

CHURCH CONVENTION ENDS

HOME MISSIONARY CONVENTION OF NORFOLK DISTRICT.

MEETS IN BEEMER NEXT YEAR

Miss Snider, General Organizer, Was the Principal Speaker at Convention Here Saturday and Sunday—Officers Elected.

The closing session of the woman's home missionary convention of the Norfolk district was held last night at the Methodist church. In spite of the excessive heat there was a crowded church to listen to the address of Miss Nellie Snider, general organizer of the society. Miss Snider also spoke in the morning on the subject of "Home Missions."

The convention opened Saturday afternoon with an interesting discussion of mission work in reports and papers. Saturday evening Mrs. Ray welcomed the delegates to the convention in a short address. Mrs. C. S. Hughes of Pender responded. Miss Snider followed with a short address on home missionary work.

Sunday morning there was special music by Ross Tindall of Norfolk and Mrs. H. A. Moler and Mrs. Ida Blair of Wayne. Miss Snider told of the conditions of Mexico and Indian girls within our borders, among whom the woman's missionary society are doing a noble work. She showed that there were hundreds of girls needing help and that these girls were highly appreciative of the work being done. She related numerous incidents to show that they were bright and self sacrificing to an unusual degree. In the afternoon Miss Snider conducted "round table." Papers were given by Mrs. Mae House of Wayne and Miss Esther Wenworth of Randolph.

Preston Ogden gave a solo in the evening and Misses Edna Loucks and Ethel Doughty a duet. A paper, "Other Women Under Our Flag," was read by Miss Elizabeth Spencer of Beemer. She thought "We must either Americanize the foreigners or they would foreignize us." Miss Snider continued her address along the line which she had spoken in the morning. Her description of the slave trade in California was vivid, "showing that hundreds of Chinese girls were sold into slavery every year. It was unsafe for a Chinese girl to be on the streets in many California towns unless they were under the supervision of some one. The Chinese are smuggled into the country at Portland and the returns for this illicit trade were exceedingly profitable for those engaging in it. A Chinese girl sold for three thousand dollars. Attempt to rescue them was almost impossible, owing to the perfect system of underground passages which the traders had."

Officers Elected. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. E. S. Hughes, Pender; vice president, Mrs. Bert Brown, Wayne; recording secretary, Mrs. Briggs, Beemer; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Carl Linstrom, Norfolk; secretary of literature, Miss Elizabeth Spencer, Beemer; secretary of temperance, Miss Esther Wenworth, Randolph; systematic beneficence, Mrs. Ella Kramer, Lyons; secretary nite box, Mrs. Roseborough, Norfolk; treasurer, Mrs. Fensler, Pender. The convention will be held at Beemer next year.

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

Mrs. S. F. Dunn and daughter went to Pierce at noon. John Huntington of Lucerne, Minn., is visiting his nephew, E. M. Huntington, of this city. Mrs. E. A. Amerine is visiting in Missouri with her brother. She will be away about a month. Mr. and Mrs. Darius Mathewson are expected home next Wednesday from their eastern trip. Mrs. W. H. Clark left at noon for Creighton. She had received a message of the death of a nephew. Mrs. O. W. Witters and children of Omaha are visiting at the home of Mrs. Witters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boeck. Mrs. Ed Loucks and son Edward, went to Pilger this afternoon for a few days' visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. O. W. Rish has gone to Ute, Ia., where Mr. Rish is putting down a well. Miss Leota Rish has gone to Winneton to visit with her grandparents. Elmer Hardy leaves tonight for Butte, Mont., where he will spend the summer upon his uncle's ranch. He will return in the fall to take up his year's work at the university. Rev. J. L. Stine, pastor of the Christian church of Norfolk, is attending the national Sunday school convention at Louisville, Ky. He is one of the Nebraska delegates. Owing to a bad road on the Burlington, the Crofton ball team, which met Plainview Friday afternoon on stay in Norfolk over night, being unable to get through on the Burlington. Chas. Tindall is visiting in Norfolk with relatives and friends for a few days. Miss Amy Reynolds left today for a few days' visit with friends in Pierce.

HOME FROM CHICAGO.

M. D. Tyler Returns at Noon—Has Shaved His Moustache. M. D. Tyler returned at noon from Chicago, where he was an interested spectator at the republican national convention. Before the convention, Mr. Tyler visited at his old home in Indiana. He has shaved his moustache during his absence. DEMOCRATS PRAISE TICKET. Taft and Sherman Appeal to Opposing Party As Strong Men. Even the democrats are paying compliments to the republican national ticket. "It's as good a ticket to beat as any that could have been put up," said one democrat. "Both men are strong, clean and able."

WILL WIN LIBRARY SITE

COMMITTEE HAS RAISED NEARLY $500 OF $600 NEEDED.

