THE NORFOLK WEEKLY	NEWS-JOURNAL	FRIDAY,	JULY 17 1908
--------------------	--------------	---------	--------------

ment even when we are obliged to do that the publication contained a full them the Boston Herald says that Mr. | bed. Genius is the art of taking-to city. The entire northwest might do tions to all of the people and to all The Norfolk Weekly News-Jouran t to get a bread and butter reward, report of the proceedings of parlia. Taft is one of the most admirable bed." The News, Established, 1881. The Journal, Established, 1871 but it becomes a fine recreation only ment. If an American newspaper characters in public life. The Spring were to attempt a report of the pro-field Republican which is ultra-indefor those who don't have to THE HUSE PUBLISHING COMPANY ceedings of congress a print paper N. A. HUSE W. N. Huse President Evidently John Sharp Williams is famine would be the result. rotary Every Friday. By mail per year, $1.50. as dissatisfied with his work as minor-Entered at the postoffice at Norfolk. Neb. as second class matter. There is more thinking and less o ity leader as other people are. Any the howlfest in the land at the present way, he has relinquished the job ahead Telephones. Editorial Department o. 22. Business Office and Jab Rooma time over political nominations than of time No. H 11. was the case some years ago, when Something more restrictive in the red fire, bands of music, marching Now is the time to pave. clubs, noise, etc., were most promiline of legislation is being demanded to prevent the frequent runs on the nent. Now the people are just as The stampedes didn't work this banks of rivers and creeks throughout earnest, think more and give the quesyear. tion of president deeper consideration. the inundated districts. Mr. Bryan need have no fear about Is it any wonder that other people Mr. Bryan promises not to be a candidate for re-election, but he makes have a queer idea of Americans? Durthat second term. no promises not to be a candidate for ing the Chicago convention the corres renomination. It cannot be expected spondent of a Paris newspaper tele-Wheat binders are much more popgraphed that Chicago was "A perfect ular in the west than spell binders. that the habit of a lifetime can be hell, scourged with terrible heat, full broken off so suddenly. of uproar, and with street corners oc-The choice of John W. Kern for President Roosevelt announces that cupied by professional sword swalvice president emphasizes that Mr. he will not take the stump for Taft, lowers, eaters of fire, Indian war danc Bryan is it. and Bryan is to conduct a campaign ers and howling dervishes." What Mr. Kern's nomination for the vice from the porch of his Lincoln home. had the fellow been drinking? presidency brings Kokomo, Ind., into What a very quiet affair this campaign promises to be. Mr. Taft has recently expressed himthe lime light. self in a newspaper article on the John D. Rockefeller is writing his If one makes a two dollar mistake requisites of a president, that he needs today, do not spend five dollars worth above everything else a capacity for autobiography. Will he tell what he knows about rebates? of time and energy in bemoaning it had work. The best of it is that the tomorrow. There is no worse waste people thoroughly understand that Taft and Sherman together weigh of strength than wasting fresh hours they have found a man who has alfive hundred pounds. They are neithin vain regrets for past mistakes. ready demonstrated an unusual genius er of them lightweights. The oldest presiding judge in the for steady work. Idle cars are going into commission the United States is Charles Field of Elinor Glinn says that within 500 try is now used for transportation, the at the rate of 3,000 a day. The Taft Athol, Massachusetts. He recently years England will be a republic and possibilities of greatly increasing the band wagon has started. celebrated his ninety-third birthday by holding a session of the district court. Elinor gives no guarantee of this are very apparent. No one seems to be worrying about statement. Meantime, the American what would happen if Debs or Tom With Mr. Roosevelt's plunge into republic is growing more and more Watson should be elected. the forest Teddy hears are likely to democratic in its attitude for the welbe given a rest and in their place the "Smiling Bill" and "Sunny Jim" fare of the many and the campaign country will be flooded with fuzzy Tedmake a good combination. The Amerorator continues to lift his voice with dy lions and leather hided hippopotaican people will tie to them. Elinor's exclaiming: "Whither are mus: we drifting and if so, why?" Pope Pius is a firm believer in news-

The world's peace is greatly en-Everybody admits that it is Stanhanced by the custom of visiting which ton county's turn to furnish the repubis gaining such popularity among European sovereigns. And the statesmen lican candidate for representative of all nations are thinking and talking from the Eleventh senatorial district. Stanton county has presented the

There is a hard battle ahead. Now renew his faith and to pledge again has, what's more, the solid support his devotion to the party of progres- of his own county and the genuine sive and successful achievement in our national history.

