

TROUBLE IN POLICE COURT

ATTORNEY H. F. BARNHART ATTACKS THE JUDGE.

FURNITURE IS DEMOLISHED

Brought into Court on a Charge of Disorderly Conduct, Attorney Barnhart Hurling Chairs Promiscuously About the Court Room.

Brought into police court Tuesday afternoon with his wife to answer charges of disorderly conduct the night before, Attorney H. F. Barnhart, under the influence of liquor, attacked Police Judge Elsey with a chair and demolished police court furniture.

At a moment when Judge Elsey was alone Barnhart became violent and attacked the judge with a chair. Mrs. Barnhart stepped into the court room and also became a target.

Barnhart soon had the court room cleared and sent chair after chair crashing against the door and wall.

The disturbance occurred just above the first ward polling place but the attorney held the court room and hall until two officers, Chief Flynn and Officer Keil, arrived.

Springing into the room they subdued the attorney with their clubs and carried him to the city jail. A physician was summoned at once.

Police court was considered adjourned. H. F. Barnhart came to Norfolk from Pierce and has been one of the prominent attorneys in the city. Last year he was the democratic nominee for county attorney.

STOLEN HORSES FOUND.

John Hendricks Accused of Taking a Number of Horses.

Dakota City, Neb., Nov. 6.—The arrest of John Hendricks, who was employed as a corn husker on the farm of W. A. Bonney, by Sheriff H. C. Hansen today, placed behind the cell bars of the Dakota county jail a man accused of being a professional horse thief and may result in the uncovering of a gang of horse thieves in Nance county, which will reflect credit on the detective work done by Sheriff O. O. Rock and Liverman William Neufund of Logan, Iowa. The splendid detective work of these two gentlemen, which has been industriously prosecuted for the last five weeks has also resulted in the recovery to their rightful owners of two stolen teams, a colt and a buggy harness. On the night of October 5 Hendricks stole a team of bay mares, buggy and harness from the barn of John James, a farmer residing four miles from Missouri Valley, Iowa. This outfit was traced by Messrs. Rock and Neufund to Nance county, Nebraska, where the team was found in a pasture, where they had been left by Hendricks on October 10. This team was found on October 25 and has been returned to their rightful owner at Missouri Valley. On October 14 Hendricks hired a farmer to take the buggy and harness he had stolen at Missouri Valley to Genoa, Neb., where he left it at a blacksmith shop. Two days later Hendricks came to Genoa with a team of roan horses and a yearling colt, hitched onto his buggy and drove away. From Genoa he was traced to Sioux City, Iowa, where he had driven with the team which he had stolen from Bartholomew Lamb's pasture, twenty miles from Genoa, on October 16. In Sioux City Hendricks hired out to W. A. Bonney of this county to husk corn and drove over there two weeks ago, since which time he has been on the farm. The team and colt stolen from Lamb, as well as the buggy and harness stolen from James are now in the possession of Sheriff H. C. Hansen, and Hendricks is behind the bars awaiting the arrival of the sheriff of Nance county to take him there for trial. Sheriff Rock will also see that an indictment is returned against Hendricks in the Harrison county, Iowa, courts. Hendricks is a man about 45 years of age, and when questioned today refused to say anything further than that he wanted to see a lawyer.

LAND SLIDE IN HOLT.

Republicans Sweep Practically Everything in Sight.

O'Neill, Neb., Nov. 6.—There has been a land slide to the republicans in Holt county and every officer in the county, with one possible exception, will be a republican. It is conceded that the fusion candidate for clerk of the district court will probably be elected, but he will be lonesome, as he will be the only fusion county official. This has heretofore been one of the strong fusion counties in the state, and the result of yesterday's election is a surprise even to the republicans who have been sanguine that they would make great inroads upon the fusion stronghold but did not expect to sweep it practically out of existence. The county board of supervisors is still in doubt, with the prospects favorable to the republicans.

L. SESSIONS HAS A BAD FALL

Slipped From Roof and Fell Sixteen Feet—Rendered Unconscious.

L. Sessions, falling from the roof of his home on West Norfolk avenue about 5:30 o'clock Monday evening, was rendered unconscious by the fall but apparently escaped serious injury. Mr. Sessions regained consciousness in about an hour after the accident. He was confined to his bed during the day, losing his voice.