WILL SECURE KOENIGSTEIN LOT

Ladies of Woman's Club Library Committee Meeting Success in Raising Site Fund—Y. M. C. A. Campaign Waits Arrival of Bailey.

Nearly $500 of the $600 needed by the library committee of the Woman's club to secure the proposed library site on Eighth street and Norfolk avenue has been secured. The success of the committee has met with so far is sufficient to make it certain that the necessary $600 will be forthcoming.

With the funds raised the ladies will purchase the east twenty-seven feet of the Koenigstein lot on Eighth and Norfolk avenue, which with the twenty-five feet donated by Mr. Koenigstein will give the committee a site 128 feet deep with a fifty-two foot frontage on Norfolk avenue. This site will be turned over to the city.

Once the site is in the hands of the new library board, to be appointed by Mayor Sturgeon, the question of whether or not Norfolk will immediately secure a Carnegie library building depends largely on whether or not the Norfolk avenue site is acceptable to Mr. Carnegie.

Y. M. C. A. Fund Stationary. Pending the return to this city of State Secretary Bailey of the Nebraska Y. M. C. A., the local building campaign is resting on its oars. A number of the more active workers are out of the city. An energetic renewal of the campaign is promised within a short time.

MONDAY MENTION.

Miss Elsie Kell is visiting in Lead, S. D. George B. Christoph is back from Omaha where he attended the state druggists' convention as well as a meeting of the state board of pharmacy. Miss Minnie Klug visited at home over Sunday, returning to Stanton this morning. Miss Emma Marquardt left for Omaha for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Edward Hoopman. Mr. and Mrs. Loucks and little son, Edward, returned home from a Sunday visit in Pierce with friends. Spencer Butterfield has returned home from the Ames, Ia., agricultural college, for summer vacation.

Miss Huffman of Lincoln was in Norfolk today while enroute home from a visit with friends at Randolph. H. C. Holt of Kearney, James Maxwell and J. L. Hall of Albion, Dale B. Tribby of Mount Pleasant and R. R. Mitchell of Creighton, were among those who attended the horse sale. Miss May Johnson and Miss Gladys Jenkins returned last evening from a fortnight's visit in Rockford, Ill. Miss Clara Rudat, who was also a member of the party, stopped in Omaha for a brief visit.

Misses Frances and Laura Brome of Butte, Mont., are visiting for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Bell. From here they go to Omaha to meet their brother, Harry Brome, who will accompany them to Wisconsin to spend the summer at the lakes. Elmer Hardy returned home last night from Columbus. Miss Floy Faucet has been in Wakefield on a visit. Mrs. H. Salmen will return Tuesday from a visit at Lander, Wyo. H. L. Tubbs of Beatrice was a Norfolk business visitor this morning. H. R. Ward went to Council Bluffs this morning on a short business trip. Miss Amy Reynolds will return this evening from a visit with friends at Pierce.

Mrs. Wm. Klug and nephew, Ralph Klug visited in Pierce Monday morning between trains. Miss Mellie Bridge has returned from the Nebraska university for the summer vacation. Claude and Glenn Ogden leave Wednesday for Omaha where they will spend the summer. John R. Hays left today for Omaha. He will attend the state postmaster's convention in Lincoln. Claude Arkwright returned home today from western Colorado where he has been on a business trip. Elmer Hyde and Boyd Blakman returned home today from Pierce where they spent Sunday with friends. Mrs. W. M. Rainbolt and son are in the city from Omaha, visiting at the home of her father, Rev. J. C. S. Wells. Miss Stewart of Geneva, who has been visiting with her sister Mrs. Edwin Booth, returned home this afternoon. Miss Elizabeth Spencer of Beemer, a delegate to the woman's home missionary convention, returned to her home this noon. Mrs. W. H. Bucholz and son, Arden, have arrived from Omaha for a visit at the home of Mrs. Bucholz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Rainbolt. John Walter, a farmer living near Beemer was in the city today enroute home. He reports the last few days have materially improved crop conditions in his section of the state and that wheat is coming along rapidly. Oats and hay both promise a heavy crop.

