At last our patient, but unfortunate old hero, General Grant, has been placed on the retired list.

THE first official act of Secretary of War Endicott was the signing of the commission appointing General Grant on the retired list.

If the amount of advertising done by the New Zealander in the Orleans Press is an index of the quality of "budge" consumed by its editor, Bro. Cleaver's capacity might well be rated "unlimited."

THE Dakota legislature has passed the bill removing the capital from Bismarck to Pierre. Whether the governor has vetoed it as expected, we have not heard. With a refinement of cruelty, the movers have commenced proceedings against some of the solid men of Bismarck for bribing honest legislators to vote against removal.

A good old Pennsylvania deacon has caused the arrest of a number of young people, alleging that they did their courting while the services were in progress; that they sang too loud and prayed too loud, with the idea of ridicule, and not with the serious and well meaning worship of God. The result of the test case will be eagerly anticipated.

THE editor of the Holdredge Republican takes the genial "Topics" of the State Journal to task about the latter's views on the question of Grammar. But Bro. Thomas, for a "foolish weakness" and "astounding depth of ignorance," think you not that Cal. is withal worthy of emulation—even in putting things grammatically—and in beautiful style.

THE women of Philadelphia have opened a skating rink of their own, to which no male creatures will be admitted. They will not have much fun, but they will silence the stern voice of their pastors. After they have learned to skate well in their own rink they can surreptitiously visit the others from time to time and astonish them with their accomplished whirling.

It has been proven in the six days skate-as-you-please race recently had in New York that an able bodied man can get over a thousand miles of soft maple flooring inside of two Sundays. This is within about two hundred miles of the best effort of the bicyclists. But while the bicycle expert can really make some use of his accomplishment in traveling long and far without paying his fare on the rail, the expert roller skater is of no use to the world or himself after he has done his best. Outside of the rink his art avails him nothing.

VAN BUREN was the only man ever elected President before the present incumbent who had not served as a volunteer in the defense of his country, or during a war had not been holding a high civic or diplomatic position equally as useful. Washington, Madison and Monroe were revolutionary soldiers. The elder Adams was our minister to various European countries during the struggle and accomplished great things by his strategy. Jefferson was a leading member of congress and also a diplomat. John Q. Adams was a boy during the revolution and a minister abroad during the war of 1812. Jackson, Taylor and Grant were the great soldiers of the war of 1812, the war with Mexico and the civil war, respectively, while Pierce, Hayes and Garfield were generals in the army. Polk, Buchanan and Lincoln were volunteers in their younger days and saw service.

When Van Buren ran for President there was an attempt made by his friends to show that he was a member of a home guard or something during the war of 1812, but it didn't stick. He staid at home to hold small offices and save his carcass. So with Stephen Grover. He was an able-bodied young man during the rebellion, but he waited for the draft and when it came he hired a substitute who deserted. Still perhaps he represents a good many of the rank and file of the party that elected him in this matter. But he wouldn't risk his skin for his country, and was doing nothing in the meantime but educate himself as a ward politician. Of course it will be said that Mr. Blaine did not enlist. However, he did yeoman's service in congress. He was not a dead-head like Cleveland.—State Journal.

RED WILLOW.

R. R. Randall, In. Agent: Dear Sir—In answer to your request, I will make a statement of my success at farming since I came to Nebraska. I came from Hamilton county, Ohio (Cincinnati), Nov. 30, 1875. I settled in Buffalo county and raised two crops on a rented farm. I had $7. I then homesteaded in Red Willow county, 1879. I now own 200 acres of land with living water, timber, good buildings, orchard young and growing fine, small fruit bearing well, osage hedge around orchard, tame grass, timothy, red clover, and alfalfa, all doing well. I have a farm fenced with barbed wire, a fine mill site on Red Willow creek. The value of my land and improvements, $5,500; 8 head of horses, 58 head graded cattle, Short Horns and Herefords, hogs and farming implements, the total value of which is $4,000. Total $9,500. In ten years my seven dollars has grown to this amount. My crop this year is 4 acres wheat, 103 bushels; corn 20 acres, 1,000; oats, 4 acres, 200 bushels; potatoes 14 acres, 1,400 bushels; 3 acres sorghum; I cut 300 tons prairie hay, raised 7 varieties potatoes. This is a good country for a poor man.

