Also the celebrated Omaha Mills Note Paper, with envelopes to match. All at reasonable rates. I have just received a large stock of new shades in all colors, and am selling the large sun hats in all colors for 50c., original price 75c. MRS. T. NELLS. Drop in the Great Western Furniture Emporium and inspect that handsome assortment of new Window Blinds. They are beauties and reasonable in price. They have just received a choice consignment of candies at the City Bakery, and lovers of that toothsome article are requested to call and sample them—by purchase. WANTED—A few more pupils to receive instruction on the piano and organ. I also teach voice culture. Call at Dr. Boyle's Dental Office. MINNIE BOYLE.

NOTICE.

The undersigned having disposed of his Lumber Business to Hallack & Howard of Denver, Colo., is now closing up his accounts. All those parties who are owing us will please call at my former place of business and settle at once. H. W. PIKE.

Our educational institutions have been quite active in their work, this week. Bozy graduates were numerous.

The regular monthly meeting of the fire company will be held on Wednesday of next week. Important business.

E. M. Brickey commenced the erection of a residence on Marshall street, Tuesday. The dimensions are 24x24 feet.

Real estate in this vicinity is climbing up into figures. For instance, $3,100 for a deeded claim and a relinquishment.

A yale outfit of 200 lock boxes, and 300 general delivery boxes has been ordered by Postmaster Sharp, for the new postoffice.

Work was commenced, Tuesday morning, on Dr. T. B. Stutzman's residence on Monroe street, north of W. O. Moody's dwelling.

A score of prairie schooners drove through town, during Tuesday, with droves of mixed stock, which indicates some means.

The greatest need of our growing city is a first-class hotel. Present accommodations are entirely inadequate. Who will be the man?

A number of the young ladies and gentlemen of our city passed Sunday exploring the classic Driftwood, and report a delightful time.

An expert skater gave a very credible exhibition at the skating rink, Friday night. The audience, we are informed, was rather small.

Can't we make a satisfactory arrangement whereby all the periodic bums won't go on a spree at the same time. It won't look so bad to the stranger within our gates.

The funeral of Mrs. John Calkins of Stoughton took place at the cemetery, Thursday last. Mr. Calkins has the sympathy of his entire neighborhood in his sad bereavement.

DUST TO DUST—Aaron Colvin, who lives in the neighborhood of Stoughton, died at his residence, Sunday, after a lingering illness. A host of friends mourn his untimely demise.

We hear it stated that Messrs. Bennett, Brown and Johnson of this city, have laid out a new town in Sherman county, Kansas. The name of the embryonic city we have not learned.

THE TRIBUNE has the very best facilities and workmen for doing Job Work in Southwestern Nebraska. We guarantee neat and tasty work, and entire satisfaction in execution and prices.

Nine men occupied bunks on the floor at the Eating House, Monday night, and four had cots. The other hotels turned men away, being unable to accommodate the number applying for lodging.

The City Bakery is in receipt of a car-load of the "Cream" and "Fancy" brands of the celebrated Grand Island Flour—the house-keepers' delight—and the finest flour offered for sale in the city.

The dearest spot on earth is home, sweet home. The cheapest spot on earth to furnish a home is at J. P. Mathes' Furniture Emporium. Everybody is invited to call and see him in his new quarters, at McCook.

A car-load of fine horses from Benton county, Iowa, arrived in town, last Friday evening, and are being offered for sale at Blair's stables. There were 21 head in the car, embracing a number of handsome draft and carriage horses.

This locality certainly received "showers of blessing," Sunday night. The rain was accompanied by a pretty heavy wind and a brilliant electric display, but none of the destructive elements which characterized the same in other neighborhoods.

The enterprising proprietors of the Central Meat Market, Church & Bohanan, shipped a car-load of fine steers up from Red Cloud, the first of the week. The entire bunch of eighteen head averaged over 1,100, and they are pronounced beauties.

BAD BREAK—Frank Beal, one of the proprietors of the feed stable situate on corner of Railroad and Manchester streets, sustained a severe fracture of an arm at the elbow joint, Saturday, while breaking a pony. The fracture is a complicated one, and may result in a stiff arm.

There must have been something of war in the air, Tuesday, everybody was in an unusual degree bellicose. The usquebaugh absorbed on that day evidently had a large admixture of pugilism in it.

Vegetables and butter and eggs all ways on hand at Church & Bohanan's.

The public will observe that an act of congress makes it necessary that the postoffice be closed from 10 o'clock, A. M., to 5 o'clock, P. M., on Memorial Day, Saturday the 30th. The day will be thus observed at this office.

Boston Brown Bread at the City Bakery constantly.

