Lee Miller of Windton, N. D.,

Miller, is here visiting relatives.

John Sedlacek was in from his and paid in advance for THE DEM-OCRAT. Mr. Sedlacek informed us that last week he sold 14 six months old mules to a buyer from Missouri at $37.50 per head.

Mrs. Thomas Watkins has been very ill the past week but is recovering.

John Bullis has purchased the Henry Stetter dwelling north of Ramsey Watkins, from White river, was here visiting his brother Thomas last week.

George W. Monnier was found guilty of "assault and threatening to shoot" in Judge Towne's court Tuesday and was fined $10.
Alexander Haight was the complaining witness.

Judge Westover conducted the business of this term of court in his usual fair, impartial and business like manner, to the satisfaction of attorneys and litigants alike. Attorneys from out of town were Judge E. M. Bartlett of Omaha, M. F. Harrington of O'Neill, Judge Wood of Rushville, and Allan G. Fisher of Chadron.

Having been nominated as a candidate for the office of village trustee, I wish to make the following statement: Individually, I am opposed to the saloon. Believing, however, that a large majority of our people favor the license law, I will, if elected, vote to grant licenses and enforce the law—favoring such village ordinances as will make its enforcement possible with the least friction. H. DAILEY.

Mrs. Lena Jotter was accidently shot through the heart Sunday evening at Ft. Niobrara. Mrs.
Effie Jelly, a daughter of Amos Randall, was twirling a revolver around her finger when it was discharged and Mrs. Jotter fell to the floor expiring almost instantly.
The funeral was held in the M. E. church here Tuesday. A couple of years ago J. F. Jotter, the husband to the deceased, died from drinking carbolic acid which he thought to be whiskey.

Robert Adams, the colored man who was sentenced to three years for robbery from the person of Wm Johnson, made a dash for liberty Tuesday evening. When Mike Clynes, the jailor, took the suppers into the jail for the prisoners, Adams dashed past him as the jail door swung open and succeeded in getting out of the building before he could be arrested and started towards the post on foot.
The fresh snow falling made it possible to track him with the aid of a lantern until his direction was learned, and Sheriff Simons came back to town, hastily telephoned to the post to look out for Adams and jumped into a rig just starting to the post, and overtook Adams about half a mile from the bridge crossing the Niobrara. Prompt work was necessary and Mr. Simons lost no time in lodging his prisoner in jail again.

A number of citizens met at Bethel hall Tuesday evening to nominate candidates for village trustees. Geo. Tracewell was chosen chairman and I. M. Rice secretary of the meeting. A committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions as follows: "Resolved; That the ticket nominated be known as the 'Peoples Ticket,' and be it further, Resolved; That we are in favor of the enforcement of the state laws and village ordinances." Several persons were named for candidates and upon motion a ballot was cast to declare as nominees, the two receiving the highest votes. Dr. H. Dailey and H. S. Savage receiving the highest number of votes were declared the nominees. Dr. Dailey was called for and he spoke briefly of the issues, and upon motion, he was requested to put his sentiments in writing and that it be printed in both papers in Valentine. Mr. Savage also addressed the meeting and was directed to state his position for publication in both papers. Upon motion the meeting was adjourned.

To the Voters of the Village of Valentine.

At a caucus held in our village on the 13th day of March to place in nomination two candidates for village trustees, I was nominated as a candidate for one of said trustee on the Peoples Ticket. If I am elected as said trustee at the coming election, I shall use my influence as a member of the board to see that the business of the village is run as economically as possible. That all of the village ordinances now in effect are enforced, and I will be in favor of drafting new ordinances any time it is deemed necessary for the welfare of the people. That I have always been in favor of high license, and I am also in favor of the saloons running somewhere near the law that is laid down for them. That I am in favor of the saloons staying closed on Sundays.
That I am against gambling in any form whatever in the saloons. That in fact I am in favor of everyone doing and living as near within the laws that are made for us as it is possible to do. And if elected as one of said trustees I shall use my influence to that effect in so far as it becomes my duty. Respectfully H. S. SAVAGE.

Loses Wife, Son and Two Daughters Within 30 Days

(Harrison, Neb. Sun.)
On last Sunday Robert Lux brought the news to Harrison of the death of Mrs. Clinton Metz and her two little girls, 7 and 5 years old, which occurred near Adelia, in this county.

