

TO PUMP BY ELECTRICITY

COUNCIL RECEIVES PROPOSITION FROM E. A. BULLOCK.

CHEAPEN THE COST OF PUMPING

Proposition Which if Accepted Will Save Cost of Installing New Machinery at Station and Do the Work Cheaper Than it is Being Done.

Guaranteeing a saving of more than $600 a year in operating expenses and opening a way to avoid the expenses of new equipment at the city water station, the Norfolk Electric Light & Power company, through E. A. Bullock president, has made the city council a proposition to pump the city water cheaper than it is said to be pumped now.

The proposition of the electric light company came before the city council last evening. It was not altogether unexpected as the matter had been recently taken up informally with Mr. Bullock. The project involves the substitution of electricity for steam power at the water station. The council took no action in the matter but referred the proposition to a committee which will be named in a day or so by Mayor Durland.

The electric light company's proposition is: That they will pump the city's water, keep the standpipe within twenty feet of being full, furnish a new pump and electric motor and keep one steam boiler and the big pump ready in case of accident, all for $189 a month; that in case the city furnishes the new pump they will furnish the service for $170 a month; that in case the city furnish both pump and the motor the charge would be $160 or, if desired, five cents a thousand gallons of water pumped. The proposition provides that the city is to maintain its present water rules and that for new consumers it would pay five cents a thousand gallons registered by the meters.

Mr. Bullock appeared before the council. He said that his proposition was based on a six year contract and that it contemplated charging the city what its annual pumping station expenses had been for the last seven years, excluding the wages paid engineer at the station. Mr. Bullock said that the city had the best end of the proposition because coal had risen a dollar in the last three years and that more water would be used on account of the new sewers.

The proposition is for furnishing the power and the labor at the station and maintaining the present pumping station, including all items of expense for maintaining and operating except repairs and insurance on buildings.

The city councilmen say that they intend to go thoroughly into the merits of the proposal. The expenses of operating the pumping station have been increasing this year and it has also been claimed that a considerable part of the water plant machinery will have to be replaced in a short time.

Hoskins Briefs.

E. W. Zutz of Norfolk visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zutz, between trains Sunday.

Mrs. August Brummond and daughter of Norfolk visited at the home of Mrs. Joe Luders Sunday.

The masquerade on the eve of the 29th at Wetzlich's hall was well attended. Some very striking costumes were worn. The lady's prize, a very handsome plate, was given to Mrs. P. Kautz, and the gentleman's, $2.00 cash, to Mr. Ferris.

MARRIES MILLIONAIRE

NORFOLK WEDDING RESULT OF HOMESTEAD ROMANCE.

MISS MABEL CATLIN THE BRIDE

Returning From South Dakota, Where She Had "Held Down" a Claim for Eight Months, Miss Catlin Becomes the Bride of Rich Ranchman.

As the result of a South Dakota homestead romance, a Norfolk girl has become the bride of a millionaire ranchman. Miss Mabel Claire Catlin is the bride and Everette Towne of Stanley county, S. D., is the groom.

The marriage took place in the home of the bride's parents in this city Wednesday evening. The bride had just returned from an eight months' residence on a claim in South Dakota, and will remain for a visit with her parents for a few weeks. Mr. Towne has already returned to his ranch at Cherry Creek, S. D.

Miss Catlin is well known in Norfolk as a professional musician and instructress. She formerly led the Norfolk ladies' band.

MOVING WEEK IN NORTHWEST.

Many Changes Are Being Made to be Ready for Season's Work.

This week is moving week in the northwest. Men from the east are coming to western farms, some western farmers who have been renting are moving a little farther west to the homestead land, renters are changing farms, prosperous farmers are moving to town and sons are starting out for farms of their own. It all makes for a little extra business for the railroads.

Yesterday the Northwestern had forty emigrant cars, that is cars loaded with farm "stuff" belonging to farmers who are "moving," through Norfolk. A good portion went north on the Bonesteel line. A special train of sixteen cars was sent west of Bonesteel. This movement has been going on for the last ten days.

March moving is an annual event which the railroad companies always prepare for. Farm leases are usually made to expire March 1, about the time that spring is supposed to begin.

