

NORFOLK TRIMS STANTON

BRINGS TOP HEAVY VICTORY BACK FROM STANTON.

BOVEE IN THE BOX FOR NORFOLK

Norfolk's "American Kids" Won From Stanton 9 to 2, Losing a Shut Out Through Costly Errors—Bovee Fanned Ten.

Norfolk defeated Stanton Thursday afternoon on the Stanton grounds by a score of 9 to 2 before a small crowd of enthusiastic fans. The game as the score indicates was a most gruesome exhibition of "bonehead" plays, occasionally intermixed with work bordering on the sensational. Kirkland made a pretty catch of a line drive off first base. Bovee did excellent work in the box for Norfolk, ten of the Stanton batsmen cutting wide swaths in the ozone in attempting to locate the ball. Hartman, the Stanton writer, struck out five men and allowed thirteen hits while only three were secured off Bovee's delivery.

The game should have been a shut-out for the locals. Two costly errors led in two scores. Haak muffed a fly after a long run and Hoffman dropped the ball with a runner on third base. Both of the errors were excusable. The playing of South, a new recruit for Norfolk from Doane college, was excellent and he should prove a valuable addition to the club. South played third base and accepted his chances without a bobbie. Stanton played good ball but was outclassed.

The summary of the game follows: Norfolk A. B. R. H. E. Hoffman, c..... 6 1 1 1 1 Bovee, p..... 4 0 1 0 0 Kirkland, 1b..... 4 2 2 1 0 Shafer (capt), 2b..... 4 2 2 2 0 South, 3b..... 5 0 0 0 0 Haak, rf..... 5 2 3 1 0 Reynolds, cf..... 4 0 1 0 0 Glessman, 1st..... 2 1 2 1 0 Rusk, ss..... 5 1 1 0 0

Stanton A. B. R. H. E. Meyer, c..... 2 0 0 0 0 Hartman, p..... 3 0 0 1 0 J. Holkstein, 1b..... 4 0 1 1 0 Hopper, 2b..... 2 0 0 1 0 Saunders, 3b..... 4 1 1 0 0 Port, ss..... 4 0 1 0 0 Seidel, lf..... 4 0 1 0 0 W. Holkstein, cf..... 4 1 0 0 0 H. Holkstein, cf..... 4 0 0 0 0

Norfolk.....2 1 0 0 2 1 2 0 1-3 Stanton.....6 2 0 0 0 0 0 0-2 Batteries: Norfolk, Bovee and Hartman, Stanton, Hartman and Myers. Struck out by Bovee 10; by Hartman 5. Hits off Bovee 3; off Hartman 13. Double plays, Norfolk 2. Time of the game, 2 hours.

Plainview Beat The Girls.

Plainview, Neb., June 26.—Special to The News: Plainview defeated the "bloomer girls" yesterday in a well played game by a score of 5 to 1. Bloomer girls.....1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-1 Plainview.....0 2 0 2 0 0 0 1 x-5 Batteries, Plainview, Dunaway and Chapman; Bloomer Girls, Grover and Fleming. Time of game, 1:20. Umpire, Free.

FRIDAY FACTS.