The roof of Mr. Sessions home is being reshingled. To hurry the work that it might be finished by evening Mr. Sessions joined the men on the roof. The staging on which he was standing, slipped. Unable to check himself Mr. Sessions slipped over the eaves, falling to the ground, a distance of about sixteen feet.

Mr. Sessions apparently struck the ground with his feet, falling forward on his arm and face. He regained consciousness in about an hour. No bones were broken and it was thought that no internal injuries were received.

FELL FROM SCAFFOLDING

Atkinson, Neb., Nov. 6.—Special to The News: A serious accident occurred to Morton Greeley, living some twenty miles from town. In building a new barn and on the scaffolding some eighteen feet high, when ready to move same, he in some way fell to the ground and managed to scrape the side of his head in such a way as to need the care of the doctor. Mr. Greeley was glad to have part of his ear left on and to be able to drive the distance to see that care was given to the same. He will remain in town until the danger is past from the wounds.

JUDGE GRAVES RE-ELECTED

He is highly recommended by the Bennett company as a man competent in every way, and fully acquainted with pianos.

FOR OPENING NEW SCHOOL

THERE WILL BE SOME SORT OF FORMAL PROGRAM.

MR. BODWELL ON STATE BOARD

The Board of Education Were Unanimous in the Opinion That Norfolk Schools Will Profit From Mr. Bodwell's New State Appointment.

Norfolk's new high school building, when completed, will probably be opened with some formal program or opening night feature. The building itself is now far enough advanced that this phase of the situation is being discussed by members of the school board. As there were no corner stone exercises, the plan of a formal opening has been suggested by members of the board.

The board of education plowed through the usual monthly accumulation of routine business at the regular November meeting held Monday evening in Secretary Matraux's office. At the meeting the board members voted to make no exceptions in the matter of tuition charges assessed against pupils from away from Norfolk.

Despite the fact that Norfolk is forced to use temporary high school quarters it was stated at the meeting that a dozen pupils from outside districts had taken advantage of the free high school attendance law of the last legislature to attend school in Norfolk. Norfolk receives an income of 75 cents a week for each pupil, an item that will be of some importance when the new high school building begins to draw more pupils from outside districts.

Superintendent Bodwell notified the board Monday evening that he had been designated by the state superintendent as a member of the state examining committee and that part of the duties consisted of inspecting the teachers' training work in the colleges and normals of the state, thirteen schools in all being divided among the members of the board. Before accepting Mr. Bodwell discussed with the board the advisability of his being absent from Norfolk occasionally to attend to the inspection.

Members of the board seemed to be unanimous in the opinion that the Norfolk schools would profit by the appointment as much as the superintendent as the latter would be brought in touch with the educational work in the line of teachers' training. The demands that the appointment would make on his time would be slight.

WEDNESDAY WRINKLES.

Mrs. F. H. Scott has returned from a visit with her husband at Pierre, S. D.

Among the day's out of town visitors in Norfolk were: C. G. Whipple, Niobrara; George W. Conrad, Wood River; Mrs. E. A. Culver, Crofton; C. B. Parrshall, Butte; Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Reese, Randolph; H. J. Steinhansen, Creighton; Dr. N. Hitchcock, Tilden; Ed. Smith, Monroe; Mrs. Eugene Crook, Foster; W. S. Babson, Plainview; J. E. Agler, Wayne; W. G. Jones, Miss Lizzie Jones, Monroe; Mrs. F. J. Mohler, Monroe.

Thursday Smith Brothers will have the season's last shipment of western horses and mules in Norfolk for their last range sale for 1907. The success of the two earlier sales and especially the last big sale indicates that the closing sale will bring a big crowd of horsemen to the city.

C. J. Haviland, manager of the local office of the Western Union telegraph company, will continue in charge of the company's affairs in Norfolk for the present at least. It had been announced that Mr. Haviland was to be transferred to Iola, Kan., but Superintendent J. C. Nelson of Omaha has advised him that after the transfer to the Iola office had been arranged for the Iola manager changed his plans and desired to remain at Iola. The Iola manager has changed his original notice to the company to a request for relief for one month. Mr. Haviland has declined to go to Iola temporarily under the changed circumstances but will remain in Norfolk until he can be transferred permanently to a better position.