They have just received a consignment of those fine-toned and elegantly-finished Western Cottage Organs at the Great Western Furniture Emporium. If you want a superior instrument, call and see the Western Cottage.

House plants for sale at the Metropolitan Drug Store.

Somebody wanted to polish off somebody else's physiognomy in front of Fitch's restaurant Tuesday noon, but nothing more serious than a display of muscular (?) arms and powers of mouth occurred, to the disappointment of spectators many.

Call and see Spanogle & Rinker's top Buggies.

Newspapers have the sanction of the "Great Jehovah and Continental Congress" in publishing all legitimate news. The easiest way to sustain an equitable temperature is to be law-abiding, a law-abiding citizen always receives the staunchest support of reputable newspapers the world over.

White Bolted Corn Meal at the City Bakery.

A plasterer who gave the name of Scantlin was corralled at this place, Friday, for jumping his board bill at Culbertson. He was sent to the town where in the crime was committed. If the landlady, Mrs. Cline, had the judicial functions to perform in this case, that fellow's name would be inscribed amongst the immortals as Dennis.

Spanogle & Rinker have the Grass Hopper Rod Breaker.

Messrs. Everts & Kirk, publishers of the official atlas of Nebraska, announce that the atlas is now about complete and they will commence delivery early in June. The book contains over four hundred maps of counties, cities and villages in the state. The county maps are each certified to by the county surveyors of the respective counties.

Church & Bohanan have new potatoes on the market.

Three men from the eastern part of the state purchased A. J. Pate's half-section of land adjoining the west part of town, last Friday, paying therefor $3,100. Part of this purchase embraced the old Stevens claim which Mr. Pate bought some time since for something over $1,000. A. J. realized handsomely from Friday's deal, as he has in other real estate transactions.

Standard Hallady wind mills at Spanogle & Rinker's.

The revised edition of the Old Testament puts the word usually written thus, h—l, in different form. Go to sheol will now become a more pleasant phrase of the irreverent. Juliet was wont to make Romeo believe that "a rose by any other name would smell as sweet," and we suppose the change of name will not seriously interfere with the temperature of his satanic majesty's summer resort.

Fresh strawberries at the Central Meat Market.

A very interesting and touching event was that of Sunday night, the 9th inst. Just as No. 1 was pulling into the side-track at Akron, a lady passenger aboard the train en route to Denver, added one more soul to the train of human freight—an inadvertency, under the circumstances, of which St. Peter is very seldom guilty. The boys are now wont to inquire frequently as to Dr. Coy's practice, etc.

A full line of Pumps and Pump fittings, at Spanogle & Rinker's.

The State Journal's traveling correspondent and solicitor, Will S. Jay, was in our city, last week, and made arrangements with the railroad company to have the Journal brought up to McCook on the Denver through freight, which arrives here about 4 o'clock. This gives us the paper on the day of issue. The Journal will be handled at the Paragon drug store until the P. O. news depot is open.

In response to the call in last week's paper, a small number of citizens met at the Citizens' Bank, Monday evening, to discuss the question of having a celebration on the Fourth of July. After some talk it was unanimously decided that we celebrate, and a committee of three, Messrs. Chas. Noble, Justin Wilcox and Fred Harris, was appointed to secure the funds to carry out the work. These gentlemen have already secured over $600 by subscription, almost every person approached thus far having given liberally, and the gentlemen who have refused, we believe, will see the error of their way, and come down handsomely in due time. The committee expect to secure at least $700, which will insure a grand celebration, if judiciously expended; and the matter is thoroughly advertised; and we believe that the energetic business men and citizens of McCook will enter into this matter with a zeal and determination which will insure a splendid celebration. Another meeting will be held in the Opera Hall, Friday evening, when different committees will be appointed, and other important business transacted. Let there be a full turn-out.

Go to Church & Bohanan for your fresh peas.

A young man by the name of George W. Pate, who lives a few miles northwest of town, was arrested, last week, on the charge of having obtained $200 under false pretenses at the Red Willow County Bank of Indianola. The young man, in order to secure the loan, gave a mortgage on 90 head of suppositious cattle. His hearing came off before Esquire Colvin, last Thursday evening, when he admitted that he did not have the cattle, but that he thought, when he borrowed the money, that no one would know otherwise, and that he would be able to pay the money back when the note came due. He was put under $500 bonds to appear in District Court, and is now in the hands of Sheriff Welborn. As the crime is one the law deals with severely, the young man will likely have a bitter experience, although malicious intent might not have entered largely into the commission of the offense.

For pumps and pipes go to Spanogle & Rinker.