M. D. Tyler is in Lincoln today. George D. Butterfield was in Omaha yesterday. Roy Lulkart went to Tilden, on a business trip. Robert Mohr of Pierce returned home Friday from Fremont. I. M. Macy attended the photographers' convention in Fremont yesterday. Mrs. F. I. Russell left Friday morning for Exeter to visit a few days with friends. Mr. Harlan of Lincoln, an examiner of the Union Loan Co., is here on business. Mrs. Charles Dudley, who resides on South Fifth street, is reported to be seriously ill. D. B. Duffy returned from points in western part of Iowa yesterday. He reports crops to be in poor condition on Missouri river bottoms and on highlands in fair shape. Mrs. S. W. Garvin has returned from Council Bluffs after a short visit with relatives. Miss Elsie Thielman of Merrill, Wis., is visiting at the home of her uncle, Henry Haase. W. C. Ahlmann is in Tilden assisting the Madison band which is furnishing the music for the old soldiers' reunion. Miss Margaret Dollaway, who had charge of the chocolate department in the Faucett-Carney Candy company, has returned to her home in Sioux City. Among the out of town visitors in Norfolk yesterday were: F. W. Woods, Spencer; W. R. Locke, Frank Pitzer, Stanton; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chase, Pilger; A. K. Meyer, Burwell; Mrs. Jennie E. Hauser, Genoa; J. A. Connell, Fullerton; Mrs. J. A. Baker and children, Genoa; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lightner, Monroe; Arthur M. Sweeney, Ainsworth; J. H. Piper, Leigh; Alpha Peterson, West Point; J. M. Hill, Desher; Fred Morton, Leigh; Lorenz Jingson, Spencer; Carl Kruges, Atkinson; W. S. Clayton, Long Pine; J. J. Thompson, Pender; I. Ostrom, Gothenberg. Mrs. G. A. Gass is ill at her home on South Second street. Holley B. Dixon has bought two lots in Hayes addition from T. E. Odiorne. The foundation of C. E. Doughty's new house in The Heights is being laid. Miss Lillian Langenburg has accepted the position of stenographer in the E. A. Bullock office.

The city is putting in a new cement culvert across Third street at the intersection of Pasewalk avenue.

The city council meets tonight to make the annual estimate of city funds needed during the coming year.

J. V. Bond, who was poisoned by poison ivy while working on the sewer ditch, is recovering rapidly.

Will Lehman, a boy about twelve years of age, while attempting to unhook a fish, ran a fish prong into his thumb.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hight, who have returned from their homestead near Interior, S. D., have rented the Estabrook residence.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Davenport and family expect to enjoy a camping expedition at the John Ray farm west of the city, beginning next week.

G. T. Sprecher, home from Omaha, says that corn between here and Omaha is in excellent condition, but that there is still much evidence of the recent rains.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burtz and the Misses Saunders and Walters of this city made a trip to Kent's Siding Wednesday evening and returned late with thirty good sized black fish.

Elkhorn encampment, No. 27, I. O. O. F., elected officers last evening as follows: M. R. Green, C. P.; John Kuehl, S. W.; A. P. Stear, J. W.; E. R. Hayes, H. P.

E. S. South of the firm of Coleman & South has purchased the residence which he has been occupying on Nebraska avenue and Twelfth street. The property was owned by W. J. Gow.

John Uttecht's daughter, who was severely injured by falling from a hay-mow, is getting along nicely. In falling she struck a nail and it was necessary to take six stitches to sew up the gash thus inflicted.

Excavating on the cellar of the new residence which J. L. Weaver will build on South Ninth street was commenced today. C. E. Doughty will erect a dwelling on the lot just south of the Weaver residence.

Reese Solomon, instructor of music in the Norfolk schools, will leave in about a week for Chicago, where he will take special work in the Northwestern University conservatory. On his return Mr. Solomon will devote the greater part of what remains of the summer to institute work.

D. Mathewson notified the mayor yesterday that he could not accept his appointment to the library board. Mr. Mathewson said that business called him from the city more or less frequently and this fact added to what work of a semi-public nature he was already trying to do, made it inexpedient for him to attempt to serve on the library board just now.

J. F. Flynn is a Norfolk democrat who is thinking of attending the democratic convention in Denver. Mr. Flynn is still chairman of the democratic county central committee and as he does not intend to locate on his Rosebud farm until next spring he may have something to do with Madison county politics this fall. A new central committee will be selected next September.

Fishing along the Northfork and Elkhorn is said to be excellent since the high water and a great number are taking advantage of it. Last evening several good catches were seen on Norfolk avenue. One party landed twelve catfish, ranging from twenty inches to a foot in length. After the water has become clear old sportsmen claim that the fish will bite better than any other time in the year.