DAIRY INTERESTS CLEANED UP

Rome Miller's Sale Was a Big Success and Prices Good.

Thursday's sale cleaned up the Rome Miller dairy interests in Norfolk, all of the farm machinery, the Rome Miller dairy herd and the horses and hogs on the former Rome Miller farm going under the hammer.

The total proceeds of the sale were about $6,500.

A Holstein Jersey cow topped the sale ring at $65, though some of the Jerseys were disposed of at private sale at over $100.

George B. Carroll of Norfolk had charge of the selling and created a favorable impression.

WAS IN A HURRY.

Man in Fur Overcoat Had Three Hours to Wait.

He wore a big fur overcoat and he was in a terrible hurry. He elbowed his way through a crowd of passengers at the Union Pacific ticket window, shoving two men aside at the window. There the man in the hurry got his ticket and was told that his train did not leave Norfolk for three hours. "Well," said one of the men who had been shoved aside.

Sewer Trench Sinks. Danger lights were hung out on two places on West Norfolk avenue last evening, the Norfolk avenue sewer trench having caved in two places.

COMPROMISE ON LIMITS

COUNCIL MAKES AGREEMENT WITH NORTHWESTERN.

PART OF PROPERTY TO COME IN

Round House and South Part of the Yards Are Not to Come into the Corporate Limits—Settles Case Out of Court.

The city council has adopted a resolution effecting a compromise with the Northwestern railroad on the annexation proposition now before the district court. By the compromise the roundhouse and the south part of the railroad yards will not be brought into the city limits. All of the railroad property east of Fourth street including the headquarters office, the Junction depot and the eating house are brought into the city proper. All railroad property between Fourth and Eleventh street for a distance fifty feet south of the main line track is annexed. It had been felt that if the railroad contested the city's proceedings difficulty might have been experienced in getting the property in. It was also pointed out that the company laid out its yards so as to avoid the city.

ACCIDENTS AT BATTLE CREEK.

Two Ankles Broken at Battle Creek on Same Day.

Battle Creek Enterprise: Otto, the 14-year-old son of Albert Mantey, was kicked and trampled upon by a vicious horse Wednesday afternoon, sustaining a fracture of the bones above the ankle. The tendons of the leg were also injured, causing a very painful complication.

The lad was attended by Dr. Munson and is now getting along as well as could be expected.

The same afternoon Matt Wagner, employed in the meat market of Frank Ruzick, was thrown from a horse and the bones above the ankle of the right leg were badly broken.

The accident happened at the stockyards, where Mr. Wagner was handling some cattle. Not being able to manage the animals on foot, he jumped on a strange horse nearby, which proved his undoing. The animal reared and threw him, with results as above stated. The injured man was at once taken to the office of Dr. Munson, who gave him the necessary surgical relief. It will be several months before Mr. Wagner regains use of the injured member.

Most Anything in a Bottle.

Wayne Democrat: Since Wausau went dry the people of that burg get most anything "in a bottle." Here's dejection the Enterprise man gives his readers to swallow: "What might truly be termed a freak of nature was a little pig which was displayed by Chris. Wolf on our streets and in our stores one day this week. In order that it might be preserved he had it put in alcohol in a large bottle. It had eight legs, four ears and two tails, but only two eyes. The head was perfectly shaped with one ear on each side, but directly on top of its head were the other two ears turned towards each other. About half the length of its body was one body, after which it divided into two bodies, but these were also turned towards each other in place of having grown side to side." That listens just about like what prohibition liquor sounds.

DEPORT ANARCHISTS.

Chicago "Reds" Have Come Under the Ban of Federal Government.

Chicago, March 7.—Chicago anarchists have fallen under the ban of the federal government. Direct orders from Washington yesterday set the Chicago wheels at the federal building revolving, and secret service operatives, postoffice inspectors and deputy United States marshals are preparing to make a campaign of surveillance against all alleged anarchists or anarchist publications.

The move on the part of Commissioner of Immigration Sargent, who issued the formal directions yesterday, to enforce to the letter in Chicago the new immigration law, is believed to reflect the general feeling of apprehension which resulted from the assassination of Father Leo in Denver.

