Heating Stoves...

Are you going to want a Heating Stove this winter? If you are, you want the best—the best in appearance—the best in quality and—the best in results. If you want one that will give you the best results for all kinds of fuel, you want one of the following lines:

- Cole's Original Hot Blast,
- Peninsular Parlor Heater and Double Heating Base Burners,
- The XXth Century Laurel,
- The Retort Jewel

We have the exclusive agency of the above lines, which include the best stoves made. Make us a call before buying elsewhere and we will gladly explain to you all the special features of the different stoves. We guarantee every stove mentioned to be perfectly satisfactory in every way or we will exchange it or refund money paid us.

We carry the largest and most complete line of stoves of all kinds found in Northwest Nebraska.

Call and Inspect these stoves.

TALK OF THE TOWN

—LOOK!

Henry Sanner and John Britt, of Britt, were doing some trading here Monday.

John Haerber, of Kennedy, was a business visitor in Valentine the first of the week.

The Valentine Concert Band will give a dance this evening in the McDonald building.

John Sedlacek and wife were in town last Saturday from their ranch, 8 miles southwest of town.

L. W. Parker, of Burge, Nebr., was transacting business in town a couple of days the first of the week.

L. S. Spaid has renovated the pool and ball and bill, owned by John St. Clair, and opened the same Monday of this week.

J. W. Marrahl and wife are happy over the arrival of a bouncing baby girl, born Thursday night, November 17, 1904.

E. L. Hutchinson and wife were in town from Penbrook Tuesday, the latter having some dental work done by Dr. Dailey.

R. G. Easley and two smaller children departed Tuesday morning for his parental home in Indiana to spend Thanksgiving.

M. N. Allen and wife were up from Norden Tuesday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bishop. Mr. Allen was purchasing horses and mules.

J. O. Beatty departed Tuesday morning for Weir City, Kan., in response to a telegram from there announcing that his father was dying.

I. M. Rice and wife went down to Mrs. Rice's claim on Marsh Lake last Thursday and started to build another house, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams and daughter Mrs. Genevieve Hewitt have rented the rooms over T. C. Hornby's store and will start a conservatory of music.

W. A. Parker, the Wood Lake merchant, was transacting business in Valentine last Saturday. He made this office a pleasant call while in town.

Harve Shepard and wife returned last Friday morning from a vacation. Dr. W. W. Mr. Shepard had gone as a witness in the Cook-Gaver murder case.

The Valentine high school football team and a team from O'Neill will play here this afternoon. The home team has been practicing faithfully and will no doubt acquire themselves very creditably in the game today.

In their trial before the grand jury at Aberdeen, S. D., last week Gaver pleaded guilty to manslaughter and Cook was indicted for taking whiskey onto the reservation. Cook was released on bail of $1,000.

Jesse Brosius, who is living on the Cochran ranch near Woodlake, was in town Monday on important business. Jesse says he lost a fine calf Sunday night, and that he has lost several head of yearling calves the past summer with the blackleg.

R. L. Hall, of Kentucky, has purchased the hotel furniture of the Chicago House and took possession Tuesday evening. Mr. Hall has had considerable experience in hotel keeping and will run a first-class hotel. Numerous improvements will be made for the accommodation of the trade and Mr. Hall will be glad to get acquainted with one and all in a pleasant manner.

We are going to give our readers or their boys or girls a chance to make a dollar for Christmas time. Our gasoline engine makes it possible for us to run a bigger subscription list and to get it we are going to divide the profits with those who help to make our list larger. Here's our offer: Anyone can work at it.

New Subscribers To The Valentine Democrat to Jan. 1, 1906 for $1.00:

To the party sending in the name of any new subscriber to Jan. 1, 1906 they may retain 50c as their commission on each new subscriber sent to this office. That is, send us 50c for each new subscriber to Jan. 1, 1906 and keep the other half dollar as your commission. This offer holds good only to Jan. 1, 1905. Get to work and help to swell our list 500 names. It is easy money for you. Send money order or any way for us to get the money. If you send stamps they must be 2c stamps and send one extra for each subscription. We want a boy or girl in every home in Cherry or Keya Paha counties to earn some money on this proposition.

Send in your orders as soon as you can get them to

I. M. RICE, OF THE VALENTINE DEMOCRAT, Valentine, Nebr.

Robert Quisenberry was visiting in town the first of the week.

Frank Randall has purchased one of Mae Cran, his delivery wagons and has hired Charley Breakholder to drive it for him. Mr. Cran will only run one wagon and will do the store delivering. Mr. Randall will do general transfer work, hauling coal etc. He will drive two horses instead of one as formerly.

The following from Brownlee arrived too late for publication last week: Walter Clute, a young man living in Brownlee, died very suddenly Sunday evening, Nov. 13, just before starting for church. It is believed that his death was caused by heart disease. Mr. Clute was 23 years old and leaves a large circle of sorrowing friends.

Henry Taylor, of the firm of Taylor & Boyer, concrete contractors and builders, has just completed a large barn for Frank Higgins and came home Sunday. Grant Boyer has been out to J. C. McNare's near Arabia the past month raising the latter's house and making it two stories high. He completed the job last week, returning to his home in this city last Saturday.

Bernie Tinkham, living about 16 miles south of Woodlake, had the misfortune of running a rusty nail in his eye last Saturday morning while at work tearing down the Thackrey house on Marsh Lake. The nail, an eight penny, flew out of the board he was taking off the roof and struck point first into the corner of his left eye near the sight, penetrating nearly a quarter of an inch if not farther. He pulled it out and felt very little pain at first but it may prove serious. The fluid, thick and of a gelatine substance oozed out of his eye and as soon as it was evident that the nail had penetrated into the eye he put a bandage over it to keep from further injury and keep out cold until he could procure better treatment. We hope it may not cause the loss of sight.