The great American fleet in the west rode into San Francisco harbor last night at the motion picture show at the Auditorium. In Norfolk as elsewhere where they have been shown the fleet pictures proved immensely popular, scoring a "hit" with last night's spectators which promises to fill the Auditorium tonight. The big fleet is shown entering San Francisco bay and is then brought into close range. The sailors' parade follows. Then comes the flower parade and the beautiful floral battle. Other pictures are also shown but are rather eclipsed by the fleet views. The present program runs for the rest of the week.

The last few days have seen a noticeable change in the passenger traffic on the railroads. With the coming of hot weather, large numbers are going to the many summer resorts to leave heat and business behind for a few weeks of coolness and enjoyment. Last week especially has the ticket sale to summer resorts been heavy. Another noticeable thing at the depots now is the large amount of baggage which is being transferred to the different parts of the country. Traveling men are shipping their sample trunks back to the house to get new supplies or to take a few days' vacation. This together with the cream and fruit shipments which are always heavy this time of year, makes a lot of extra work around the depots.

Small fruit in all sections of the state has turned out disappointing, as was expected after the May frost. Strawberries were only about half a crop. But there was another reason besides the frost for the poor crop of strawberries. Four weeks of wet weather right in the midst of the season cut down the crop by half, many of the berries rotting on the vines and others falling to ripen for lack of sunshine. Cherries are much better and a fair crop is being gathered. The fruit, however, is often sour and small due to lack of sunshine. Blackberries and raspberries were nipped by the frost but a fair crop will be gathered. Larger fruit is good in the southeastern part of the state, where the apple and peach crop will be quite heavy in spite of the frost. The further north and west that you go, the poorer the crop since the frost in many instances was heavy enough to destroy the foliage.

ARTHUR CORBY KNOCKED FROM HAY STACK DIES OF INJURY.

LIVED TO BID WIFE GOOD-BYE

Young Antelope County Farmer, After Times Had Penetrated His Breast, Lived to Reach Home Mile Away. Parents Were Going to Tilden.

Neigh, Neb., June 26.—Special to The News: Knocked from a hay stack by the sweep of the stacker, Arthur Corby, living three miles north of Neigh, fell on a pitchfork, the tines penetrating his breast so deeply that the young man died before a doctor could arrive.

The accident occurred near the noon hour yesterday. Corby, who was stacking hay, was on top of the stack. He was struck by the sweep of the stacker and in falling from the stack struck on the fork which he had in his possession. The tines penetrated his breastbone.

The injured man went at once to his home, nearly a mile away. Dying, said "Good-bye" to his wife. When he reached the house he spoke to his wife, saying, "Good-bye, darling. I am dying," and almost immediately expired. Internal hemorrhage was the cause of death.

Parents Were Going to Tilden. The young man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Corby, were about to start for Tilden to attend the old soldiers' reunion when a telephone message caught them at the depot in this city.

Arthur Corby was a young married man highly esteemed in this community where he has lived since childhood.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon in St. Peter's Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member. The Woodmen, Knights of Pythias, Royal Highlanders and Masonic orders, to which he belonged, will be in attendance.

Following the accident Dr. Beattie was immediately called but the patient died before the doctor could arrive.

A GREGORY CARNIVAL.

Rosebud Town Plans Carnival For Second Week in July.

Gregory, S. D., June 26.—Special to The News: Gregory is planning one of the biggest carnivals ever held in this part of the state for July 7-11, when the Dixie Carnival company, assisted by other attractions, will hold high carnival in Gregory under the auspices of the Gregory Cornet band.

The carnival will have seven shows, a ferris wheel fifty feet high, a merry-go-round, 100 foot high dive into three feet of water, and many other attractions, all to be brilliantly lighted at night by electricity.

During these five days it is confidently expected that one of the biggest and merriest crowds ever gathered together in this part of South Dakota will be on hand here to help make fun along with everyone else. The Gregory Cornet band is one of the best musical aggregations in this part of the country and they have set out to make this carnival the best ever held on the Rosebud.