The exigencies of politics are cer- Eleventh senatorial district are looktainly very amusing and the demo- ing for, cratic party only demonstrated in what hard straits it is situated if it follows Col. Watterson's advice "to publican nominations, Next in importgo after the colored vote."

general pattern although larger and ples commands the respect of the vicinity of Madison, and if Mr. Davis cars brought more than the market tors who will come this way. quieter shades is being made for Mr.

pendent with democratic leanings.

idea of the relation the president ays that "Mr. Taft is the kind of should have toward the people, said American fit for the nation's highest recently among the other good things. honor." The New York World frankly "He should always be near the people says that it would be far better for in thought, and as near them in perthe country if he were elected rather son as his position will permit. In than Bryan. The Charleston News common with the people, he is human and Courier is recognized as the ablest and must ask their charity for his misdemocratic newspaper in the south takes. When they have ceased to be and "congratulates the country that lieve in his sincerity and uprightness the republicans have nominated such of purpose, his is a cheerless task, man as William H. Taft." They must feel that the president has divined and is carrying out their wish-

The question of waterways and good es if the best results are to be real roads are to be of vital and para- ized from his administration." mount importance in the years that

"Twenty-five years ago," says the About 100,000 people passed through are just ahead. As Secretary of State Elihu B. Root says in regard to Brooklyn Standard Union, "there Norfolk twice during the Gregory waterways: "We have come to a were 2,000 miles of railroad in Cancounty rush. It was estimated at the point where the railroads of the coun-jada. Today there are 23,000, with time that the strangers left about $30. try are unable to perform that func- three trans-continental lines. The 000 in Norfolk. More than 2,000 of tion which is necessary to continued total trade of this part of the British that throng found new homes in the progress in the increase of our na- empire has grown from $34,000,000 in Rosebud and now live in that fertile tional wealth. Conditions are such 1851 to $550,000,000 at present, and region. Those 2,600 homesteaders are

Secretary Taft, in expressing his

as much

travel.

impression in. too.

ister some four years ago.

More than 90,000 of those home there is no human possibility that the great impulse has come in very all now in Norfolk territory. They railroads can keep pace with the recent years. Manitoba raised 47,000, are the residents of a new strip that necessities of our national production 000 bushels of wheat in 1903, but last was added to Norfolk's tributary terrifor the transportation of our pro-year the crop amounted to $7,500,000 tory. Naturally Norfolk is now measducts, and the one avenue that is bushels. While the population of used by those homebuilders according open for us to keep up our progress Canada is but one-seventh that of the to their first impressions of the city, is the avenue of water transportation." United States that country can rightly gained upon their first trip through state of Nebraska. When it is realized that only one half claim to be the fairest flower with the here on their way to Bonesteel to reg-of the $0,000 miles of rivers, canals, most glowing prospects of any of Englakes, and coast channels of the coun- land's dependencies."

seekers who passed through Norfoll For public oratory which is sure to twice at that time, returned to their the United States a monarchy, but opportunities of water transportation attract large and popular attentions homes in the north and east and south it is well for a congressman or a can and west and settled down again, with didate for any official honors to have out drawing farms. And in telling In announcing the candidacy of a well proportioned mixture of "the their friends back home about their James Nichols of Madison for county froth of fun and the weight of logic. trips, they naturally have mentioned attorney, the Chronicle seems to for-But it should be borne in mind that Norfolk-the only gateway to the get that the office of county attorney the statesman whose work abides pays Rosebud-and their impressions of it. is one position that has always been little attention to the froth but a great Norfolk can well afford to take accorded to Norfolk, and there is no deal to the logic of the situation. Those pains that the impressions to be apparent reason now why it should who work in the "lighter vein" have gained of the town by homeseekers be transferred to Madison, which fur, their place in amusing the populace in the forthcoming rush shall be good nishes the great majority of office and making their burdens seem light mes. Appearances count. Norfolk holders in the court house. Jack er. But this is a serious world after can't afford to have those travelers Koenigstein has served Madison coun- all, and it is the men with iron in their gain anything but good impressions ty as attorney in a manner which blood who strenuously face its prob of this promising city with a future. has been highly satisfactory to the tax lems to whom it gives the highest The forthcoming rush only emphapayers and he has many friends who honors. izes Norfolk's immediate need of a believe he should be re-elected this fall. good looking paved street. A Car-Does advertising pay? Here are a Mr. Koenigstein has not asked for a negie library would be a valuable few interesting facts which show renomination, but his friends hold the jewel in the setting. A creditable Y. clearly what it has done. The Union opinion that he has made a record M. C. A. building at least begun would ently R. Y. Appleby of Stanton is that entitles him to that consideration Pacific railway working in conjunction indicate enterprise and prosperity. with the California Fruit Growers' as about the man the republicans of the at the hands of Madison county voters. And in any event Norfolk will sociation determined upon a publicity Perhaps the Commercial club could find ways and means of utilizing the claim the privilege of furnishing the campaign to get people to buy oranges. throng for Norfolk's advantage. Fre-The fruit growers wanted a larger republican candidate for the place. mont some time ago began issuing a market and the railroad wanted a "Blue Book" showing off the city's The Madison Chronicle announces long haul to the market so together institutions and advantages in a strikthe name of Ben Davis, a farmer livthey bought newspaper space to tell ing way. Perhaps it would be worth mulgation of the platform upon which ing three miles from that town, as a lowans of California oranges. The candidate for county commissioner first shipment of oranges comprised while for Norfolk's institutions and appropriate Roosevelt's clothes will tation for keeping its promises and for from the First district. The nomina- a full train and the fruit found a ready advantages to be presented to each the exception of five years on the Ohio prove a failure. A suit of the same this reason its declaration of princi- tion must necessarily come from the market. A second train of twenty-five one of these many thousands of visiof the interests of the state when they keep themselves from free obligations