Among the out of town visitors in Norfolk were: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lawrence, Battle Creek; W. O. Guthmann, Battle Creek; Mrs. Goodell, Beemer; W. E. Hall, Osmond; Emma Durlap, Madison; Mrs. S. E. Coll, Lyons; Robert Hampton and G. S. Spurl, Osmond; Mrs. Ella Tranner, Lyons; Merton Caburn, Osmond; J. F. Power and Alex Meyer, Wayne; W. Leekling, Creighton; James Howarth, West Point; C. R. Schultz, Wayne; R. D. Rutherford, Wayne; D. O. Sinclair, Butte; Frank Phillips and Frank Hart, Hoskins; S. J. Barks, Humphrey; E. Zimmerman, M. Limpert and Art Dalton, Battle Creek; E. B. Newcomb, Dallas; R. B. McFador, Chadron; Dr. Norris Hitchcock, Tilden; Harry Ichmann, D. D. Dauphin, West Point; W. R. Locke, Stanton; C. W. Kirkland, Atkinson; I. J. Remlin, Lindsay; Wm. Dunn, Weeping Water; E. A. Leahy, J. W. James, Wayne. Mayor Sturgeon has purchased L. A. Rothe's touring car. The Camp Dewey telephone company at Creighton is stringing a No. 10 copper circuit from Spencer to Butte. The Dixie carnival company which is the attraction at Butte the week of the Fourth of July is at Lynch this week. J. S. McClary was one of the Norfolk men who attended the national republican convention in Chicago last week. Miss Lena Munsterman is away from the A. L. Killian store on a vacation, which she will spend in Lincoln and Dodge. Judge Norris, formerly of Ponca and Wayne, now of the Philippines, was one of the delegates from the orient in the Chicago convention. A. L. Lager, a Norfolk traveling man, made the high score among the amateur shots the second day of the Fairfax gun tournament. Mr. Lager scored 145 out of a possible 150. C. E. Burnham of Norfolk, past grand master of the Nebraska Masonic grand lodge, represented the grand lodge at the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Oakland lodge. The newly elected officers of the lodge were also installed by Mr. Burnham. By a vote of three to two John Latenser, the Omaha architect who drew the plans for the Norfolk high school building, was appointed Saturday afternoon by the Douglas county board as architect and superintendent of the new $1,000,000 court house to be built in Omaha. Miss Katherine Jenal, of Hartington, who narrowly missed being crushed under a moving train in Norfolk Saturday, was on her way to Pierce to visit a brother, Ed Jenal. Miss Jenal has visited in Norfolk, where she has been a guest of Miss Minnie Maas. Dr. A. Bear, who on several occasions has attended national conventions as a delegate and who saw Greeley, Tilden and Cleveland nominated, does not expect to attend the Denver convention. It was twenty years ago this month that Dr. Bear saw Cleveland nominated by the democracy in St. Louis. Lynch Journal: T. A. Taylor returned from his trip to Norfolk, where he settled his case against the railroad for damages. He received some $1,400, after all costs and attorney's fees were paid. While this will not keep him, still is far better than fighting the company. Mr. Taylor is a confirmed invalid from the effect of the injury sustained in an accident in the round house at Norfolk last summer. He sued the company for $20,000. The carnival didn't stop for Charles Henry Groesbeck, Jr., when the Parker shows packed up their tents and moved away. For this boy kept right on enjoying a carnival in his own front yard. Thirty foxy birthday gifts afforded him carnival features of amusement. Seldom has any boy received a more elaborate lot of birthday remembrances than Charles, upon the occasion of his seventh birthday. His little friends came in at 2 and spent the afternoon. There was a glorious birthday cake with the name and date upon it. Also there were seven candles on the cake. Ice cream and other delicacies were served. The tables were decorated with pink and white flowers, this color scheme being carried throughout the entire program in a clever way. Dainty printed invitations had been sent out in advance. Charles Henry Groesbeck, Jr., is a "chip off the old block" for sure. He has more vim and energy in his little plump frame than anybody else in town with the possible exception of his father. When Charles Henry, Jr., grows up he is going to be president of the Norfolk Driving association.

EPWORTH LEAGUE ENCAMPMENT

Closes at Oakdale—O'Neill Next Year. Officers Chosen. Oakdale, Neb., June 19.—Special to The News: The Neligh district Epworth League encampment closed here last night. The program was carried out in full. O'Neill gets the encampment next year. The following officers were elected: President, Rev. C. A. Troump, Neligh; first vice president, Miss Ethel Admire, Oakdale; second vice president, Miss Myrtle Akers, Plainview; third vice president, Miss Pauline Saare, New York; fourth vice president, Elsworth Strain, Creighton; corresponding secretary, Carrie Hall, Pierce; recording secretary, Ona Saunders, Elgin; treasurer, Ralph Kane, Battle Creek; junior superintendent, Mrs. R. P. Shackla, Oakdale; executive committee, Rev. S. A. High, Elgin, and Rev. E. J. T. Conley, Pierce.

Epworth League Convention.

Rev. Ray, pastor of the Methodist church, returned home Thursday evening from Pender where he has been attending the annual convention of the Norfolk district of the Epworth league. The convention was well attended about fifty delegates being present at the meetings. The convention lasted from the 16th to the 18th of June. There were five delegates present from Norfolk, Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Ray, Misses Ruby Macy, Villa Adams and Laura Heitzman.

As you grow older, there are fewer stories that make you laugh.

HE KEPT HIS WORD!

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—Statement by President Roosevelt, Nov. 8, 1904.

I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do.