THE ROSEBUD HAS MANY LIDS

Norfolk Man Says It Is Losing Delights of The Frontier.

"The Rosebud isn't what it used to be," wailed a Norfolk man who returned this morning from a Gregory county trip. "There is something refreshing about a new town, the rough edges and all that. But these Gregory county towns are forgetful of their duty as frontier towns. Instead of keeping the South Dakota frontier in easy riding distance for sightseers they are putting it under cover, stamping lids all over everything and all that."

"Its got so that the only way you can tell these new Gregory towns from old places is that there is more energy loose per capita, that there is more business being transacted to the square foot and a few uninteresting items like that."

"The day before I got to Gregory the card tables, chairs and gambling devices were all cleaned out of the saloons. Gregory is very much on the 'liddy lid' order. The whole county had the attorney general of the state over last week to see how good they could be."

"The Tripp rush won't be like the good old Bonesteel rush. There'll be thousands and thousands of people, but it will be a settled community instead of a wild country in the making. There is a big movement towards the Rosebud right now. You can see it in the crowds on the Bonesteel line trains."

A. H. WINDER RETIRES

Sells Interest in Norfolk Shoe Company to B. T. Reid.

A. H. Winder, who started the Norfolk Shoe company nine years ago, has disposed of his interest in the firm to his partner, Ben T. Reid. The transfer of interests took place today. Mr. Reid will become president of the company and V. A. Neno vice president.

Mr. Reid sometime within the next few months will retire from the road, where he has been representing the Foote-Shulze Shoe company of St. Paul, and give his time entirely to the store. The jobbing business, which the Norfolk company was about to enter, will be dropped. Mr. Winder intends to invest in a manufacturing business in Denver.

The business of the Norfolk Shoe company was started nine years ago

FELL ON PITCHFORK, DIES

ARTHUR CORBY KNOCKED FROM HAY STACK DIES OF INJURY.

LIVED TO BID WIFE GOOD-BYE

Young Antelope County Farmer, After Times Had Penetrated His Breast, Lived to Reach Home Mile Away. Parents Were Going to Tilden.

Neigh, Neb., June 26.—Special to The News: Knocked from a hay stack by the sweep of the stacker, Arthur Corby, living three miles north of Neigh, fell on a pitchfork, the tines penetrating his breast so deeply that the young man died before a doctor could arrive.

The accident occurred near the noon hour yesterday. Corby, who was stacking hay, was on top of the stack. He was struck by the sweep of the stacker and in falling from the stack struck on the fork which he had in his possession. The tines penetrated his breastbone.

The injured man went at once to his home, nearly a mile away. Dying, said "Good-bye" to his wife. When he reached the house he spoke to his wife, saying, "Good-bye, darling. I am dying," and almost immediately expired. Internal hemorrhage was the cause of death.

Parents Were Going to Tilden. The young man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Corby, were about to start for Tilden to attend the old soldiers' reunion when a telephone message caught them at the depot in this city.

Arthur Corby was a young married man highly esteemed in this community where he has lived since childhood.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon in St. Peter's Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member. The Woodmen, Knights of Pythias, Royal Highlanders and Masonic orders, to which he belonged, will be in attendance.

Following the accident Dr. Beattie was immediately called but the patient died before the doctor could arrive.

A GREGORY CARNIVAL.

Rosebud Town Plans Carnival For Second Week in July.

Gregory, S. D., June 26.—Special to The News: Gregory is planning one of the biggest carnivals ever held in this part of the state for July 7-11, when the Dixie Carnival company, assisted by other attractions, will hold high carnival in Gregory under the auspices of the Gregory Cornet band.

The carnival will have seven shows, a ferris wheel fifty feet high, a merry-go-round, 100 foot high dive into three feet of water, and many other attractions, all to be brilliantly lighted at night by electricity.