Tuesday night's flood was disastrous to many cellars in this city. C. H. Rogers' cellar contained three or four feet of water, Wednesday morning, damaging his stock to the extent of some $200. The cellar under J. A. Wilcox's residence was flooded doing very considerable damage to some valuable articles stored away in trunks, etc. W. O. Moody's cellar also succumbed to the flood of waters, damaging much of value stored therein. S. L. Green's cellar was slightly flooded, but little damage was occasioned thereby. Church & Bohanan's cellar was filled to overflowing, but costly experience had taught the present proprietors to keep the same severely empty—hence no loss. Other cellars with their contents were more or less damaged, to what extent we have not learned.

Smoked meats and fresh lard at Church & Bohanan's market.

One of the individuals who has been running the "knife-board snap" on Main Avenue, for some days, was arrested, Tuesday noon, for being drunk and disorderly. Deputy Sheriff Welch experienced considerable difficulty in lodging the transgressor in the cooler, as he resisted violently and to the last. After calling upon a number for assistance, one finally stepped forward to the Deputy's aid, and the disturber was placed in the village lock-up.

Great Reduction in Watches and Jewelry at McCracken's.

A young man by the name of Ferguson, who has been working for B. F. Olcott for some time, was so unfortunate as to sustain a fracture of a leg above the ankle, Sunday, while wrestling with another person. He is now laid up for repairs in the office attached to the stable.

String beans at the market of Church & Bohanan, all the time.

During the scuffling incident upon the arrest of George Wright, the knife-board man, Tuesday noon, a crowd quickly assembled to view the "fun;" but shades of the righteous, what an amount of business many had on the opposite side of the street when the Deputy called for assistance!

The City Livery Stable, B. F. Olcott, proprietor, for fine teams.

A car-load of picked potatoes at Wilcox Bros.

Nine persons are reported to have lost their lives, Tuesday night, between Cambridge and Indianola, by drowning. An emigrant who was camping in the neighborhood informs us that there were 17 in the party, all Bohemians, and that six children and three women were drowned by the flood of water that rushed down the canyon in which the emigrants were camping for the night. From another source we learn that $2,000 or $3,000 in money was lost by the party. The sudden and mighty rush of waters was evidently caused by a water-spout or cloud-burst somewhere north of the locality in which the campers located.

Passenger trains No. 2 and No. 40 from the west, Wednesday, were delayed at this station until between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning, and No. 39 and No. 1, from the east, Wednesday, did not reach here until this morning about 8 o'clock. The long delay was occasioned by extensive wash-outs between Indianola and Cambridge, considerable track and bridge No. 204 being washed out by the floods, the result of a cloud-burst in that locality. Trains are now moving as usual.

The Driving Park Association have leased land adjoining the old fairgrounds on the west, and have had a half-mile track surveyed. They propose to put in so much money and have those who have the Fourth of July celebration in hand put in a similar amount, and erect some permanent buildings on their grounds, which can be used for the celebration on the fourth. The proposition is a good one, and will be advantageous to all parties.

The rain of Tuesday night, for a "country where it don't rain much," was a genuine soaker from way back. The torrents of rain fell without ceasing for about eight hours, and the streets on the following morning presented the appearance of having been flooded. Every deeded quarter is quoted a dollar per acre higher.

A gentleman by the name of Andrews from Peoria, Ill., passed through town en route to Dundy county, Saturday morning. He was driving a bunch of about one hundred cows and calves, purchased in southeastern Nebraska and northeastern Kas. Mr. Andrews' headquarters, however will be at Stratton.

We call your attention to the professional card of Dr. Davis, which appears in our directory, this week. The doctor is a graduate of our state university and the medical department of the Wisconsin university, and comes well recommended.

Dot ledle German tailor on Main Avenue was taken in for being drunk and disorderly, Wednesday, by Deputy Welch. His trial came off, early this morning, and upon his refusal to pay his fine of $5, he was remanded to the cooler.

SITUATION WANTED—To do plain sewing. Will assist in light house work if desired. Inquire at this office.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trustees occurs on Tuesday, June 2nd.

M. E. Church Services. During the absence of the pastor, the following clergymen will occupy the pulpit, on the dates given below:

June 14th—Rev. J. B. Piper.
June 21st—Rev. J. M. Mann.
June 28th—Rev. Geo. M. Boswell.
July 12th—Rev. I. S. Carr.
July 19th—Rev. F. F. Thomas.
July 26th—Rev. E. S. Hall.

FOR SALE. The best tract of hay land in Red Willow county, 480 acres. Will sell cheap. Also, adjoining the above, I have 160 acres of the same kind of land. All well timbered and watered. Call on or address, R. S. COOLEY, Real Estate Agent, office opposite McCook Hotel.

Particular Notice. Having purchased Mr. Farley's ice, we are prepared to furnish the public with that article promptly. All Mr. Farley's contracts will be carried out by us. Give us your orders.

