Official City and County Paper.

We see the names of General Thayer, Charles H. Gere and Charles Buschow mentioned as prospective secretaries of the board of railroad commissioners.

OUR democratic brethren will soon enjoy the felicitous bourbon "pap" from off a republican ladle. This purging process will make it all the more acceptable, however.

QUITE a number hereabouts seem to be solicitous in regard to the tenacity of the grip Mr. Laws has on the McCook land office. Don't lose any sleep, gentlemen.—Orleans, Sentinel.

GRANDMA TIPTON will in due course of events stand up to the government rack and take his fodder, having been appointed receiver of public moneys at the Bloomington land office.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is now giving every evidence of his belief in the Jacksonian principle, "to the victor belongs the spoils." Democrats, of course, are correspondingly happy.

"IMPERMANENCE cuts down youth in its vigor, manhood in its strength, and age in its weakness. It breaks the father's heart; bereaves the dotting mothers, extinguishes affections, erases congenial love, blows out filial attachment, blasts paternal hope, and brings down mourning age in sorrow to the grave.—Ingersoll.

GENERAL BRAGG has fallen so low in the President's good graces that he speaks contemptuously of Grover as "The Tycoon." Verily, as Solomon remarks in the new edition, "all is vanity and striving after wind." It is second wind that Bragg is striving after, now. Grover knocked him out of his first in the matter of a postmastership.

THE Sutton Register, in commenting upon our remarks concerning the Long-Johnson tragedy, inadvertently places us in a false position. The men connected with that ghastly affair were disreputable and desperate in the extreme, but the woman in this particular case is unquestionably one of those Sirens, whose sweet, but deceptive voice, and whose personal charms, coupled with a base and passionate nature, stimulated by drink, has enticed men of otherwise fair characters to depart from the paths of rectitude and go down in the Charybdis of sensuality. These, however, are exceptional. Presumptuous lords of creation will have to settle the score for nine-tenths of the grand total of all these cases, and our rotten social laws are largely blamable.
