Michael Angelo's Work.

Michael Angelo relied almost entirely upon form—the form of the figure and of the draperies. He told Pope Julian II, when the latter requested him to paint the ceiling of the Sistine chapel at Rome, that he was not a painter, but a sculptor; yet, after he had shut himself up for four years—from 1508 to 1512—and the scaffold was removed, a result had been achieved which is without parallel in the world. Very wonderful is the work which Michael Angelo spread over this vast area of 10,000 square feet. The fact that there are 343 principal figures, many of colossal size, besides a great number of others introduced for decorative effect, and that the creator of this vast scheme was only thirty-three when he began his work—all this is marvelous, prodigious, and yet not so marvelous as the variety of expression in the figures of which Jeremiah is one, by one figure in a small side arch—Charles H. Caffin in St. Nicholas.

To act with common sense according to the moment is the best wisdom I know.—Walpole.

Sam Hudson was in town Tuesday.

James Dahlman and Frank Curry are in town.

Robert Lee was in town yesterday on business.

George Dew, of Chesterfield was in town yesterday.

Jake Stetter returned yesterday from the Gillaspie ranch.

D. W. Parmelee, the Cut Meat trader, was in town yesterday.

D. W. Armstrong, of Cody, was in the city the first of the week.

D. L. McLean of Rosebud, was a city visitor the latter part of last week.

M. F. Clynes came in from his ranch yesterday, and today went up to Rosebud.

Dr. E. S. Furay, the popular Cody physician, was a Valentine visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Emma Dennis returned this week from Norden to visit a few days in the city.

THE DEMOCRAT recently received a postal card from Father Ferdinand Lechleitner at Rome.

A number of Valentine people attended the sale at Crookston last Saturday. The stock brought good prices.

The sale of the effects of the late S. L. Ellis yesterday at Simeon was well attended and fair prices were realized.

C. S. Gould returned from his eastern visit yesterday morning. Mrs. Gould and Johnnie remained for a longer visit.

Miss Mary Cumbow came up from Woodlake Monday to attend the junior normal. She recently closed a successful term of school.

Miss Allie Cyphers, after attending school at the Lincoln Business college for the past winter, is now working in W. E. Haley's real estate office.

A. Morey and wife have gone back to their old home in Illinois for a visit where they will spend several weeks among old time friends and relatives.

W. J. Ward has been seriously ill with rheumatism for some time and intends to go to Hot Springs for treatment. We sincerely hope for his speedy recovery.

Grant Boyer and Frank Riggie have H. M. Cramer's house completed, except the painting and putting in two windows, and invited the editor to inspect it yesterday which we did and found it done in a very creditable manner.

Jas. Quigley and M. F. Clynes of Valentine, T. B. Irwin of Gordon, P. G. Cooper and J. F. Connell of Crawford, and M. P. Morton of Fairfax, S. D., drove up to Rosebud today to be on hand at the opening of bids for the issue cattle tomorrow.

Wm. Maier and Walt Meisner came up to Valentine from Wood Lake last Monday while waiting for the belated passenger and spent several hours with friends. We understand that they have several contracts on hand and are kept busy. Mr. Maier informs us that his family is enjoying good health.

Wm. F. Brown, of Crookston, received a letter from his sister, Mrs. Shetrow, in White Pigeon, Mich., this week, stating that her husband was dead and their father Wm. Brown had been quite sick. Mr. Brown started this morning with the purpose of bringing both his father and sister back with him. Mrs. Shetrow formerly lived near Crookston.

Jas. Nolan and wife and Mrs. Ella Ellis came to town from Simeon last Friday and Mrs. Nolan departed for her home north of Harrison, Neb., on the passenger. Mr. Nolan will remain to assist Mrs. Ellis in closing up the estate of the late S. L. Ellis when Mrs. Ellis and children will accompany him home for a two weeks visit and will go from there to join her father's family at Moscow, Idaho.

It has rained nearly every day the past three weeks. The country is full of water.

Last Thursday an altercation between Charles Price and his wife resulted in the latter firing four shots at him, the last striking him in the back. The bullet lodged about an inch and a half beneath the skin, having struck a bone and flattened. Dr. Lewis cut it out, and except for the pain Price was not seriously hurt.

Yesterday evening, June 28, 1905, at the home of the groom's mother, Frederick W. Buechle was joined in marriage to Miss Nettie Heth, Rev. A. T. Carpenter officiating. A large number of friends and relatives were present and after the ceremony the guests were invited to a splendid repast. THE DEMOCRAT extends congratulations.

