Heating Stoves...

Are you going to want a Heating Stove this winter? If you are, you want the best—the best in appearance—the best in quality and—the best in results. If you want one that will give you the best results for all kinds of fuel, you want one of the following lines:

Cole's Original Hot Blast, Peninsular Parlor Heater and Double Heating Base Burners, The XXth Century Laurel, The Retort Jewel.

We have the exclusive agency of the above lines, which include the best stoves made. Make us a call before buying elsewhere and we will gladly explain to you all the special features of the different stoves. We guarantee every stove mentioned to be perfectly satisfactory in every way or we will exchange it or refund money paid us.

We carry the largest and most complete line of stoves of all kinds found in Northwest Nebraska.

Call and Inspect these stoves.

TALK OF THE TOWN

John Shelbourn was in town Monday from the table northeast of town.

D. D. Kellogg, the Britt merchant, was in town last Saturday on business.

F. K. Bivens and wife came down from the agency and visited a few days the past week.

A. F. Bracket was down from Kilgore last Saturday. He handed us a dollar on subscription.

Mrs. Hyde and children left Saturday for South Dakota where they expect to make their future home.

Rev. Clark has returned from Grand Island, where he has been attending the Nebraska Presbyterian synod.

Mrs. Moon, who has been quite sick for the past two weeks, is much improved and able to be about again.

J. F. Prentiss, representing the New York Life Insurance company, has been in town two or three weeks.

Mrs. Callen has returned from a months visit with her daughter, Mrs. Thorn, who is a teacher on the reservation.

James Hudson came up from Sparks last Saturday to get building material. We suppose he needs more granaries to hold his crop.

U. O'Bryan, of the reservation, was in town Monday. He says he is burning fire guards as fast as the weather permits to secure his range.

We forgot to mention last week that Burgess Hartigan returned the previous Saturday from a two weeks visit with his parents at Hastings.

Tomorrow evening, Friday, Oct. 21, the Eagles will have another ball in the McDonald building. They promise good music and expect a good crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Shepard returned Tuesday morning of last week from Inman, Nebr., where they had attended a re-union of Latter-day Saints.

Mr. Porath informs us that a student, Mr. Hoffman, of the German Lutheran church, is teaching school, both German and English, in the Riege settlement.

James L. Ashburn was in the city from his homestead northeast of town the first of the week and handed the Editor a dollar for subscription to THE DEMOCRAT.

Miss Ruby Hall, who has been employed in the capacity of trimmer in Miss Martin's millinery store for the past season, left Monday for her home in Gordon.

Sam Hudson was in town Monday to get supplies for his ranch and says he is getting ready for winter. Hub Daniels and Mr. Kirkwood are working for him at his ranch near Simeon.

O. F. Lawrence, of Stearns, S. D., was in our city last Saturday and bought one of S. Moon's celebrated Perkins wind mills and a tower which he hauled out together with a load of provisions.

A. W. Scattergood, an attorney of Ainsworth, well known to many of our people, was in the city last Monday on business. He is kept pretty busy nowadays with contests and real estate business.

Edwin L. Pettijohn, a captain in the late civil war of an Ohio regiment, is in the city visiting his nephew, J. C. Pettijohn, and Capt. A. G. Shaw, who was a soldier in his regiment during the war.

Jonathan Vincent, of Zion, Oregon, a brother to Mrs. Jas. Shepard, arrived here Friday, Oct. 7, for a few weeks visit and expects to go down to Cambridge from here to visit a brother and sister and from there to Logan, Iowa, where he has another sister.

W. A. Smith and Berne Tinkam drove up from the hayflats east of Woodlake Monday and spent several hours in town. Mr. Smith was elected precinct chairman of the democratic party for Woodlake precinct at a meeting held recently to nominate precinct officers.

George L. Coleman, of Neligh, was in town last Saturday putting up tombstones. Mr. Coleman formerly lived south of Cody on a ranch but sold out to the Federal Cattle company a couple of years ago and went to Neligh where he engaged in the marble business.

R. B. Tucker is the new clerk at Davenport & Thacher's the past few weeks. It was an oversight upon our part not to have mentioned this item before. Mr. Tucker has taken a homestead in Cherry county and having experience in the mercantile business in Lincoln he is found to be a valuable assistant.

Grandpa Morey and wife are back from Deadwood where they spent several weeks visiting their son Sol and wife. Mrs. Morey's health is very much improved and Mr. Morey says they will live here with his son O. W. Morey in the house formerly occupied by them and which he sold to his son before going to Deadwood.

A. W. Peterson, of Arabia, has purchased a hay baler and bales his hay that he hauls to market for which he receives $6 per ton and finds ready sale for all he hauls to town. He thinks the saving to him in hauling larger loads and being easier to handle pays him to bale his hay before hauling to market.

Herman Zieckrick and three of his neighbors of Westover, S. D., were down the latter part of last week getting loads of provisions, vegetables and potatoes which they are taking home for their winter supply. Cherry county can raise potatoes, vegetables, corn, wheat, oats, hay, and beef and pork sufficient to supply her own citizens and feed the western half of South Dakota. Valentine is the central trading point for Rosebud reservation and Cherry county.

D. D. Dunn is prospering since his return to Cherry county and has bought two quarter sections of land with the profits of a couple of years work, farming Cherry county land, on which he raises corn, oats, wheat and potatoes for sale, and all the garden truck that he could raise on an eastern farm. Cherry county land is all right and will produce something besides grass and steers when a man farms as eastern farmers do. There is a splendid opportunity for dairying in Cherry county. Alfalfa grows where-ever it has been tried.

J. F. Porath, of Riege, was in town last Saturday and informed us that he has just lately put down a well 307 feet deep for Wm. Riege which secures an ever-lasting supply of water of the best quality. He also put down a well 196 feet deep for Henry Weisflog and is now at work for Felix Nollette putting in a three inch casing for him. The above demonstrates the ability of Mr. Porath to put down deep wells and that he is kept busy all the time. A letter will reach him at Riege if anyone is contemplating getting a good well from a practical well man.
