without the employment of extra labor and capital. But every farmer can raise fruit enough for family use without much extra care; and every farmer ought to do it, and will do it, if he looks out properly for his family.

Bees wintered on their summer stands will require looking after occasionally to see that the entrance to the hive does not become clogged up with dead bees or ice. They require very little air during cold weather, but should a warm spell occur, and they find themselves closed up in the hives, the bees become very much excited, and while in this condition will soon smoother themselves to death.

Cleveland Bay is the name given to a handsome class of coach horses imported from England, mainly from Yorkshire. They are of good size, generally a good bay with black points. with a good carriage, well suited for carriage work, and much liked by many for use in producing horses for farm and other middle class work. More or less running blood is used in the crosses producing these horses.

Professor A. E. Blount, of the Colorado Agricultural College, reports that he is testing 250 varieties of wheat, gathered from all parts of the world, besides thirty-eight cross varieties, or bybrids, some of which are far superior to their parents. He says that so great are the changes made by the soil, climate, and his selection and crossing, that hardly one variety in ten can be recognized when shown to the parties who sent the seed.

Fortunate, indeed, have been those who have had stock in ample supply o consume their surplus, for no matter what the range of prices on meats, the amounts realized by the farmer have been and will be vastly greater than if he had sold to the grain merchant instead of the butcher. Every year the stock grower has some advantage over the grain grower, but at no time are the advantages so conspicuous as in the seasons of good crops | and low prices.

Butter is slower coming in the winter season than when the weather is warmer, the cream usually being at too low a temperature. Those who churn by guess work will be hours doing that which may be done in a shorten time by the use of a thermometer. In the winter the temperature should be sixty-four degrees, and in summer sixty-two degrees. In winter the cream may become cocler, and in summer warmer, hence it it is best to start one or two degrees warmer in cold weather and two degrees cooler in warm weather.

In France and Italy the milk of a cow after calving is not considered to be in its normal state till ten days. At this stage it is called colostrum. It contains no caseine, turns rapidly, but does not acidify. It has been alleged the longer the milk remains in the udder the richer it will be. Hence the morning is superior to the evening milking. Wolff's experience does not confirm this. Milk may not only be bitter as a consequence of marshy fodder, but also from the animal's bile entering into the circulation, and so passing to the milk

Drugs Used in Perscriptions.

According to the Ephemeris, an examination of 3,726 prescriptions in a Boston drug store showed that 504 different drugs were called for by the doctors. Quinine took the lead by appearing in 292 prescriptions, morphine appeared in 172, bromide of potassium in 171, iodide of potassium in 155, and muriate of iron in 134. The whole number of articles in the pharmacopæla is 994, and Boston uses more than half of them.

Do You Know a Man

Whose wife is troubled with debility, nervousness, liver complaint or rheumatism? Just tell him it is a pity to let the lady suffer that way, when Brown's Iron Bitters will relieve her. Mrs. L. B. Edgerly, Dexter, Me., says, "Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of debility and palpitation of the heart." Mrs. H. S. McLaughlin, of Scarborough, Me., says the bitters cured her of debility. Mrs. Harding, of Windham Centre, in the same state, says it cured cured thousands of other ladies.

A Reassuring Lick.

Sam V. Harris lives in Fort Worth. Neither he nor his wife are very smart, as will be seen by the following inci-dent. Last night Sam heard a noise under his bed.

"There is somebody under the bed," said Sam to his wife.

"It's Fido, I guess." "No, I think it's a burglar," replied

"Just reach your hand down and if it is Fido he will lick it."

The burglar, for it was one after all, overheard the conversation, and when Sam reached his hand down the burglar licked it all over very affectionatey. This was entirely satisfactory, and they both went to sleep, but when they woke up next morning there was not much left in the house that was worth carrying off .- Texas Siftings.

"That Miss Jones is a nice-looking girl, isn't she?"

"Yes, and she'd be the belle of the town if it wasn't for one thing." "What's that?"

"She has catarrh so bad it is unpleasant to be near her. She has tried a dozen things and nothing helps her. I am sorry, for I like her, but that doesn't make it any less disagreeable for one to be around her."

Now, if she had used Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, there would have been nothing of the kind said, for it will cure catarrh every time.

At a western funeral all the pall-bearers got into a fight, but the corpse remained perfectly neutral. The latter's conduct was highly commended by the local press.—Boston

Color Your Butter.

Farmers that try to sell white butter are all of the opinion that dairying does not pay. If they would use Wells, Richardson & Co.'s Improved Butter Color, and market their butter in perfect condition, they would still get good prices, but it will not pay to make any but the best in sollow and every life. Habitual constipation is not only one of the most unpleasant, but at the same time one of the most injurious conditions of the human system, and is but a forerunner of disease, unless removed. This is usually accomplished less removed. This is usually accomplished by the use of purgatives, which for the time afford relief, but after their immediate effects have passed they leave the system in a worse state than before. To effect a cure it is necessary that the remedy used should be one that not only by its cathartic effect relieves the bowels, but at the same time acts as a text. tonic, so as to restore the organs to a sound, healthy condition. This PRICKLY ASH BIT-TERS will do. It removes the cause and re-

Rheumatism

It is an established fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla. has proven an invaluable remedy in many severe cases of rheumatism, effecting remarkable cures by its powerful action in correcting the acidity of the blood, which is the cause of the disease, and purifying and enriching the vital fluid. It is certainly fair to assume that what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others it will do for you. There fore, if you suffer the pains and aches of rheumatism, give this remedy a trial.

"For twenty years I have been afflicted with rheumatism. Before 1833 I found no relief, but grew worse till I was almost helpless. I then began taking Hood's Sarsaparilia, and it did me more good than all the other medicines I ever had." H. T. Balcom, Shirley, Mass.
