TALK OF THE TOWN

Don't forget the foot ball game tomorrow afternoon.

John Whillans was up from Woodlake yesterday.

A. B. Overman was down from Crookston yesterday.

Jake and Aetna Breachbill were up from Sparks last Friday.

John Grange was in from Kennedy last Monday after a load of winter supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hornby are rejoicing over the arrival of a son, born Monday, Oct. 30, 1905.

Mrs. Ray, of Chadron, is visiting her daughters, Mrs. Charles Sparks and Mrs. T. C. Hornby.

J. M. Ralya, of near Burge, was in town Monday after a load of lumber with which to improve his ranch.

The Donoher sisters have been reshingling their dwelling and making other improvements this week.

Mrs. J. C. Northrop returned today from Wayne, Nebr., where she has been visiting relatives the past week.

L. K. Travis, principal of St. Mary's Mission school, was transacting business in our city last Monday.

John W. McDaniel, democratic nominee for county surveyor, was up from Woodlake last Monday, returning home Tuesday.

Julius Raurer was down from Kilgore last Friday on business and found time to call at this office to pay his subscription in advance for THE DEMOCRAT.

A fire occurred in the west part of town yesterday morning, partly destroying the Geo. Beer's dwelling, which was moved from Main street north of the Efner property.

Judge Zarr, who returned from Lusk, Wyo., a couple of weeks ago, departed for Rawhide Buttes, Wyo., last Monday night where he has a position as cook the coming winter.

Jesse Brosius was in town last Saturday with a load of "Brownell Beauty" potatoes and left several fine samples at this office. He is living on the Cochran ranch southwest of Woodlake.

T. C. Spratt's daughter, Miss Stella, who has been teaching out at the Galloway bridge, has been quite sick the past week. Mrs. Spratt was sent for and went out to take care of her.

Mrs. J. M. Ralya, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Maud, were callers at this office last Friday. Miss Ralya had just returned from Sioux City where she had been the past six weeks visiting friends. They returned to their home near Burge, Friday.

Frank Cronin, son of Jack Cronin, was in our city last Saturday and was a pleasant caller at our office. He informs us that his father arrived from Ogden, Iowa, a couple of weeks ago to take charge of his ranch which he has had leased to O. C. Treadway the past two years.

Report of school district No. 28, for month beginning Oct. 2 and ending Oct. 27. Those not absent are Mary and Ura Jacquins; those tardy but once are Ura and Paul Jacquins, Arthur Brown and Flossy Owens. Number of pupils enrolled 20; average attendance 12. A "Ghost Social" will be held at the school house next Friday evening Nov. 3, the proceeds of which will go toward purchasing teacher's desk.

OLIVE BLISS, Teacher.

SCHOOL NOTES.

By Margaret Quigley, Clara Dunham.

Alva Todd entered the fifth grade this week.

Miss Maud Bailey visited the high school Tuesday morning.

Miss Laura Seger visited Miss Friend's room Tuesday afternoon.

Arthur Dunham is able to be in school again. His arm is doing nicely.

Monday morning the second primary room was delighted by a visit from Miss Kortz.

Lizzie Hobson, of class of '03, and Vannie Hooper, of class of '04, are planning a Christmas tree and entertainment to be given at the Ward school house where Lizzie teaches.

First intermediate tardies for the past month: Six in the fifth grade and twelve in the second. There were twenty in the room who were neither absent nor tardy. Second intermediate had a decrease in tardies, only having five. Grammar department had eighteen and high school thirty-three tardies.

The eastern division of the Cherry county teachers' association held its first meeting last Saturday and organized by electing Mrs. Lottie Cramer president for the year, and Miss Florence Nelson vice president, Miss Effie Carlson secretary, Miss Laura Pettijohn, Miss Clara Dunham and R. H. Watson as program committee.

The names of the children who were neither absent nor tardy during the month in the primary room are:

Vern Savage	Joe Sparks
Lee Whipple	Donald McLean
Milton Nicholson	Chester Holstein
Royden Ganow	Charley Green
John Dunn	Lewis Burch
Maud Stonecker	Gertrude Ayers
Maile Meltendorf	Marian Anderson
Alma Bradley

In the second primary room:

Third Grade:	Russell Yeast
Froebel Jones	Martha Haley
Jennie Graham
Fourth Grade:	Lloyd Carlson
Willie Burch	Cletus Halsey
Charlie Fitzgerald	Myrtle Fitzgerald
Davy Klecka

In the third grade there were five tardies, and in the fourth grade, ten. Five of these tardies were made by one girl.

THE ESCAPE.

The river was wide, and Oh! so deep
It was impossible, for my horse to leap,
On the other side, I must be soon
For I was to deliver my message at noon.

The water was gushing, the waves dashed high,
I felt that the enemy was drawing nigh,
But over the bank my brave steed I plunged
And into the river we went with a lunge.

As down with the tide we were going fast
I thought that my time has come at last,
The pursuers now were on my track
What should I do? I could not turn back.

One more moment, and all would be o'er,
We had reached the bank, yes, now the shore,
My horse was trembling from tire and fright,
The good steed had borne me from the enemy's sight.

—HATTIE GASKILL.

LIFE'S MIRROR.

As I stood on the bank of a streamlet,
That swiftly flowed on to the sea,
And saw in the clear rippling water,
My picture reflected to me.

It bro't to my mind the influence
We have upon others each day,
We get back the fruit on the morrow
Of the seed we have sown today.

Give love and love to you will return,
A bounteous supply in need,
Have faith and all of thy friends will show
Their faith, in both word and deed.

Life is a mirror that reflects thot's and deeds
So seek the path that is right to pursue,
Then give to the world the best you have
And the best will come back to you."

—CLARA DUNHAM.
