

SOCIAL EVENTS OF WEEK

STORM OF PAST WEEK INTERFERED WITH ACTIVITIES.

BUT THERE HAS BEEN PLEASURE

Those Parties Which Have Been on the Calendar Have Been Delightful Enough to Make up for the Lack of Numbers.

The inclement weather of the past week has not been particularly conducive to social activity but in spite of the storm there has been considerable doing in Norfolk. It has not been a record breaking week in the number of social events but those that have been on the calendar have been delightful enough to make up for the lack of numbers.

Social Pleasures.

The West Side Whist club was pleasantly entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Holden Tuesday night.

The Junior Social club enjoyed a pleasant meeting with Earl Krantz, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Krantz, Tuesday evening.

Frank Lenser and Oscar Hauptli entertained about twenty-five of their friends last evening at the Lenser home on Thirteenth street, at a hard times party. Miss Lizzie Schelly won the ladies' prize for being dressed in the most appropriate costume, and John Schelly the gentlemen's prize. Early in the evening Johnny cake and water were served, later on real refreshments. Cards were a feature of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Koenigstein entertained a small company of friends Monday evening in honor of Miss Lou Young of Stanton. Six-hand euchre was played at which Miss Young won first prize, a hat pin holder, Miss Dorch won the shouting prize, a little match safe, and Julius Hult the gentleman's prize, a sketch book of Dutch dialect. After the cards the studio was cleared and dancing was enjoyed for a time. The evening ended with a tempting three-course luncheon.

Mrs. D. Mathewson, Mrs. J. S. Mathewson, Mrs. Geo. Butterfield, Mrs. Mary Mathewson, Mrs. John R. Hays, Mrs. A. J. Durland, Mrs. Burt Mapes, Mrs. W. H. Bridge and Mrs. H. J. Cole went to Wakefield Wednesday afternoon and were entertained by Mrs. J. D. Haskell. The afternoon was spent in a visit and a delightful luncheon served at small tables, which was enjoyed by all. Eight ladies from Wayne and three from Pender were of the company. The Norfolk and Wayne ladies returned on the evening passenger train. It was one of the unique and decidedly pleasant social affairs in north Nebraska this season.

The social event of the week was clearly the large dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Utter and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Durland in Marquardt hall last evening. Ninety persons were seated at little tables throughout the spacious room at 6:30 o'clock and were served to a sumptuous five-course dinner. After the dinner had finished, the gentlemen enjoyed a half hour's smoking, and then began a series of battles royal at military euchre. Captain Darius Mathewson and his sturdy squad of volunteers won the day and captured every post. His team were: Mrs. Bridge, Mrs. Brake, Mrs. Logan, Mr. Gillette and Mr. Erskine. They received dainty silver name plates for their coats.

After the military euchre battles had been finished, chairs were cleared for a couple of dances, the old fashioned quadrille featuring in the fun.

The party was one of the largest and one of the most delightful given in Norfolk in many a moon.

Clubs.

The J. N. club held an enjoyable meeting with Miss Glendora Evans Thursday night.

The Wednesday club met on Thursday afternoon of this week with Mrs. J. S. McClary. The meeting was postponed until Thursday because a number of the members had gone to Wakefield on Wednesday to be guests of Mrs. John D. Haskell during the afternoon.

The economic department of the Woman's club will meet in the Congregational church parlors Monday afternoon, where there will be given a demonstration on economic cooking.

The fireless cooking which Mrs. McMurry is to demonstrate at the meeting of the Woman's club Monday afternoon is a novel utensil. It is a simple article, easily made. The cooker consists of a large box or trunk lined on the inside, both top and bottom, with hay four or five inches thick. The food is prepared and heated until it boils and is then placed in the cooker and covered with pillows of hay and left four or five hours. When taken out of the cooker the food is found to be perfectly cooked and ready for the table. The principle is the non-conduction of heat. Hay is one of the best non-conductors. In this way none of the heat is lost and the cooking continues slowly until the food is thoroughly cooked. Roast beef, baked beans and brown bread cooked this way are pronounced delicious.

Hymenial.

The wedding of Dr. Pheasant and Miss Chilvers at Pierce this week was a society event of interest to Norfolk.

Dr. Pheasant formerly lived here. The bride and groom received a home for their wedding gift from Mr. Chilvers.