CHURCH & BOHANAN. Indianola Mill. The Indianola Mill Company will do a general milling business. Due notice will be given when we are ready to receive grain and do milling.

CLARK WARD, Manager. FOR SALE. I have 100 bushels of Millet Seed for Sale. WM. COLEMAN, 7 miles northwest of McCook.

Assessor Francis is around, these days interviewing the people concerning their personal property, etc.

Jeweler McCracken has just set up a handsome new cherry show case, and made other additions in stock and store.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

Sheriff Welborn had business in this thriving metropolis, Friday. Representative Hocknell returned, Tuesday night, from his trip to Chicago. Miss Mamie Volbehr of Superior is visiting Mrs. Ed. Hawksworth of our city. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Babcock of Cambridge spent Sunday with Receiver Babcock.

G. G. Bailey of Oberlin, dealer in real estate, was in town on business, Monday and Tuesday. Traveling Auditor Wiggins of the B. & M. went up to his Hayes county claim, last Saturday.

C. S. Howard of Denver, one of the firm of Hallack & Howard, our new lumbermen, was in town, Monday. Fred. Weed, late a popular "con." on the B. & M., visited in town, two or three days, the first of the week.

James LaTourrette, father of W. C. of our city, took No. 40, Saturday, for St. Louis, after a short visit in McCook.

General Manager Holdredge passed through this place, Saturday, in his special car, which was attached to No. 40. Charlie Payne went up to Benkelman, Sunday, to take charge of Fries & Hocknell's yard at that place for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCartney of Indianola, and Mrs. Julia McCartney of St. Louis, W. H.'s mother, were in town, Sunday. R. H. Hamilton returned from his trip to New Orleans, last Thursday. He reports a delightful visit, and a stupendous exposition.

Irving Kern, traveling agent subscription department of the Omaha Republic, was in town, Wednesday, in pursuit of his business. B. B. Davis, a young disciple of Esculapius from Lincoln, was in town, the first of the week, looking up a location to engage in the practice of medicine.

Mrs. J. A. Miller, three children, and mother, arrived in town from St. Joe, Mo., Saturday. They are living in the rooms in the rear of J. P. Mathes' furniture store.

James Hatfield of Decatur, Ill., one of the owners of the Hatfield ranch, and well known to many in this community, came up to the city on No. 1, Sunday night.

Mrs. C. P. Rinker joined her husband at this place, the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. R. are putting up at the Eating House until their pleasant home is ready for occupancy.

C. W. Shurtleff, president of the Bank of Stratton, was in town a few hours, on Friday, on business. Mr. Shurtleff gives a very encouraging report of the thriving burg of Stratton, where he has cast his lot.

Rev. W. S. Wheeler of the M. E. Church expects to start for Baltimore, Md., June the 1st, on a visit home. Elsewhere we publish a list of clergymen and the dates when they will occupy the pulpit during Rev. Wheeler's absence.

Thomas Colfer and wife returned, Monday morning, from their visit to Denver and the mountains. They were passengers on the D. & R. G. train, which the strikers attempted to blow up with dynamite, and don't care to repeat the experience.

C. H. Frew of Paxton, Ill., Secretary and Treasurer of the Paxton Cattle Co., with Messrs. Dickey and Darrow of Brookville, Penna., arrived in town, last week. The Keystone gentlemen were on a tour of investigation, with the object of taking stock in the company in which Mr. Frew is interested, who was acting as guide. The party visited the company's ranch on the Frenchman in Chase county, but will make a visit to Wyoming before deciding as to whether or not they will invest in the stock business in this section.

County-Seat Clatter. The great number of men and teams leaving this place, every few days, for the scene of action on the new railroad south, puts one forcibly in mind of war times.

Indianola's public schools closed for the year, last Friday. At least we inferred as much, and nothing more serious, upon hearing the oft-repeated assertion from the boys and girls that, "This is the last day."

County Treasurer Goodrich is absent looking after his land over in Kansas. Sheriff Welborn has released Bowman, Lee's pal in the bunco business, on bond, and the chances are that we "will never see him more, alas," as Huckleberry Finn would put it.

Many will have cause to remember the last Grand Jury. They certainly fired some heavy shot (and with a good aim) at parting. They meet again on the 22nd of June, and no doubt many a transgressor in Red Willow county feels the truth of the old saying "you can't tell where the lightning will strike," and wishes that dreadful "twelve" adjourned.

We have no saloon yet, although several respectable (?) saloonists are willing to cater to the thirsty public. We need a "mill," BAD. Drug stores are not just the thing; the Grand Jury makes them uncertain, and beside, we can't all read Latin, to know just what kind of medicine we are taking. COUNTY SEAT.

Indianola May 28th, 1885.