In Chicago the state of terror among the Catholic clergy especially has been marked and the Chicago police department has taken the initiative in muzzling incendiary speakers.

The bars are up against Emma Goldman, whose rants are alleged to have inspired Czolgosz to shoot President McKinley. Chief Shipley has issued orders that she should not be allowed to speak in Chicago, as advertised March 6. Yesterday Commissioner Sargent directed that the federal officials in Chicago arrest her and deport her to Russia under the provisions of the immigration law. United States District Attorney Sims announced his determination to co-operate thoroughly with the department of commerce and labor in cleaning out the anarchists.

The law is clear and explicit, said the district attorney yesterday. The United States is no place for anarchists and the provisions of the statute are so self-evident that it is only necessary to find one advocating opposition to this or any other government and he is due for deportation. The law will be enforced to the letter in Chicago.

It is up to the postoffice inspectors to watch for inflammatory literature, issued through newspapers which have the mailing privilege and to this end, it is said a special detail of operatives will look into the cases of the publications, chiefly foreign in character, which are said to have been unusually rapid in their utterances for the past fortnight.

Complaints have reached the city police department of articles appearing in certain Italian papers affecting the priesthood of the Catholic church, and declared to have been inspired by the anticlerical element in the Italian population.

Assistant Chief of Police Schuetler had one of the articles translated and then said that the only way that he knew of stopping such publications would be to confiscate them as offensive to morality.

HOME TRADE WINS.

Home Traders Win in Boone Catalogue Debate.

Albion News: The catalogue house question has finally been debated out in District 42. Mrs. J. L. Nofsinger and C. B. McCorkle spoke in favor of the mail order houses out at the literary society Friday night, and C. F. Steiner and B. D. Childs of Albion, spoke in opposition to them. The school house was packed by eager listeners, who hoped to see this great question decided for good. The judges were J. A. Fleming, Charles Daigh and Fred Reynolds and their decision was in favor of Messrs. Steiner and Childs. We shall expect home trade to begin to pick up from now on.

Butter and Egg Pool.

Randolph, Neb., March 6.—The Randolph Butter and Egg association was formed in this city, the plan being similar to a like association that has been in existence at Madison for seventeen years. The butter and eggs heretofore handled by the local merchants will now be handled by the new concern. Phillip Pill was elected president, S. D. Kamrar vice president, J. Will Oliver treasurer and J. Irving Oliver secretary.

FAIL TO ENDORSE HUGHES

NEW YORK STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE LETS IT ALONE.

ACTION WOULD NOT BIND STATE

Committeeman Gives as an Excuse for the Cold Shoulder to the Home Candidate That the State Convention Should be Uninfluenced.

New York, March 7.—The republican state committee, when it met today failed to pass a resolution endorsing the candidacy of Hughes for the presidency. It was stated by members of the committee that such action would not bind the state convention and it was considered proper that that body be permitted to act without previous influence.

"HELLO, CENTRAL; AB2476."

Almost 100 People Seek Information Concerning Hook to Let.

Scads of people seem to be interested in the matrimonial intentions of the want advertiser who has been trying, through The News, to hook a heart.

Thus far the advertiser has failed to throw the harpoon into any fluttering cardiac pumping station.

But there's hope, the central office girls say. Fifty people called up the number of heart advertiser the first night. Twenty-five or more wanted to know the next night. About 100 in all have responded to the ad.

But there's where the sting comes. As it now appears, heart seeker gave some flimsy number. Why or wherefore none can discover.

Just what kind of a game that romantic individual is playing, anxious inquirers want to know. Incidentally, this little affair of the heart is testifying that everybody reads the want ads—that that's the place to offer what you have for sale or exchange or rent or what not.

OMAHA CHAMPION IN SPOKANE.

Guy D. Thomas Gets Into the Game in Western City.