John Lemley, assistant cashier of the Tilden State bank and Miss Minnie Whitner were married at the home of the bride in Tilden Wednesday. It was a quiet wedding, only the near relatives and a few friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. John Lemley of Norfolk went from here to attend the wedding. Rev. Mr. Klopp of Stanton performed the ceremony. The groom is well known in Norfolk, having lived here, attended school and afterward the business college.

Coming Events.

Invitations are out for a party to be given by Mr. Walter Compton on the evening of October 30 at the home of his sister, Mrs. R. E. Bryant at 414 South Fourth street.

Theatrical.

"In a Woman's Power" has been cancelled.

One of the coming events will be "The Hidden Hand," which is pronounced a good attraction. It plays here November 15.

The Auditorium management has not yet repaired the playhouse with matting on the floor and a backboard to help the sound, but it is said that this may be done in the near future. Some other changes are also in the air.

Sunshine and shadow in the form of humor and pathos, alternate rapidly in the scenic play, "On the Bridge at Midnight," which will appear here tonight. A blind mother searches for her stolen child and her task is beset with difficulties. Two remarkable characters, Germany and Reddy, come out strongly and the story reaches one of its stirring climaxes in the famous drawbridge scene.

Three plays came to Norfolk this week. On Wednesday night "Human Hearts" pleased a fairly good sized house, though the weather interfered greatly with the attendance. Last night Rufus Rastus minstrels made a good sized audience laugh and tonight "On the Bridge at Midnight" will make its first appearance in Norfolk. All three of these plays are popular priced, the highest seats on any of the three nights being 75 cents. The play tonight is a melodrama and comedy combined.

Joseph De Grasse will be at the Auditorium next week in "The Merchant of Venice." He appears here on Tuesday night, October 29.

Order of Hearing on Original Probate of Will.

In the county court of Madison county, Nebraska.—The State of Nebraska, Madison County:

To all persons interested in the estate of Gottfried Kiesel, deceased: Whereas, there is on file in the county court of said Madison county, an instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of Gottfried Kiesel, late of said Madison county, deceased, and Frederick Kiesel has filed her petition herein praying to have said instrument admitted to probate, and for the issuing of letters testamentary, which will relate to both real and personal estates:

I have therefore appointed Monday, the 19th day of November, 1906, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, at the county court room in Madison, in said county, as the time and place for hearing and proving said will, at which time and place you and all concerned may appear and contest the probate and allowing of the same.

It is further ordered that said petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said estate of the pendency of the said petition, and the time and place set for the hearing of the same, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Norfolk Weekly News, a newspaper printed, published and circulating in said county, for three weeks successively previous to the day set for the hearing.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and official seal this 23rd day of October, 1906.

[Seal] Wm. Bates, County Judge.

INTEREST IN GOOD STOCK.

Farmers Around Norfolk Showed Lack of Enthusiasm at Sale.

The M. Mihills public sale of pure blood Duroc-Jersey swine, held a few days ago, was attended by a large number of stockmen from surrounding towns but by comparatively few from Norfolk or the section immediately surrounding Norfolk. This lack of interest among the farmers in pure blood stock is commented upon by stockmen who are interested in bettering their herds, and the lack of enthusiasm in this instance is taken as the basis for hoping that more interest can be worked up in future public sales of the kind.

Farmers of Iowa and some parts of Nebraska have become very highly interested in pure blooded stock because they find that the better quality animals pay better. A high quality, pure blooded animal eats no more than a cheap one and thus, after the first investment is made, every pound that is added is of much more value than a pound of ordinary livestock meat. The hope has been expressed in Norfolk that more interest may be manifested in the future among farmers in this vicinity than has been in the past.

DEATH WAS VERY SUDDEN

ROBERT GILLESPIE SUCCUMBED TO HEART FAILURE TODAY.

HE WAS A DAILY NEWS AD. MAN

After Eating Breakfast This Morning Mr. Gillespie Started to Return to His Room on the Third Floor of the Oxnard, and Expired.

From Saturday's Daily.—Robert W. Gillespie, who has been connected with the advertising department of The News for the past six months, died very suddenly at the Oxnard hotel this morning.

Mr. Gillespie, though he had been suffering slightly from rheumatism for the past week because of the damp weather, was apparently in good health last night when he left the office and said that he was feeling much better than he had for several days. The sudden demise is believed to have been due to heart failure.

News of the sudden death of Mr. Gillespie has been a profound shock to his friends in Norfolk and especially to all persons connected with this paper, among whom he was highly esteemed and well liked. Nothing was known of even a serious condition of his health until telephone word came from the Oxnard hotel that he had suddenly passed away. Dr. Bear was summoned and pronounced heart failure as the cause.