Mrs. Metz and her two children were lost in the storm of March 1 and frozen to death. As far as is known, Mrs. Metz and her two daughters, Dollie and Nellie, were visiting Mr. Metz' brother, near Sugar Loaf, and on the afternoon of the storm they set out on foot to go from the home of Mr. Kirk Metz to his brother Scott's, a distance of about a mile, and were not seen again until their bodies were found the next day by the school teacher and scholars by the roadside, frozen to death.

Funeral services were held at the Union Star church, conducted by Revs. McKewee, Burke and Currens.

Just one month ago Mr. Metz lost his only son and this new affliction includes the entire family, and Mr. Metz is left alone.

DRUGS IN FOOD

If in doubt read the following

At a hearing before the Committee on Public Health of the Massachusetts Legislature, on a bill designed to prevent the wholesale drugging of the public, the following eminent Boston physicians testified against the healthfulness of Rochelle Salts, and strongly recommended the passage of a law which would prohibit the sale of those Cream of Tartar Baking Powders which leave this dangerous drug in the food.
Dr. Hartung, Dr. C. O. Kepler, Dr. F. B. Foster, Dr. G. M. Palmer.

The average consumer of baking powder does not know that a reaction occurs in the process of baking. When a chemical reaction takes place the nature of the original material is entirely changed, so that the substance which remains in the food to be eaten are very different from those which compose the baking powder before baking. For this reason the statement that a baking powder contains Alum or Cream of Tartar is worthless so far as informing the consumer as to what he eats. What the consumer wants to know is what goes into his stomach, not what is in the can. The much adversed Cream of Tartar Trust powders are of such composition as to leave large quantities of Rochelle Salts in the food. They have never denied this; they dare not deny it. Why be induced by their clever advertising to buy their brands and pay 45 to 50 cents a pound for a baking powder that leaves in the food a medicine that should be taken only by the physician's directions? The finest baking powder in the world can be made for 25 cents a pound.

There is a high grade baking powder on the market that is sold at a moderate price and one that leaves the food free from Rochelle Salts, Alum, or any injurious substance. The Calumet Baking Powder Company guarantees this to the consumers, and it is well to avoid all baking powder that cannot make this statement. In view of the purity and healthfulness of Calumet Baking Powder it is recommended by the leading physicians and chemists of the country.

The Backbone of a Mighty Nation

is good food—food for brain, food for brawn, food that is strengthening, that gives energy and courage. Without a proper appreciation of this great fundamental truth no nation can rise to greatness.

As an article of food, soda crackers are being used more and more every day, as is attested by the sale of nearly 400,000,000 packages of Uneeda Biscuit, which have come to be recognized as the most perfect soda cracker the world has ever known.

And so Uneeda Biscuit will soon be on every table at every meal, giving life, health and strength to the American people, thus in very truth becoming the backbone of the nation.

Mr. Brown's antics, by the way, are inclined to be captious about his recent trip to Washington. He says he went to move for an advancement of the railroad tax case.
His critics say that such a motion has necessarily to be made in writing anyhow, and that there is no way on earth by which it could be made orally, or argued. Why, then, they ask, did not Brown mail his motion and save the state the expense of the trip? And they strongly intimate that his real reason for going was to enter into a few political negotiations with the Nebraska Washington colony, and that he jumped at the opportunity to make the state pay his expenses. Brown's friends, on the other hand, insist the motion was so important that it was the part of wisdom for him to be present in person, to see that it was not lost, strayed or stolen. It's a small item, anyhow, considering the lavish scale of expenditures adhered to by our state administration, and besides, it's impossible to please everybody.

(World-Herald.)

Up to date, however, the field is open. "Charley" Greene, the big and brainy Omaha lawyer, has broken the ice. With characteristic disregard for the rules of the game he declares he will be a candidate even though the railroads and the people should join to oppose him. Nobody would accuse Greene of being an astute practical politician. But if he has the things to say he says he has, an if he says them with the boldness that his distinguishing trait, his speeches in the language of Horace Greeley, will "make mighty interesting reading." And if he should be so fortunate as to entice Norris Brown into a joint debate—it would be too rich! As the Missourian said in his prayer against hell and a personal devil, "I tell you what, O Lord, we just couldn't stand it!" Both would declaim, before enraptured audiences, against "corporation domination" and each would doubtless insist that he alone was the sincere declaimer. It would almost be worth while to bring John M.

Thurston back and make it a three cornered fight.