During these five days it is confidently expected that one of the biggest and merriest crowds ever gathered together in this part of South Dakota will be on hand here to help make fun along with everyone else. The Gregory Cornet band is one of the best musical aggregations in this part of the country and they have set out to make this carnival the best ever held on the Rosebud.

THE ROSEBUD HAS MANY LIDS

Norfolk Man Says It Is Losing Delights of The Frontier.

"The Rosebud isn't what it used to be," wailed a Norfolk man who returned this morning from a Gregory county trip. "There is something refreshing about a new town, the rough edges and all that. But these Gregory county towns are forgetful of their duty as frontier towns. Instead of keeping the South Dakota frontier in easy riding distance for sightseers they are putting it under cover, stamping lids all over everything and all that."

"Its got so that the only way you can tell these new Gregory towns from old places is that there is more energy loose per capita, that there is more business being transacted to the square foot and a few uninteresting items like that."

"The day before I got to Gregory the card tables, chairs and gambling devices were all cleaned out of the saloons. Gregory is very much on the 'liddy lid' order. The whole county had the attorney general of the state over last week to see how good they could be."

"The Tripp rush won't be like the good old Bonesteel rush. There'll be thousands and thousands of people, but it will be a settled community instead of a wild country in the making. There is a big movement towards the Rosebud right now. You can see it in the crowds on the Bonesteel line trains."

A. H. WINDER RETIRES

Sells Interest in Norfolk Shoe Company to B. T. Reid.

A. H. Winder, who started the Norfolk Shoe company nine years ago, has disposed of his interest in the firm to his partner, Ben T. Reid. The transfer of interests took place today. Mr. Reid will become president of the company and V. A. Neno vice president.

Mr. Reid sometime within the next few months will retire from the road, where he has been representing the Foote-Shulze Shoe company of St. Paul, and give his time entirely to the store. The jobbing business, which the Norfolk company was about to enter, will be dropped. Mr. Winder intends to invest in a manufacturing business in Denver.

The business of the Norfolk Shoe company was started nine years ago

FELL ON PITCHFORK, DIES

ARTHUR CORBY KNOCKED FROM HAY STACK DIES OF INJURY.

LIVED TO BID WIFE GOOD-BYE

Young Antelope County Farmer, After Times Had Penetrated His Breast, Lived to Reach Home Mile Away. Parents Were Going to Tilden.

Neigh, Neb., June 26.—Special to The News: Knocked from a hay stack by the sweep of the stacker, Arthur Corby, living three miles north of Neigh, fell on a pitchfork, the tines penetrating his breast so deeply that the young man died before a doctor could arrive.

The accident occurred near the noon hour yesterday. Corby, who was stacking hay, was on top of the stack. He was struck by the sweep of the stacker and in falling from the stack struck on the fork which he had in his possession. The tines penetrated his breastbone.

The injured man went at once to his home, nearly a mile away. Dying, said "Good-bye" to his wife. When he reached the house he spoke to his wife, saying, "Good-bye, darling. I am dying," and almost immediately expired. Internal hemorrhage was the cause of death.

Parents Were Going to Tilden. The young man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Corby, were about to start for Tilden to attend the old soldiers' reunion when a telephone message caught them at the depot in this city.

Arthur Corby was a young married man highly esteemed in this community where he has lived since childhood.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon in St. Peter's Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member. The Woodmen, Knights of Pythias, Royal Highlanders and Masonic orders, to which he belonged, will be in attendance.

Following the accident Dr. Beattie was immediately called but the patient died before the doctor could arrive.

A GREGORY CARNIVAL.

Rosebud Town Plans Carnival For Second Week in July.

Gregory, S. D., June 26.—Special to The News: Gregory is planning one of the biggest carnivals ever held in this part of the state for July 7-11, when the Dixie Carnival company, assisted by other attractions, will hold high carnival in Gregory under the auspices of the Gregory Cornet band.