Spokane, Wash., March 7.—Guy D. Thomas, golf champion of the Omaha Field club and holder of several titles as champion in sports in the Missouri valley, has come to Spokane as traveling freight agent of the Burlington system, and will become identified with the Spokane Country club, the Spokane Amateur Athletic association and several other organizations. As guest of F. W. Guilbert, one of the prominent members of the first named organization, he will go over the links at Manito park in a few days. The grounds are among the best in the northwest and Thomas should make a strong showing as soon as he becomes familiar with the links. The club expects to compete in California and Northwestern tournaments this season and the Omaha man will be invited to join the crack team.

Thomas is a thorough sportsman and has won athletic honors on many fields. At a skating carnival on the exposition lagoon at the Trans-Mississippi exposition he won 18 francs, defeating several speedy professionals from various parts of the country. He also has a reputation as a tackler and is declared to be the best punter in the middle west. He defeated the Nebraska state golf champion in the finals last season to win the title as champion of the field club. He can drive the golf ball over 300 yards, as was evidenced in a contest at the Omaha Field club where he was on the green of a 608 yards hole in two.

The want ads. are for you—your use. Try one with a task!

PROMPTNESS GO RESULTS

RESTORATION OF SERVICE DUE TO QUICK ACTION.

ON PART OF COMMERCIAL CLUB

"Norfolk Can Thank the Commercial Club for Restoration of Daily Freight Service on Union Pacific," Says One of the Railroad Commissioners.

"Norfolk can thank the Commercial club of that city for the restoration of daily freight service on the Norfolk-Columbus branch of the Union Pacific. It was the prompt action of the Norfolk club which accomplished this." This statement was made in Lincoln by one of the state railroad commissioners at this week's hearing on the protests against the tri-weekly freight order of the Union Pacific.

It will be remembered that the matter was brought before the Norfolk directors the day after the objectionable order was issued. President A. J. Durland of the club succeeding in getting Norfolk's objections before the commissioners and the Union Pacific officials within twenty-four hours of the time the order reached Norfolk. This prompt and determined action made an impression.

The Norfolk men who attended the Lincoln hearing did not understand that the commission intended to order the restoration of complete service on all the Union Pacific branch lines. They think that when the order is issued Monday it will probably affect only the Norfolk and Osceola lines.

Norfolk was represented at the hearing by President A. J. Durland of the Commercial club, by W. H. Blakeman and by C. W. Landers, Mr. Landers being summoned by the commission in his capacity as Union Pacific agent in Norfolk. The delegation found on their arrival in Lincoln that Norfolk had already been taken care of and that the prompt action of the club, coupled with the fact that both Norfolk and Humphrey are competitive points, had protected the city.

Columbus, Albion, Spalding and several other towns were represented, about fifteen delegates being present. About a dozen Union Pacific men were at the hearing. The company said that it had acted along the line of retrenchment in its order touching the branch lines of the state. The feeling at the meeting was said to be friendly.

AMATEUR TRAPEZE PERFORMERS

Sons of Herman Boche Are Becoming Proficient in Acrobatic Stunts.

The name of Boche may some day be known in other ways than in connection with the Ives and Jarner murder trials, the tragic death of William Boche or the other dramatic features in the lives of the Boche family down by the Elkhorn river.

Out in the woods on the Herman Boche farm the sons of the man who was convicted at Madison last week have strung their tight wires, placed their trapeze and raised their horizontal bars among the trees. A man who could steal out there in the woods and see the Boche boys among the branches of the trees would witness a program of aerial feats worthy of the sawdust ring of a big circus.

Julius Boche, one of Herman sons, is unusually proficient. He can walk on a thin wire high above the ground without a tremor. He can slide down an inclined wire. It is said that he can duplicate many of the feats shown Norfolk people last fall in the big Barnum & Bailey show. It is also reported that the young man has been approached with offers from the circus world.

Junction News.

[From Saturday's Daily.] Miss Rebecca Duggan arrived home from her school near Pierce last evening to spend Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Axtel Johnson.

Morris Adams, who attends the convent at West Point, came up last evening to spend Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Adams.

Miss Bennett arrived home from her school near Tilden for a Saturday and Sunday visit with her parents.

The weekly Owl club dance was given last evening in the railroad hall, and all had a fine time.

Miss Glennie Shippee, who teaches school near Tilden, came home last evening.

