We understand that there will be an entertainment at the Bristol school house Wednesday night, Nov. 29. A social in connection.

Mr. Theunert and wife, uncle an aunt of Mrs. Callen, and Mr. and Mrs. Hilsinger spent Sunday at Mr. Callen's. The former are from St. Louis.

Frank Osborne, who had the misfortune of breaking his arm about six weeks ago, accidentally broke it over again one day last week and is suffering severe pain at this writing.

When our young lady friends come out from town to spend Sunday and would like to have mention in the paper, they should recollect that their humble servant, the Porcupine, is a bachelor, and as they did not come by our mansion, we had no way of knowing that they were visiting old friends in this locality.

Our locality was pretty well represented in Valentine last Saturday: Roy Kuskie, Dave Hamar, Al Lawrence, Will Copelan, Thaddeus Jelly, John and Wm. Grooms, William Allen, Chas. Burdick, Ben Peterson, Pete Lower, Frank Grooms, Pole and Tom Hudson, Joe Jenett, Dave Archer, Sam Burgett, Felix Nollett, John Shelbourn, Martin Becker and possibly several others whom we did not see.

Born, Sunday, Nov. 5, 1905, to G. R. Burdick and wife, a son. He is a strong hearty boy. Dick says corn huskers are in big demand. But I hear the youngster has a violin in one hand and a bow in the other and is yelling, "Hurry up boys!"

Threshing is about completed in this community. Mr. Porter threshes the Hancock grain Monday. Mr. Porter has one of the finest steam threshers ever seen in this neighborhood. All new, with self feed and a straw "blower," it does fine and fast work.

Mr. Hutchison accompanied his mother on her return and will make a brief visit to relatives in Colorado. Mrs. Hutchison is 80 years old. Her hearing and sight is better than many half her age. She has been the mother of twelve children and is today an active, hearty woman.