The carnival will have seven shows, a ferris wheel fifty feet high, a merry-go-round, 100 foot high dive into three feet of water, and many other attractions, all to be brilliantly lighted at night by electricity.

During these five days it is confidently expected that one of the biggest and merriest crowds ever gathered together in this part of South Dakota will be on hand here to help make fun along with everyone else. The Gregory Cornet band is one of the best musical aggregations in this part of the country and they have set out to make this carnival the best ever held on the Rosebud.

THE ROSEBUD HAS MANY LIDS

Norfolk Man Says It Is Losing Delights of The Frontier.

"The Rosebud isn't what it used to be," wailed a Norfolk man who returned this morning from a Gregory county trip. "There is something refreshing about a new town, the rough edges and all that. But these Gregory county towns are forgetful of their duty as frontier towns. Instead of keeping the South Dakota frontier in easy riding distance for sightseers they are putting it under cover, stamping lids all over everything and all that."

"Its got so that the only way you can tell these new Gregory towns from old places is that there is more energy loose per capita, that there is more business being transacted to the square foot and a few uninteresting items like that."

"The day before I got to Gregory the card tables, chairs and gambling devices were all cleaned out of the saloons. Gregory is very much on the 'liddy lid' order. The whole county had the attorney general of the state over last week to see how good they could be."

"The Tripp rush won't be like the good old Bonesteel rush. There'll be thousands and thousands of people, but it will be a settled community instead of a wild country in the making. There is a big movement towards the Rosebud right now. You can see it in the crowds on the Bonesteel line trains."

A. H. WINDER RETIRES

Sells Interest in Norfolk Shoe Company to B. T. Reid.

A. H. Winder, who started the Norfolk Shoe company nine years ago, has disposed of his interest in the firm to his partner, Ben T. Reid. The transfer of interests took place today. Mr. Reid will become president of the company and V. A. Neno vice president.

Mr. Reid sometime within the next few months will retire from the road, where he has been representing the Foote-Shulze Shoe company of St. Paul, and give his time entirely to the store. The jobbing business, which the Norfolk company was about to enter, will be dropped. Mr. Winder intends to invest in a manufacturing business in Denver.

The business of the Norfolk Shoe company was started nine years ago

FELL ON PITCHFORK, DIES

ARTHUR CORBY KNOCKED FROM HAY STACK DIES OF INJURY.

LIVED TO BID WIFE GOOD-BYE

Young Antelope County Farmer, After Times Had Penetrated His Breast, Lived to Reach Home Mile Away. Parents Were Going to Tilden.

Neigh, Neb., June 26.—Special to The News: Knocked from a hay stack by the sweep of the stacker, Arthur Corby, living three miles north of Neigh, fell on a pitchfork, the tines penetrating his breast so deeply that the young man died before a doctor could arrive.

The accident occurred near the noon hour yesterday. Corby, who was stacking hay, was on top of the stack. He was struck by the sweep of the stacker and in falling from the stack struck on the fork which he had in his possession. The tines penetrated his breastbone.

The injured man went at once to his home, nearly a mile away. Dying, said "Good-bye" to his wife. When he reached the house he spoke to his wife, saying, "Good-bye, darling. I am dying," and almost immediately expired. Internal hemorrhage was the cause of death.

Parents Were Going to Tilden. The young man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Corby, were about to start for Tilden to attend the old soldiers' reunion when a telephone message caught them at the depot in this city.

Arthur Corby was a young married man highly esteemed in this community where he has lived since childhood.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon in St. Peter's Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member. The Woodmen, Knights of Pythias, Royal Highlanders and Masonic orders, to which he belonged, will be in attendance.

Following the accident Dr. Beattie was immediately called but the patient died before the doctor could arrive.

A GREGORY CARNIVAL.

Rosebud Town Plans Carnival For Second Week in July.

Gregory, S. D., June 26.—Special to The News: Gregory is planning one of the biggest carnivals ever held in this part of the state for July 7-11, when the Dixie Carnival company, assisted by other attractions, will hold high carnival in Gregory under the auspices of the Gregory Cornet band.