John Lacey and George Scott came home from Lynch last evening, where they had been doing some work on the pumping station.

Miss Maud Whitla returned to her home in Battle Creek, after having transacted business in Norfolk.

Miss Martha Christian has resigned her position in the Owl restaurant.

Funeral of C. S. McCaslin.

Under Masonic auspices the body of the late C. S. McCaslin was laid to rest in Prospect Hill cemetery Friday afternoon. The funeral was held from the house during the afternoon, Dr. C. W. Ray conducting the services. The pallbearers were Victor Howarth, A. N. McGinnis, George W. Sears, Dr. R. C. Simmons, J. S. Morrow and J. Munsterman.

WILL MAIL A LETTER.

Executive Committee of the Y. M. C. A. Will Solicit by Mail.

The executive committee of the Y. M. C. A. building campaign is about to mail a letter to a considerable number of people whom they expect to contribute towards a Y. M. C. A. building in Norfolk.

The committee is also planning to have at least fifty Norfolk men take a personal hand in a canvass of the city, each man promising to put in something like three days in an effort to boost the subscription list.

State Secretary Bailey while in Norfolk last week said that good progress was being made in the building fund which is now over the $10,000 mark.

EDGEWATER BRIDGE.

New Structure Being Erected Over the Northfork.

The new steel bridge being erected across the Northfork at Edgewater is progressing nicely. One of the steel tubes has been placed in position and the others will be soon. The structural steel for the upper portion of the bridge is on the ground, and it will not take long to finish it. The new bridge is one hundred feet long with sixteen-foot driveway, and will be the equal of any bridge in the county. Commissioner Taft is giving his personal attention to placing the bridge in position.

A TEN-ROUND CONTEST

"FIGHTING DANE" GETS DECISION OVER "CURLY" COX.

SECOND TIME TWO HAVE MET

Winner is a Fighter Who Dropped Into Norfolk a Few Weeks Ago—As Soon as Decision is Announced Dane Challenges Jack O'Leary.

About seventy-five people at Railroad hall in South Norfolk Thursday night saw the "Fighting Dane" get a decision over "Curly" Cox at the end of a ten-round glove contest. It was the second time the two men have met and the match was said to have had a good deal more action than the former "go." After the Dane had received his decision from "Kid" Jensen, the referee, he challenged Jack O'Leary for a go in Norfolk.

The winner of the Thursday night contest is a fighter who dropped into Norfolk some weeks ago from Omaha. Cox is a Junction man. The last time they mixed Cox got the decision on points.

Norfolk people expect to see O'Leary and the Dane in the ring before O'Leary goes to Gregory county for another mill with Pat Stephens.

The preliminary Thursday night was a fast little five rounds between Edmund Welsh and Homer Killen. It was called a draw.

A Norfolk policeman chaperoned the contest Thursday evening.

Dick Walton, a Norfolk man who is handy with the gloves, has a contest on with a man at Wayne.

Recovery Seems Assured.

It was announced Saturday that Gay Halverstein's recovery from a very serious attack of blood poisoning seemed assured. Dr. Tashjian, the attending physician, was alarmed for several days but he now thinks that it is certain that Mr. Halverstein's hand as well as his life will be saved. The hand will be quite badly scarred. It will also be some time before the hand heals.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an execution directed to me from the clerk of the district court of Madison county, Nebraska, on a judgment obtained before the district court of Madison county, Nebraska, on the 25th day of November, 1907, in favor of Bertha Endres as plaintiff, and against Michael Endres as defendant, for the sum of six thousand ($6,000.00) dollars, and costs taxed at $94.95 and accruing costs, I have levied upon the following described real estate taken as the property of said defendant, to satisfy said judgment, costs and accruing costs to-wit: The north half (N½) of lot five (5), the south twenty-three (23) feet of lot six (6) and the south half (S½) of lot seven (7) in block one (1) of Koenigstein's Fourth addition to Norfolk, Nebraska, and lot five (5) in block seven (7) of Koenigstein's Third addition to Norfolk, Nebraska, and will offer the same for sale to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, on the 25th day of March, A.
