WHEAT NEARS DOLLAR MARK

OPENED AT 96 CENTS IN CHICAGO PIT.

A BIG LEAP OVER SATURDAY

BUYING ORDERS RUSHING INTO BOARD OF TRADE.

FRANTIC SCENES ON 'CHANGE

Another Big Boost Toward the Now Commonly Promised Dollar Wheat is Given to July Wheat Monday Morning in Chicago.

Chicago, May 13.—July wheat rushed up in another long stride today toward the now commonly promised $1 wheat.

The market opened today at 96 cents, an advance of 4 1/4 cents over Saturday, when wild excitement prevailed and when more business was done than on any other day known in the board of trade.

Today frantic excitement prevailed from the opening gong. Every hand seemed to be signaling for wheat. Buying orders came from all over the country. Indications that the winter wheat crop is 10,000,000 bu. less than in 1906, with continued inrush of unfavorable seedling reports from the northwest and increasing damage by the green bug in the southwest, caused the boost.

TRIPP COUNTY NOT TO OPEN THIS YEAR

BECAUSE OF LARGE NUMBER OF INDIAN ALLOTMENTS.

THIS SEEMS TO BE ASSURED

LETTER FROM INTERIOR DEPARTMENT SAYS SO.

NO PROCLAMATION ISSUED YET

The Herrick Press Says That Information Which Has Been Received There Regarding Tripp Settlement is Considered Final.

Herrick, S. D., May 13.—The Tripp county portion of the Rosebud reservation will not open to settlement until next year, according to the Herrick Press.

The Press says: Early last week we were informed from an official source that the opening to settlement of the Tripp county portion of the Rosebud reservation could not possibly take place this year, but not wishing to make a statement which would disappoint a great many people, we hesitated to make a positive assertion of the fact until fully verified.

Shortly afterward, however, we received from Mr. Samuel Herrick, of the well known legal firm of Herrick & Herrick, of Washington, D. C., who has been the representative in Washington of our town's candidacy for one of the registration points for the Tripp county drawing, the following letter received by him from the department of the interior in answer to his solicitations on behalf of the town of Herrick:

Department of the Interior, General Land Office, Washington, D. C., April 22, 1907.—Mr. Samuel Herrick, Washington, D. C.: In reply to your letter of April 18, 1907, transmitting petitions from citizens and the Commercial club of Herrick, South Dakota, for the designation of Herrick as a place of registration of applicants for the entry of lands within that part of the Rosebud Indian reservation as lies in Tripp county, South Dakota, I enclose copy of circular of March 27, 1907, relative to the opening to entry of said lands which contains all the information this office will be able to give until the president issues his proclamation fixing the date when, and the manner in which the lands shall be opened to settlement and entry, except to state the opening cannot take place during the current calendar year because of the large number of allotments to be made.

Your letter and its inclosures are placed on file for further consideration at the proper time.

Very respectfully, Fred Dennett, Assistant Commissioner.

It seems to us that the statement there made is final, and will doubtless terminate for the present the strife now on between Bonesteel, Burke and Gregory for the location of the land office west of the river, for it is very probable that the office will not be moved from Mitchell at least until a date is set for the opening of Tripp county.

MOTHER OF MRS. FRANK GOULD DENIES SHE IS SOURCE OF TROUBLES.

New York, May 13.—Mrs. Edward Kelly, mother-in-law of Frank Jay Gould, told last night the story of her troubles with her son-in-law.

"It is true," she said, "that I have had a controversy with young Mr. Gould, but it has been because of anxiety to make peace in his family rather than any wish to create trouble."

"A very grave injustice has been done me," she said, with tears in her eyes. "This was a case of 'too much mother-in-law.' It was a case of a loving mother trying to save her daughter from a broken heart. I cannot tell the whole story now, but there will come a time—and I do not think it will be long—when it will all come out. Then I can tell what I know."

"My daughter has said to me several times: 'Mother, I'm ready to leave Frank Gould right now and come back to you. I can't stand it any longer.' But I have always counseled her not to leave him for the sake of the children."

"Three years ago it was practically arranged that they should separate. It was only because of the children that they did not do so. Now I don't know what will come to pass. There has been trouble ever since Helen married Frank Gould. From the very first things have not been as they should be in their home. He goes away and leaves her for days at a time. There have been many instances of this."
