Heating Stoves...

Are you going to want a Heating Stove this winter? If you are, you want the best—the best in appearance—the best in quality and—the best in results. If you want one that will give you the best results for all kinds of fuel, you want one of the following lines:

Cole's Original Hot Blast, Peninsular Parlor Heater and Double Heating Base Burners, The XXth Century Laurel, The Retort Jewel

We have the exclusive agency of the above lines, which include the best stoves made. Make us a call before buying elsewhere and we will gladly explain to you all the special features of the different stoves. We guarantee every stove mentioned to be perfectly satisfactory in every way or we will exchange it or refund money paid us.

We carry the largest and most complete line of stoves of all kinds found in Northwest Nebraska.

Call and Inspect these stoves.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mr. Bullis, of Britt, and John Britt were in town yesterday.

W. E. Wilson, from southwest of Georgia, was in our city last Friday.

Mrs. Frank Fischer returned last week from a three month's visit in Iowa and eastern Nebr.

Mr. and Mrs. Huntington, of Hay Springs, visited the Dotson's southwest of town the past week.

Mrs. McNichols came up from O'Neill the first of the week and drove out to her claim with her son-in-law, W. E. Haley.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith came down from Deadwood yesterday morning to spend the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. J. C. Northrop.

H. Green was down from Merriam last Saturday, transacting business. We enjoyed a pleasant visit with him during a few spare moments.

Mrs. L. C. Sparks returned Sunday morning from a few week's stay in Michigan, where they were called by a telegram to the bedside of Mr. Sparks' father.

Mr. Easley and two children returned Sunday morning from a two week's visit in New Albany, Ind., with Mr. Easley's father and mother. He also visited relatives in Orleans, Iowa.

Geo. K. Sawyer came to town last Saturday evening and went back to the ranch Sunday morning. He tells us that they have purchased Robert Quisenberry's ranch to join the Sawyer Bro.'s ranch.

Nathaniel Stevenson, of Resbud, and Miss Elizabeth Lowe, of Plantinton, S. D. were married by the Rev. Clark at his home on Nov. 29, 1904. Mr. Stevenson is a business farmer at Blackpipe on the reservation.

Geo. J. Gaskill extended his subscription to THE DEMOCRAT last Saturday while in town. Mr. Moon, the windmill man, also handed us a dollar. We are glad to receive more of your Dollars we mean.

The annual bazaar of the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church took place at Bethel hall Tuesday night. Articles were sold in different booths and a supper was served from 5 to 8 o'clock. Over $100 was taken in and an enjoyable time was had by all.

Mortimer L. Tow Velle and Miss Grace M. Hunt, both of Firth, Neb. were married yesterday by Rev. Holclay at the home of Alvin Williams near Thacher. Mr. Tow Velle is a druggist at Firth and Miss Hunt has been teaching school near Thacher for the past two months.

Dr. J. L. Wortman, of Long Pine, returned last week from a several months trip to the Pacific Coast and stepped in Valentine last Friday and Saturday before going to Longpine. The Doctor has decided to go back in the spring to look after some mines for his brother in Alaska.

The U. S. Weather Bureau report for the week ending Dec. 7, shows the highest and lowest temperature to have been 56° on the 7th and 32° on the 4th. There was a storm on the 2nd and 3rd with snow flurries which measured only .01 of an inch melted. The snow was very fine and dry. The highest velocity of wind was 19 miles per hour on the 6th, and the average velocity was not above 8 miles per hour. The mean temperature for the week was 23.7°.

A silver medal speaking contest will be given in the M. E. church, Tuesday night, Dec. 13, 1904. Six contestants will speak. Good music will be furnished for this occasion by the church choir directed by Prof. Beatty. A solo by Mrs. Bivens, duet by Mrs. Bivens and Miss Easley and a song by the pupils of Miss Matchmore's room. A recitation will be given by Miss Laura Pettijohn while the judges are out. Admission 10c each. Everybody come and hear a better program than you will hear for 50c ordinarily.

Archie Pettycrew has been gaining strength the past week and on Sunday was able to dress and sit up awhile and again on Monday was able to be up and walked out into the dining room to the table. Dr. Brown thought he was able to make the trip to Omaha and Archie being anxious to have the operation performed, he was taken to Omaha Tuesday where he will be operated upon for appendicitis as soon as he is able to undergo the operation. Dr. Brown accompanied Archie to the Emanuel hospital and will stay with him a few days.

Carlson Vincent

Miss Emma Carlson and Mr. Fred Vincent were married Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride in this city, the Rev. A. T. Carpenter of the M. E. church officiating. A number of guests were present to witness the event and a bountiful supper was participated in after the ceremony. Miss Carlson is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Carlson and Mr. Vincent is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Vincent, all well known and highly respected citizens of our community. The young couple have grown up from their infancy in our city and are graduates of our city school. Miss Carlson has been a successful teacher since graduating and has held positions of honor and trust in our city. Mr. Vincent learned telegraphy and has held several positions with C. & N. W. and at present is operator at Ft. Niobrara. They will go to house-keeping in W. A. Pettycrew's home on south Cherry St. THE DEMOCRAT extends congratulations.

Editor Wins

Norfolk, Neb., Nov. 30.—L. A. Wilson, editor of the Springview Herald, has won his lawsuit against W. N. Skinner, president of the Citizens National bank at that place and former publisher of the Herald. The jury after being out for twenty hours straight, found a verdict against the banker. He had, it seems, agreed when he sold the paper to Wilson, not to re-enter the newspaper business in Keya Paha county within ten years and had, a year ago, established the Keya Paha County News, under the name of his wife, Pearl Skinner.

He had agreed to forfeit $2,000 in case he did re-engage in the newspaper business and the jury gave Wilson a judgment for that amount and the costs, which amounted to $500.—State Journal.

INSIDE INN SOLD

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 3.—The Inside Inn, the hotel located within the World's fair grounds, was sold today to a St. Louis company for $90,000. The purchase price includes the furnishings. The hotel cost $450,000. The work of demolishing the building began today.—World-Herald.