The carnival will have seven shows, a ferris wheel fifty feet high, a merry-go-round, 100 foot high dive into three feet of water, and many other attractions, all to be brilliantly lighted at night by electricity.

During these five days it is confidently expected that one of the biggest and merriest crowds ever gathered together in this part of South Dakota will be on hand here to help make fun along with everyone else. The Gregory Cornet band is one of the best musical aggregations in this part of the country and they have set out to make this carnival the best ever held on the Rosebud.

THE ROSEBUD HAS MANY LIDS

Norfolk Man Says It Is Losing Delights of The Frontier.

"The Rosebud isn't what it used to be," wailed a Norfolk man who returned this morning from a Gregory county trip. "There is something refreshing about a new town, the rough edges and all that. But these Gregory county towns are forgetful of their duty as frontier towns. Instead of keeping the South Dakota frontier in easy riding distance for sightseers they are putting it under cover, stamping lids all over everything and all that."

"Its got so that the only way you can tell these new Gregory towns from old places is that there is more energy loose per capita, that there is more business being transacted to the square foot and a few uninteresting items like that."

"The day before I got to Gregory the card tables, chairs and gambling devices were all cleaned out of the saloons. Gregory is very much on the 'liddy lid' order. The whole county had the attorney general of the state over last week to see how good they could be."

"The Tripp rush won't be like the good old Bonesteel rush. There'll be thousands and thousands of people, but it will be a settled community instead of a wild country in the making. There is a big movement towards the Rosebud right now. You can see it in the crowds on the Bonesteel line trains."

A. H. WINDER RETIRES

Sells Interest in Norfolk Shoe Company to B. T. Reid.

A. H. Winder, who started the Norfolk Shoe company nine years ago, has disposed of his interest in the firm to his partner, Ben T. Reid. The transfer of interests took place today. Mr. Reid will become president of the company and V. A. Neno vice president.

Mr. Reid sometime within the next few months will retire from the road, where he has been representing the Foote-Shulze Shoe company of St. Paul, and give his time entirely to the store. The jobbing business, which the Norfolk company was about to enter, will be dropped. Mr. Winder intends to invest in a manufacturing business in Denver.

The business of the Norfolk Shoe company was started nine years ago

FELL ON PITCHFORK, DIES

ARTHUR CORBY KNOCKED FROM HAY STACK DIES OF INJURY.

LIVED TO BID WIFE GOOD-BYE

Young Antelope County Farmer, After Times Had Penetrated His Breast, Lived to Reach Home Mile Away. Parents Were Going to Tilden.

Neigh, Neb., June 26.—Special to The News: Knocked from a hay stack by the sweep of the stacker, Arthur Corby, living three miles north of Neigh, fell on a pitchfork, the tines penetrating his breast so deeply that the young man died before a doctor could arrive.

The accident occurred near the noon hour yesterday. Corby, who was stacking hay, was on top of the stack. He was struck by the sweep of the stacker and in falling from the stack struck on the fork which he had in his possession. The tines penetrated his breastbone.

The injured man went at once to his home, nearly a mile away. Dying, said "Good-bye" to his wife. When he reached the house he spoke to his wife, saying, "Good-bye, darling. I am dying," and almost immediately expired. Internal hemorrhage was the cause of death.

Parents Were Going to Tilden. The young man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Corby, were about to start for Tilden to attend the old soldiers' reunion when a telephone message caught them at the depot in this city.

Arthur Corby was a young married man highly esteemed in this community where he has lived since childhood.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon in St. Peter's Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member. The Woodmen, Knights of Pythias, Royal Highlanders and Masonic orders, to which he belonged, will be in attendance.

Following the accident Dr. Beattie was immediately called but the patient died before the doctor could arrive.

A GREGORY CARNIVAL.

Rosebud Town Plans Carnival For Second Week in July.

Gregory, S. D.,