TALK OF THE TOWN

John Neiss was in town Monday.

John Lord, of Simeon, was in the city Tuesday.

Claude Jones was down from Crookston last Monday.

Claude Reece was in town Monday laying in haying supplies.

Jas. H. Quigley was in Cody the first of the week on business.

G. W. Keller, of Cascade, was in the city on business the latter part of last week.

Harry Hilsinger and Lee Shepard bought a pair of monkeys from the circus which was here last week.

Mrs. Wm. Ennis, of Chadron, is in town visiting her mother and brothers. She will remain several weeks.

Ed Richards was in town Saturday from his ranch near Oasis. He says everything is drowned in that locality.

Will Morrissey returned from Chadron Monday morning after spending a week renewing acquaintances.

Mat House, while in town Tuesday, called at this office on business. He says that this is the kind of weather for crops.

Last Friday Dock Grooms had Tom Hudson arrested for shooting with intent to kill. Mr. Hudson waived examination for 30 days.

James Irwin was in from his ranch down the river last Monday. He called at this office in company with a Mr. Snyder a commission merchant of Sioux City.

Mr. Kronk and family of the Boarding school are spending their vacation camping out near the mill dam. Mr. Kronk says it is one of the most delightful places he knows of.

William Gillaspie and mother returned Monday morning from Arkadelphia, Arkansas, where they passed the winter. Bill is looking well but says that he was mighty glad to see sand hills again.

While returning from the celebration at Crookston, John Coggs well had the misfortune of getting tangled up in a barbwire fence and cutting his foot severely. At this writing he is getting along nicely.

Levi Sparks, accompanied by his wife, daughter and the two friends visiting at his home, Misses Buella Jenks and Neil Fountain drove up to Rosebud the first of the week. They spent several days taking in the sights.

Miss Lou E. Jones, who has been conducting the model school at the junior normal, returned to her home in Lincoln last Monday. She intended to leave yesterday for the coast where she will spend her vacation.

Saturday afternoon the local sports played a fast and exciting game of ball with Co. L's team of Ft. Niobrara. The game was close throughout and the winning score was made in the ninth inning by the fort, the score being 15 to 16.

Dr. Bertrand Jeffers left Friday morning for Butte, Neb., where he will engage in the practice of medicine. Bert was raised in this community and graduated from our high school. This spring he received his degree from the U. of N. Medical School at Omaha. We are confident of his success and congratulate Butte on receiving such a worthy young man.

Julius Schromm and Miss Anna Bowen were united in holy matrimony Monday, July 10, 1905, at the Catholic church, Father Muysen officiating. Both the bride and groom are well and favorably known here. THE DEMOCRAT extends congratulations.

Martin Carr and son J. S. Carr of Simeon were in town Tuesday getting supplies to begin haying. They say that it is the wettest they have seen it in the hay flats, but think that what they lose in the valleys this year, will be more than made up in the hills, where there seems to be plenty of grass.

Fred Cumbow went down to Woodlake Friday morning. He recently resigned his position with T. C. Hornby, which he has held for a number of years and will live on his ranch near Woodlake. It is with regret that his numerous friends see him leave town and we hope to see him back by the time snow flies.

NORMAL NOTES.

The Slayton Jubilee Singers will be here on next Wednesday, July 19. Get your seats reserved at the postoffice between the hours of 4 and 5 p. m. on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Don't fail to hear the Slaytons next Wednesday. All persons holding season tickets may have their seats reserved free. Remember the time 4 to 5 p. m. Tuesday and Wednesday.

Misses Bernice Kief of Woodlake, Mary Barnes and Myrtle Richardson of Newton, Jessie McConnaughey of Mirage and Lillian Nelson of Cody are new students enrolled at the normal.

If you have not seen the school garden, walk out that way the first spare moment you have. It is a beauty. The lettuce and radishes are ready to eat and the flowers are just beginning to bloom.

Supt. Stockdale, who has the class in agriculture, is furnishing substantial evidence that agriculture in schools may be made interesting and profitable. Under his directions the class is furnishing crisp, toothsome radishes and lettuce for the dining hall and some favored friends.

The normal chorus is now rehearsing for the concert. The evening meetings are to be on Wednesdays at the M. E. church and all singers in Valentine are cordially invited to join the chorus. At the last meeting several friends came in and helped and others have promised their assistance.

Students and the instructors of the junior normal are looking forward with pleasure to the great picnic to be held July 22. It seems that many more citizens of Valentine will join with us in the picnic this year than ever before. It has been thought best to go to the beautiful Perry falls, six miles east of Ft. Niobrara where we had such a delightful time last year.

Charles Ammon, who has been in attendance at the Valentine normal each of the three summers since its opening, has been compelled, on account of poor health, to return home. He has been a great help in many ways to those attending the normal and will be greatly missed. Mrs. Ammon and two younger children were here during the last week of Mr. Ammon's stay. We believe Mr. Ammon has been influential in bringing more students to normal than any other one student.
