The buggy was overturned and the youngest child killed, instantly, it is said. The oldest child was badly hurt and another unscratched.

GIVES HUSBAND TO RIVAL

MRS. EARLE SAILS TO GET DIVORCE IN FRANCE.

NOT THE LEAST BIT JEALOUS

Artist Ferdinand Earle Finds New "Affinity and Helpmeet Leaves Country So That All Parties May Live Happily—No Quarrel.

New York, Sept. 5.—A scene more suggestive of an up-to-date play than of real life was enacted on board the steamer Rydan, when Mrs. Ferdinand Earle of Monroe, N. Y., sailed for her native home in France to obtain a divorce in order that her husband, an artist and socialist, may marry another woman, whom he declares he has found to be his affinity. Mrs. Earle acquiesced in the plan by which she renounced her husband to another woman, if she did not voluntarily offer to give him his freedom, and she faced a group of reporters and curious persons on the steamer with a smile which gave no hint of any regret at her part in the strange domestic drama in which she was enacting the leading role.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle left their home in Monroe together and driving past curious groups of townspeople boarded the train for Weehawken. There was a little hissing as they boarded the train. Mrs. Earle with her little son, Harold, who will share her exile reached the steamer in advance of Mr. Earle and went at once to her state room. Mr. Earle arrived soon afterward and together they appeared on deck to meet the reporters. They posed together for a picture. Mrs. Earle declined to make any statement but her husband, who seemed highly pleased with the attention he was receiving, said: "Mrs. Earle is bearing bravely under the ordeal. This notoriety is worth five years' work to me. We part with a full understanding and Mrs. Earle is as much agreed to it as I am. I believe it is the right thing to do."

Mr. and Mrs. Earle then went to her stateroom and bade each other goodbye. Victor M. Earle of this city, the brother of the artist, and Mrs. Victor Earle were on board the steamer to bid farewells. Victor Earle said that while he and his relatives did not hold the same opinions as his brother he would not criticize his conduct. Mr. Earle said that the young woman his brother is to marry had left the Earle home in Monroe.

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—Louis Glass, vice president of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company, convicted of having bribed Supervisor Longman to vote against granting a franchise to the Home Telephone company, was sentenced by Judge Lawler to five years' imprisonment in the state prison at San Quentin.

Only a small crowd, made up for the most part of lawyers and newspaper men, witnessed the imposition of sentence. When the usual preliminary motions had been cleared away, the court said: "Has the defendant any other legal cause to show why judgment should not be pronounced upon him?" Mr. Glass arose in the pew immediately back of his counsel and answered in a voice that was clear and steady: "I have no reply, your honor, except that I am entirely guiltless of this charge."

Judge Lawler then sentenced Glass to be confined in the state prison at San Quentin for the term of five years.

After his attorneys had applied for and been granted a thirty-day arrest of judgment, within whose expiration they will apply for bail and begin the prosecution of an appeal, Mr. Glass was removed by the sheriff to the county jail, where he has been a prisoner since his conviction last week.

DELAY IN ALTON'S BATH

ATTORNEY GENERAL BONAPARTE ISSUES STATEMENT.

BIMS FAILED TO OBEY ORDER

Department of Justice Not Yet Advised as to Character of New Information Obtained by District Attorney, but Has Confidence in Him.

Lenox, Mass., Sept. 5.—Attorney General Charles J. Bonaparte issued the following statement regarding the Standard Oil case in the Illinois court: "On Aug. 14 Judge Landis asked, in substance, that the department of justice consider portions of the transcript of testimony in the case of the United States against the Standard Oil company of Indiana in order to determine whether the Chicago and Alton Railroad company, its officers and employees were entitled to the benefits of an agreement assuring it and them of immunity against criminal prosecution in connection with the granting of certain rebates to the Standard Oil company. The department, in compliance with the desire of Judge Landis, examined the above mentioned records and carefully investigated the entire subject, and as a result of such investigation the attorney general on Aug. 29 wrote Edwin W. Sims, United States attorney at Chicago, informing him, in substance, that the agreement was shown to have been made in June or July, 1906, by T. B. Morrison, Mr. Sims' predecessor in office, that Mr. Morrison's action appears to have been duly authorized at the time by the department, that in the opinion of the department the arrangement had greatly facilitated the indictment and conviction of the Standard Oil company, and that while certain portions of the evidence might be fairly open to unfavorable comment, the department regarded the government as bound in good faith, and also as a matter of public policy, to give effect to the agreement. Mr. Sims was instructed to read this letter when the grand jury reconvened on Sept. 3 and to take such further action to the foregoing as might seem to the court and to himself appropriate in the premises. The department learns that Mr. Sims did not comply with these instructions by reason of his having had called to his attention very recently certain new and, in his judgment, material facts which he thought should be submitted to the department for its further consideration before its conclusion should be finally announced. For this purpose he asked and was granted by the court a delay of three weeks. The department is not as yet advised as to what are the facts thus ascertained by Mr. Sims, but it has great confidence in his sound judgment and devotion to duty, and it awaits his reply before taking further action in the premises. Inasmuch, however, as the circumstances of the case may be liable to misconception, it is deemed proper to submit now the present statement to the public."