Frank Curry & Co's. contract to furnish 4977 heifers to the government for issue cattle having failed to go through because of Secretary Hitchcock's demanding that the cattle be delivered, while the bureau of animal industry required the cattle to be dipped which necessarily delayed delivery and subjected the contractor to a penalty of $1,000 per day, consequently they chose to forfeit the contract and new bids were invited by the government through Agent McClesney at Rosebud. Bids are to be opened and considered tomorrow at Rosebud.

The Latter Day Saints are holding tent meetings in the west part of town. Their meetings have been well attended, considering the damp weather and dark nights. Elders D. M. Rudd and J. M. Stubbart are doing the preaching. These elders represent the Reorganized church of Jesus Christ of L. D. S., the headquarters of which are at Lamoni, Ia. This church has nothing to do with the Latter Day Saints or "Mormon" church of Utah, but to condemn their follies. Meetings every evening and Sunday at 11 o'clock. All are invited.

J. M. STUBBART.

The U. S. weather bureau report for the week ending June 28, shows extremes of temperature respectively: 75° on the 28th, and 45° on the 22nd, a range of 30°. The mean for the week was 59° and the normal 69°, a loss of 10°. The low temperature and lack of sunshine during this period have not helped crops very much. The precipitation is probably unprecedented in amount, the total being 3.38, and the normal 0.78, and excess of 2.6 inches. The lowland crops more or less have almost been drowned out for the time being. The winds have been higher than usual and exceptionally high on the 22nd, when the velocity reached its maximum of 60 miles per hour on the 22nd. Thunder storms occurred every day except one.

The summary from Nebraska section weather bureau shows as follows: The past week has been cold and wet with several severe hail and rain-storms which seriously damaged small grain in small areas. The mean daily temperature averaged 30° below normal in southern counties and 8° below in northern. The rainfall occurred mostly in heavy thunder-storms and was above normal in nearly all parts of the state. It exceeded an inch in all except a few north-eastern and northwestern counties. In most of the central counties it ranged between 2 and 4 inches. Winter wheat is ripening rapidly and the harvest has begun in southeastern counties. Wheat has rusted some in the regions of heavy snowfall but not enough to cause a material injury to the crop. In general, the damage by Hessian fly seems to be less than was expected and the crop now promises to be better than seemed probable earlier in the season. Spring wheat and oats have grown well and improved in condition. Potatoes continue to grow well. The wet weather delayed alfalfa harvest and damaged considerable of the crop in western counties. Clover and timothy are being cut. The prospects in most parts of the state is for a large hay crop. Corn is small but has grown well the past week except in northern counties where the low temperature has been unfavorable.

At 9 o'clock yesterday evening, June 28, 1905, Miss Lizzie Hayes and H. A. Daniels were united in marriage at the home of Sam Hudson near Simeon. The bride entered on the arm of her father and was met by the groom under a canopy of white flowers where the impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Cumbow. A large company of guests present showered congratulations upon the happy couple. Many valuable and beautiful presents were received. Both the bride and groom have resided in this county for a number of years and are well and favorably known. THE DEMOCRAT extends best wishes.

Nebraska Must Keep The Off Year Election.

Lincoln, Neb., June 22.—In an opinion filed this morning, the judges of the supreme court declared the biennial election law unconstitutional and void. The judges say that it attempts to extend the time of constitutional officers, and this is clearly beyond the power of the legislature.

The biennial law, enacted by the last legislature, the bill being introduced by Warner, sought to do away with the off year elections.—World Herald.

The officers to be elected this fall are as follows:

- In the state: One supreme court judge. Two regents of state university.
- In the county: Sheriff. County treasurer. County clerk. Register of deeds. County judge. Surveyor. County assessor.

Kennedy Items.

A. McAlevy has put in a phone over at his place.

The hay flats are flooded with water this year.

Pretty near everybody around Kennedy are going up to Gillaspies to spend the Fourth.

Ben Bachelor is helping John Bachelor dip and brand his cattle.

We hear that Ben Steadman and Ben Bachelor have crowded Frank Kime out of all of his pasture room this year.

Ernest Wilkinson and Ben Steadman was down on the river at a dance at Mr. Burge's place last Friday night.

We hear that Frank Kime run the Piercy boys out of Lone Tree the other day, but such is life in the far west.

The Irish at Brownlee are pretty good fighters, but they can't come up to some of the boys around Kennedy.

Once upon a time there was a poor hog went to a lady's house to get fed and the lady fed him good and he thought he would go boiling, but the second time he got boiling water.
