Tuesday's World-Herald states that Edward B. Kelley of South Dakota has been appointed agent at Rosebud agency vice Charles E.
McChesney who has been appointed special agent of the Indian bureau.

An interesting game of ball was played at Crookston last Saturday between Arabia Overalls and the Crookston locals which gave the latter revenge for the week previous at Arabia, resulting in a score of 37 to 1 in favor of Crook-ston.

We failed to mention last week the accident happening to Wm.
Kelly at the Arabia ball game. He had his hand split between the little and ring fingers, about one half inch or more in catching a curve ball which struck between the fingers.

John Berry called at our office this morning in company with Col. Tracewell. Mr. Berry, with his family, returned yesterday from Big Horn Basin, Wyo., where he has been for several years, but was one of the early settlers of this county, living down the Niobrara river for 20 years.

The democratic party should have a share of the offices held in our county if they nominate men who are qualified and worthy. It is but fair to the taxpayers that worthy candidates be elected to office representing the different political parties. Persons who contrive to prevent the people from having such representation may be looked upon as being too strongly partisan for our county's best interests.

Grandman Holsclaw happened to a serious accident yesterday evening. She was sitting in Rev.
Holsclaw's delivery wagon on a chair placed in the back end and tipped out as the wagon went over the Davenport street crossing, falling backward upon the cement pavement and hard ground beside it. She was taken to the home of George Hornby and will receive every attention possible for her recovery and to ease her suffering. This morning it is learned that a rib was broken by the wagon wheel passing over her body. She is in constant pain and Dr. Holsclaw, her son, thinks probably the broken rib has penetrated the lung.

For Sale—Good 6 room house and lot on Hall street, good stable.

We are prepared to make real estate loans.

WALSOTT & MORRISSEY.

There was a good, jovial crowd at Simeon last Saturday. The people met in Mr. Young's grove Friday and Saturday to enjoy a picnic after the hay harvest. They brought dinner and spread it out here and there, two and three families joining together in groups.
After dinner a program of singing and speaking occupied the people for an hour after which horse races and broncho riding engaged their attention. Some went home after this but many stayed for the platform dance which began as the races closed.

The Euphonium Glee Club, which appears in Valentine at the M. E. church, Oct. 18, 1905, has received much praise from the papers of the state. The members of the club have been associated for three years, which speaks well for their entertaining powers. If they were not pleasing people, some member would be made a scape goat and his disappearance would follow. Our people usually prefer a male quartet concert to any other. Backed by the good "reader," the Mr. Mische, the Glee Club will no doubt give us a very enjoyable program. As the quartet gives the first number of the "Lecture Course" it should be given a hearty reception.

The U. S. weather bureau report for the week ending Oct. 11, 1905: The mean daily temperature 55° was 3° above the normal. The extreme of temperature for the week were respectively 91° on the 6th and 26° on the 11th, a range of 65° which is much greater than usual. The killing frost on the 10th and 11th was fully 20 days extended beyond the average for 18 years.
It came in good time to complete the corn crop while incidentally destroying the tender vegetation such as tomatoes. The precipitation for the week was .48 of an inch, which added to the total gives for the season 25.88 inches, close up to the high water mark of 1892.
The winds have been about the average, highest velocity being 36 miles on the 10th.

Dan Barnes, the democratic candidate for county commissioner was in town last Friday visiting his son and daughter who are attending the Valentine school. Mr.
Barnes called at our office and we enjoyed a pleasant afternoon with him. If Mr. Barnes is elected to the office of commissioner we feel sure that it will mean a starting in the same direction that Mr.
Sullivan became famous for as county commissioner. It will mean a return to economy and prudence. The lavish expenditures in recent years and the little good accomplished has again run the county behind and numerous demands upon our commissioners for the county's present needs fall upon deaf ears for the want of funds to expend. Several hundreds of dollars have been expended upon roads that are unfit for traveling and other roads are now abandoned for lack of repair.
A good, careful, conservative man is needed for the office of county commissioner who is large enough for the place. Political faith should not prevent the taxpayers from electing the right man for this office.

Voters and taxpayers should be equally interested in the selection of county officers this fall. The democratic party should have some representation in the court house.
It is but justice to admit this and an injustice to deprive any large body or portion of our citizens the right of representation. Our Australian ballot system contemplates the correct idea in apportioning the judges and clerks of election, giving a share of representation to each party. This avoids trickery and gives assurance to the voters of a correct count of ballots. Such representation in our county offices would be most beneficial and taxpayers would have the assurance that the money paid by them would be wisely expended and taxes kept at the minimum instead of steadily increasing while there is more taxable property each succeeding year and taxes ought to be lower. The man who insists on voters supporting a party ticket to deprive another party of representation in the county when such conditions prevail, is not working in the interests of the taxpayers, nor for the good of our county. Such a dictator is working for his own good and the people are paying the expense.

Penbrook Quills.

Clyde Kusky is on the sick list.
J. C. Scott is here visiting his sister Mrs. D. A. Hancock.
Three of Mr. Aberhardt's children ford the Niobrara and attend school in the Hatchison district.
Orville Connor and wife are making a weeks visit with Mrs. Con-nor's parents, Theo. Tillson and wife.

Roy Kusky has bought Charley Lower's interest in the threshing machine. Hamar, Polen & Kusky are the owners now.

A meeting will be held in Sparks Oct. 14th for the purpose of electing officers in the old settlers association, for the ensuing year.
The attendance of all old settlers is requested.

An effort is being made to annex the abandoned school district No.
11 to district No. 14. The latter is so small that taxes to the full extent of the law will not sustain a three month's school. As No. 11 lies in a ranchman's pasture he is strongly opposing the annexation.
It seems to me no American should refuse to help support our public schools. Most of us received the major portion of our education in the district schools, and we should willingly insure this great advantage to the coming men and women.

The following poem is from the pen of A. J. Irwin of Thermopolis, Wyo., and who is the father of James Irwin of this city:

The family home I loved so well With childhood scenes so bright, Has passed far away from home:
But where are they all tonight?
Yes, where are they tonight?
A few happy years of time,
That was pleasant fair and bright,
And all left their childhood home:
But where are they tonight?
Yes, where are they tonight?
The childhood song I sung, That made our hearts feel light,
Has gone back on the roll of time:
But where are they all tonight?
Yes, where are they all tonight?
I never thought of the days When the family home so bright, Would be broken up by time:
But where are they tonight?
Yes, where are they tonight?
They are out in the world A living on their right, Taking in all the joys of life:
But where are they tonight?
Yes, where are they tonight?
Living on homes far and near,
Taking in wealth on sight,
And practicing lessons learned:
But where are they tonight?
Yes, where are they tonight?
Days and years have come and gone,
And childhood once so bright Has grown to man and womanhood:
But where are they tonight?
Yes, where are they tonight?
They're out in the field of time, A laboring for their right,
And at the close of the summer day They close work for the night:
But where are they all tonight,
Yes, where are they all tonight?
