DIED.

J. M. Clarkson died Wednesday afternoon, June 7, 1905, from asthma and a complication of diseases. The funeral will be held at the M. E. Church at 2:00 p. m.
Friday.

John M. Clarkson was born in Lawrence county, Ohio, March 23, 1834 and died June 7, 1905, aged 71 years, 2 months, and 4 days.
He was married in Clay county, Ill., to Mary H. Brainard, August 22, 1858. To this union five children were born, one dying in infancy and one about a year ago.
This was more than he could bear and he began to fail from that time. He became a member of the Regular Missionary Baptist church in 1873 and lived a devoted christian life. He was a kind and loving father and a devoted husband. He leaves three children, one sister, two brothers and a beloved companion to mourn his loss.

He was loved by all who knew him and will be greatly missed by all his friends and especially by his beloved wife and children.

James King died yesterday afternoon, June 7, from tuberculosis of the lungs after a lingering illness of several months. The funeral will be held Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock from the Catholic church.

The U. S. weather bureau report for the week ending June 7, 1905, shows the extremes of temperature as 75° and 40°, giving a range of 35° and a mean of 68°, the latter compared with the normal shows a loss of 7°. The precipitation was .92 of an inch, .15 above the normal. Winds of 25 to 40 miles per hour occurred on 4 days of the week. The weather has been propitious to all crops.

The report from the whole state of Nebraska shows favorably for crop interests. Replanting of corn progressed rapidly and is about finished. Some low lands still too wet. Corn has improved in condition but the stand is thin in many fields. Winter wheat continues in good condition, but some damage from the Hessian fly and rust is reported from Seward, York, Saline and Filmore counties.
Oats have improved and generally are growing nicely. Alfalfa is being cut and a heavy crop is being secured. Potatoes are growing finely. Pastures and meadows are in exceptionally good condition.

The "Valentine Colts" went down to Ainsworth today to play ball with the Ainsworth nine. We wish them success.

A colored man by the name of Henry Smith was drowned in the Niobrara river last Saturday afternoon. He was bathing with several women when the accident occurred. He was seen to dive into the water and did not come up again. The women thought that he had played a joke on them and had swam around the bend under water. His body was found some time later quite a distance down stream, the face and body being considerable bruised. It seems that when he dove into the river he struck a rock which stunned him, rendering him helpless. He was interred in the cemetery southeast of town Monday.

OBITUARY.

Solomon L. Ellis was born Feb.
26, 1865, in Keokuk county, Iowa.
The family moved to Kansas and for awhile Mr. Ellis attended the Kansas Agricultural College at Manhattan. Later he went west and came to Nebraska, settling near Harrison in Sioux county, where he was a highly esteemed neighbor and citizen. In conversation with J. H. Newlin of "The Harrison Sun" we learned that Mr. Ellis was as well liked and as popular there as he has been in our county. He held the office of county surveyor of Sioux county and was the nominee for county commissioner two years ago in this county, getting nearly every vote in his neighborhood and running ahead of his ticket in the county, though he made no effort to get votes whatever. He was married Dec. 28, 1892 to Miss Ella Morgareidge, next oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Morgareidge, then living at Simeon Nebr.

Mr. Ellis came to Cherry county seven years ago and has lived at Simeon since, during which time he conducted the Simeon store and kept the postoffice, and from which he retired May 1st to go onto his homestead north of Simeon one and one-half miles where he had built a temporary house to live in until he could build a dwelling which he was preparing to build and was surveying the line between his place and the Hobbs' place when he was struck down by lightning, Wednesday afternoon, May 31, 1905, his watch stopping at 2:17 and was partly melted from the intense heat.

A number of Woodmen of Valentine lodge, of which Mr. Ellis was a member, went out to attend the funeral last Friday and assisted in conducting the funeral, Rev.
Holsclaw preaching the funeral sermon in the yard at the Ellis home. Neighbors and friends congregated from miles around and seldom have we seen a larger gathering upon a similar occasion in our city. Mr. Ellis' mother and sister, Mrs. Deuel, and L. L.
Wilson, a half-brother, came down from Harrison to attend the funeral.

A friend and neighbor has gone from among us. We won't meet him again as we have in the past, a cheerful man carrying sunshine with him wherever he went. Quoting Judge Walcott in part in a brief address delivered at the grave after conducting the Woodmen ceremonies, "We are all of us better for having met him and known him." His life has not been in vain though the cruel hand of death has taken him away from his wife and five boys, his brothers, sisters and his aged mother at a time when it seemed that he was most needed. His life has truly been an inspiration to all who have been associated with him or met him in his daily walk.

Mr. Ellis provided well for his family in life. He provided for them also in case of his death. He carried $2,000 insurance in the M.
W. A. and $1,000 in the New York Life.