The renewed activity of horse thieves operating successfully in north Nebraska is going to result in more effective organized effort in this section to fight the thieves. In Dodge county Sheriff Bauman has concluded to call a meeting for the reorganization of a defunct anti-horse thief association that was maintained in that county some years ago. In connection with the work of organizing to protect live stock it is pointed out that to have effective results state wide co-operation is necessary against the thieves. It was for this purpose that the north Nebraska live stock owners' protective association was organized and placed on a basis for doing effective work. Members of the north Nebraska association point out that their members have as yet been avoided by the horse thieves. The Wayne association, one of the members of which recently lost four horses, has never joined the north Nebraska organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Higginbotham and son of Sturgis, are here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Perry and family, before going to Seattle, Washington, for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Joe Stansberry and son returned home to Omaha Tuesday morning after a visit with her brother-in-law, Mr. Stansberry and family.

Miss Bertha Shaffer is on the sick list.

Mr. Wallum, who has been sick for some time, was able to go to work this morning.

Earl Slawter returned home from Creighton last night.

Two new window lights have been put in the Junction depot in place of broken ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Tanner and daughter Mable returned home last evening from a visit with old friends in Foster, their former home.

William Scadden of Wayne is here visiting at the home of Mr. Brannigan, Engineer M. C. Howell, who has been working on the Blackhills division, returned to Norfolk yesterday and will work out of here.

About 12 o'clock Tuesday the wood pile at the roundhouse was discovered to be on fire. The roundhouse boys turned out and soon had it under control. This might have been a very destructive fire, as the wood was piled up against the west end of the oil house, which contained about forty barrels of oil in tanks. The roundhouse boys have a well organized fire company, with a good hose cart and 400 feet of hose. The greatest damage done was to the windows of the oil house.

Miss Blanche White, who has been quite sick, is now much better.

Mrs. C. R. Kampann is on the sick list.

Jake Shively, who fell out of a tree some time ago and hurt his ankle severely, keeping him out of school, is now getting around by the aid of crutches.

Mrs. Andy Teal and granddaughter, Miss Elaine Mather, returned home Monday evening from the east.

Frank Krohler, who has been sick for the past week, was able to be at work this morning.

START AN EXCHANGE DAY

NEW IDEA TO BE PUT INTO OPERATION HERE.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF FARMERS

The First Actual "Exchange" Day Will be Put to a Practical Test in Norfolk First Week in December—Arrangements Made.

The Norfolk "exchange day" for the special benefit of the farmers of this vicinity has been worked out by the joint committee from the Commercial club and trade promoters' association and is to be put to the practical test within a month. The exchange day committee has been at work on the scheme for some weeks and now believes that it is ready to be launched.

A special committee, chosen from among some of the leading farmers of the vicinity, has been selected to manage and have general charge of the "exchange." This is the committee: Ernest Raasch, chairman; C. F. Winter, Fred Terry, Carl Reiche, Carl Fuhrman, Adrain Craig, Ernest Melcher, Peter Bussey and R. W. Rohrke.

Yesterday the Commercial club committee made arrangements with the management of the Slaughter feed yards to secure the yards for the use of the committee on exchange day. Expenses connected with the new venture will be met by the Norfolk Commercial club.

The first exchange day, if present plans carry, will probably be held on the first Tuesday or Wednesday in December. Sentiment at this time favors an "exchange day" once a month.

Launched as an experiment it is not possible at this time to forecast just what lines the exchange day move will take as it develops. The present plan contemplates an exchange barn where on a fixed day farmers can display free of charge what ever they have that they wish to sell or trade. The plan is for a mutual benefit exchange. For the present at least the auction feature will be omitted.

It is felt that the whole venture depends for its success on the interest it excites among the farmers of this vicinity. Among many of the leading farmers it has already been warmly commended.

Exchange days have proved successful elsewhere. In Norfolk the agitation for an exchange or trade day was started by J. D. Sturgeon who appeared before the Commercial club to advocate the plan.