Ate Breakfast This Morning.

Mr. Gillespie ate breakfast at about 9 o'clock this morning but said that he was not feeling well and started to walk up stairs to his room on the third floor. He had reached the second landing when his strength gave way and he was found prostrate there. He was carried into his room and Dr. Bear summoned, but life had passed away before that time.

The remains were taken to the undertaking parlors of Sessions & Bell. Mr. Gillespie was a man about thirty-five years of age. He served in the Thurston rifles in the Philippines during the Spanish war. He has at times worked as advertising solicitor on the Des Moines Register and Leader and on the Kansas City World. He was unmarried. About a year ago he suffered an attack of illness and he had never been very strong, though his friends never thought that he was in any way in a serious condition.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Mr. Gillespie was an able advertising man, quiet, dignified, obliging and popular with the business men.

David K. Gillespie, a brother, who travels in this territory for the Midland Glass and Paint company, and who had planned to spend Sunday here with Mr. Gillespie, arrived from the west at noon today. George Gillespie of Omaha was notified this morning and planned to arrive in Norfolk this evening on the Northwestern. The remains will be taken to Omaha Sunday where the funeral will be held next week.

Mr. Gillespie is survived by his father and mother and six brothers, his being the first death in the family. One brother is a physician at Oquema, Iowa, and one is in Georgia.

HEAVY ODDS ON HUGHES

BETTING MEN LAYING THREE TO FIVE AGAINST HEARST.

HEARST MEN HOLD BACK CASH

Claims on Hearst's Part Run as High as 150,000 Majority—Some Hughes Money is Placed Ten to Two—Not Much Money is Being Wagered.

New York, Oct. 29.—Following the indorsement of the Hearst ticket, from top to bottom, by the executive committee of Tammany Hall, and the exhortation of Charles F. Murphy, chief of the organization, to the district leaders, to support the nominee with true loyalty, the democratic situation in New York county has cleared up and there is a better feeling all around.

The only people who are disgruntled are some of the Independence league candidates for congress, the state senate, and the assembly, whose petitions for nomination were rejected by the board of electors, thus leaving the field clear for a straight fight between the republican and democratic candidates. Some of these Independent league candidates and their friends have appealed to the supreme court for a review of the action of the board of elections, asserting fraud in connection with the throwing out of their petitions.

High Hearst Claims.

For the first time the democratic leaders began to talk of how big Mr. Hearst's plurality would be, in their estimation, in the city and state. W. J. Conners, chairman of the state committee, said Hearst would receive a plurality of no less than 148,000 in the greater city. He said the plurality for Mr. Hearst in all probability would be much larger, but he was willing to go on record that it would be as much as 148,000.

Tammany Chief Charles F. Murphy said 74,000 plurality in this city for Hearst would be enough to elect him. Mr. Murphy also said he did not doubt Hearst would come down to the Bronx with a plurality.

Max H. Ihmsen, Mr. Hearst's chief political manager, said Hearst would carry New York county by 150,000. The wide gaps between these predictions are due to the fact that the democrats have not as yet made any complete canvass, either of the city or state. The figures will be due on the Saturday before election day.

Heavy Odds for Hughes.

Little betting is being done here, but the prevailing odds for all money placed in Wall street are 3 to 1 against Hearst. One bet is recorded at 10 to 2. The Hearst men apparently are holding back until the odds touch bottom, then they will dump a load of money into the ring.

The Hearst people are keeping quiet about the way they are running the campaign. Nevertheless, it is known they are depending upon an enormous vote, both here and up-state, from republican workmen. The indications are their hopes may be well grounded. It is known that canvasses made in the manufacturing towns up-state show surprising defection from Hughes to Hearst among republican workmen, who voted for Roosevelt and McKinley. Republicans are not only trying to stem this tide, but are relying largely on the votes of the dissatisfied "old line" democrats for the offset.

WEATHER STOPS CREAM FLOW

Northern Nebraska Cows Refuse to Give up During Storm.

The fair weather forecasted by the weather man arrived in Norfolk this morning. A south wind blowing into an area of low pressure northwest of this point showed this morning that the temperature will gradually rise. Farmers and cream men are thankful for a change in the weather as it is reported that the quantity of cream given by north Nebraska cows fell off very materially during the bad weather.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Leonard the druggist.
