Mrs. Sears, who has been conducting the hotel will make her home with Mr. Hornback's folks for the present. Mr. and Mrs. Hornback formerly conducted the City hotel and are too well known here to need an introduction to Cherry county people. They will be welcomed back by a host of friends who are glad to see them again become residents of our town.

Wm. Kavanaugh, of Crookston, came down last Saturday with the complaint that two persons had run away with one of his horses. He had hired a saddle horse to a man by the name of Arnold to go up to the Beed place several miles west of Crookston on Wednesday morning. This Mr. Arnold wishing to stay up in the country decided upon sending the horse back to Mr. Kavanaugh by two young men who came along about the time he was looking for someone going to Crookston, and thinking of saving himself a trip, he delivered the horse to them. These men were in a one horse rig and one of them got onto the saddle horse. By trivial occurrences, seemingly, these men were traced to Long Pine and were there arrested, after having traded off the saddle or sold it and had traded their shaves for a tongue. After making futile attempts to trade or sell the outfit they were relieved of further attempts by the Long Pine marshal who notified them officially that they were wanted at Valentine. They gave their names as Thomas F. Fielding of Alliance, Neb., and Charles F. Connors, of some town in Wyo. Howard Layport is entitled to considerable praise for the capture of these horse thieves who think they are only up for a breach of trust. Mr. Kavanaugh is glad to get his horse back and the saddle being a borrowed one, he is glad to be able to return to its owner. Fielding and Connors are in the county jail to await their trial.

Judge Walcott went to Sioux City yesterday and expects to be back to Merrimantomorrow night.

A. T. Tostevin returned from Sioux City last week where he had been on account of the fatal illness of his father.

There was a bully scrap in front of Sageser's barber shop Tuesday. A native of Africa who pronounced himself John Thompson and was joshed considerably by the boys as being a mathematician, had held the important position for some time (since King resigned) as shoe shiner and porter for the barber shop. John got crazy gone on F. M. Huckler's daughter and when he delivered the barber towels to be washed, slipped a note in her hand expressing his love and admiration with a request to be answered when they met again, or words to that effect. Frank Sears, an uncle of the girl was given the note and he met the African instead, much to his surprise. Sheriff Layport got after the man of figures when he finally turned to run, and arrested him, but later turned him loose upon his promise to leave town.

The U. S. weather bureau report for the week ending Sept. 20, shows that the mean daily temperature was 63° or about 1° above the normal. The highest temperature was 89° and the lowest 36° on the 19th. A light frost occurred on the morning of the 19th, but there was no damage done even in the lower benches of the river bottoms. The record is again broken in the matter of killing frost, which according to the 18 years records occurs between the 10th and 18th of September, and this is the 21st without any damaging frost. This extension of killing frost period insures the safety of the corn crop. The precipitation for the week is 0.58 of an inch and gives a total rainfall of 25.45 inches, creeping up closely to the greatest annual rainfall in 18 years. Winds have been the normal.

There are too many strangers in our city who butt in or try to open up a conversation with women whom they meet in stores or on the street. There may be no harm meant in many cases but the fact remains that a man offers insult to a woman who is an entire stranger to him by "butting in" or joining in a conversation in which he has no interest, unless he be invited or in case he be the only person apparently able to furnish the information sought in a question for such information by a lady. Even then, a gentleman should consider whether or not it would be appropriate for him to "butt in," depending much upon the gravity of the occasion and the need of his services. There is too much of this being done, even though it may be by some improperly raised person, "who didn't mean anything, or didn't know any better." Strangers should keep their places, or sooner or later they may be sorry.

Another Shooting Scrape.

Corporal Elijah Custard of M Co., 25th Infantry, was shot in the top of the head last Sunday evening about 4 o'clock at the Harris sporting house by Wm. Craig who was running the place. We are told that Craig and Custard had engaged in a quarrel over a girl and Craig told the girl to come out of the room which she occupied with Custard. This was against the wishes of Custard and he remonstrated with Craig who struck him over the head with a revolver and then shot him in the top of the head. Some friends of Custard caught the revolver or Craig's hand as he first leveled it at Custard and Wm. Rash, the bartender, handed Craig another revolver and told Craig to shoot him which Craig did, according to the reports we got of the trouble. Custard lived about an hour and a half after consciousness. It is also reported that Craig threw a revolver down beside Custard as he lay dying, evidently to make it appear that Custard was trying to shoot Craig when Craig fired. There were several witnesses to the shooting and the truth will very likely come out in the trial.

Craig was arrested on the charge of shooting with felonious intent Wm. Rash, the bartender, as an accomplice and accessory to the crime and they are being held for murder.

Craig was formerly a corporal of M Co. and since his discharge has been running the place where the trouble occurred.

Dr. Lewis held another inquest and decided that Elijah Custard was dead and the jury decided that he was shot. Several witnesses saw the shooting and William Craig and Wm. Rash were charged with the murder of Elijah Custard.