Yours Respectfully,
J. F. HELM,
Red Willow P. O., Red Willow county, Neb.

Dear Sir—I send you as requested, a statement of my success as a farmer since I came to Nebraska. I moved from Knox county, Missouri, in 1879, and had $600. I now own a section of good land worth $6,000; 8 head horses, $1,000; cattle, $2,300; hogs, and present crop worth $1,300; total $10,900. My crop this year raised amounted to: Wheat 25 acres, 625 bushels; corn 10 acres, 4,500 bushels; oats 10 acres, 400 bushels; potatoes, one-half acre, 100 bushels; millet 40 acres, 100 tons. It is a good state to follow agricultural pursuits and stock raising, and any industrious, saving man can make money.

Yours Respectfully,
WILLIAM M. NUTT,
Indianola, Red Willow County, Neb.

Dear Sir—I came to Nebraska in 1874, and had when I came $800. I now own 12 head of horses, 20 head of cattle, 45 head of hogs, one-half section of land, wagons and farming tools worth altogether clear of what I owe, $6,000. I came to Red Willow county in 1889. Most of what I am worth I have made since that time. This is the healthiest and best country for a poor man that I have found. My crop for 1884 is as follows: Wheat 40 acres, 600 bushels; corn 52 acres, 2,080 bushels; rye 15 acres, 375 bushels; oats 10 acres, 400 bushels; potatoes 1 acre, 150 bushels; millet 20 acres, 80 tons.

Yours Respectfully,
S. W. STILGEBAUER,
Danbury, Red Willow County, Nebraska.

Dear Sir—I came from Poweshiek county, Iowa, in the spring of 1879. I had $300 when I got here. I have now 340 acres, worth at least $5,000, 3 horses, 13 head cattle, and 6 hogs. My crop this year consisted of 15 acres wheat; 100 bushels; corn 15 acres, 600 bushels; one-half acre of potatoes, 50 bushels; 6 acres of millet 15 tons. I am satisfied with my six years labors in Nebraska. Yours Respectfully,
WM. E. WINDHURST,
Indianola, Red Willow County, Nebraska.

Dear Sir—I send you a statement of my success at farming since I came to Nebraska. I came from Pierce county, Wisconsin, in May, 1873. I had about $500 in value invested in mules, 1 cow, wagon, and harness. I now own 320 acres of land, have a timber land which is leased on one section of school land which is fenced, with dwelling house and wind mill worth $1,000. I have 11 head of horses including two colts; 100 head cattle, and 15 hogs. I consider my property worth $11,150. I raised 1,000 bushels corn on old ground, 245 bushels on sod ground, 200 bushels rye, 200 bushels potatoes; cut 50 tons wild hay and sowed 20 acres millet. Threshed 20 bushels seed from 2 acres. I had but 57 acres in cultivation.

Yours Respectfully,
FRANK FRITZCH,
Indianola, Red Willow County, Nebraska.

Dear Sir—When I came to Nebraska, in 1872, it was from Jones county, Iowa. After I got my homestead entered, I had 1 span of horses, wagon, and 1 cow, and 25 cents in money. This was my start. I now own my homestead, all the farming implements needed for raising crops. I think the soil is equal to the soil of Iowa. I now consider my land property worth $2,000. I raised in 1884 the following crop: Wheat 18 acres, 336 bushels; corn 27 acres, 1230 bushels; broom corn, 40 acres, 7 tons; potatoes, 50 bushels.

Mr. FRANK JONES of New Hampshire is reported as perfectly satisfied with the advertisement afforded his beer, and therefore refused the naval portfolio. Mr. Jones brews annually enough beer to float the United States navy, not to mention the temperance element of New Hampshire, including Bill Chandler.

THE editor of the Cambridge Monitor recently made use of the word dude, and other choice epithets, in connection with a young man of that burg, for which he was compelled to make public apology—in addition to being choked. And a public long since weary of a word in current use by every chump of limited vocabulary, stands with unceasing head and with one accord call that young man blessed.

LAMAR is the old Roman of the cabinet. Spelled out in full his name reads "Lucius Quintus Curtius Lamar." But he probably hasn't heard his name in full for a good many years—not since his maternal ancestor used to summon him to come in and make the acquaintance of her most robust slipper.