Norfolk will be the only gateway to any special interest and not only to the reservation lands. It will be can I say that, though as a private impossible for the tens of thousands. citizen I had used free transportation yet declined the same when my par of homeseekers to reach the reserva y had declared against it and before tion border without passing through it had been made illegal, but I also de Norfolk. Norfolk will pass in review clare that so long as I am in office I before tens of thousands of new eyes, will not, by this or any other means They will be eyes worth making an allow myself to be put under obligations to any railroad or to any other corporation, or to any individual. Homeseekers will com, men of busideeply appreciate the responsibility that will rest upon me, (should my less, newspaper and magazine writcandidacy be successful) and will use ers. But mostly they will be homemy utmost endeavor to perform these seekers, very much in earnest about duties in a consistent and business selecting a new place to live in-very like manner. I take the liberty to eagerly interested in every town that refer to my record of seven years as greets their vision along the path of grand recorder of one of the largest fraternal insurance organizations in this state as to my capacity for the duties that will devolve upon me Millions of dollars flow into the treasury of the various banks and in surance societies each year. They are placed in trust in these institutions by the people, and usually by men of average means. Mismanage ment of these affairs, or dishonesty in administration, means a betrayal of the trust, and injury to the insurance member or depositor. These institutions are under the supervision of the office of state auditor and appreciating the great responsibility, I will, if nominated and elected, with out fear or favor, insist that they conduct a safe, sound and honest business in compliance with the laws of the

SILAS R. BARTON.

ABOUT NORFOLK.

Here's where the ice man gets his

The corn never felt better in its life

George N. Beels, candidate for representative in the next legislature is a native of Wisconsin. His early childhood and youth were spent on the farm in his father's family, with canal, where his father ran a canal boat from Cleveland on Lake Erie to name of a man who is honest and courageous and fully capable of handlis the time for every republican to ing the position, R. Y. Appleby. He respect of all who know him. Appar-

The country is satisfied with the reance to the nomination comes the pro-

Mr. Bryan's attempt to put on and he is to stand. The party has a repu-next March it trots in the same class as Buzzard's Bay.

The more Mr. Bryan aand Mr. Taft are compared the more Mr Taft looms up in the public mind as a harbor of collisions, one boiler explosion, one refuge and a port of safety.

paper reading. We always knew he

The three hundredth anniversary of He's been a long time dead, but he

' Mayor McClellan has been vindicated in the attempt to destroy his official reputation. He will serve out

New York race tracks will now be pronounced decidedly slow by the racing fraternity-even though the horses

It is really no great sin for a man to infuse a triffe of elasticity into his talk when speaking of the progressive-

Oyster Bay is enjoying its prominence of "the last season." After Milton's birthday occurs December 9. peace.

was a sensible sort of a man.

still lives.

his term unmolested.

go as fast as ever.

ness of his own town.

In order to enjoy all the rights and der the Toga achieved an easy victory of Austria, whose sixtieth anniversary privileges of youth a boy doesn't have in the Straits of Japan? to be a hoodlum, contrary to an idea It seems probable that in 1912 an which sometimes prevails.

entire day will be required for the Roosevelt may be induced to go to delegates to display their enthusiasm Venezuela instead of South Africa to cheering their favorite candidate and do his hunting. The trouble is that in 1916 the country may set apart a week for that laudable purpose. Truly Castro isn't big enough game.

While it is a somewhat awkward thing to do, it is far better to put your hands in your pockets than it is to put them into other people's pockets.

Horse meat is sold in large quanti- time in the history of the country have ever beheld, but through all the ties on the Boston market. If it is when business, social and political sixty years of sorrow he has borne any tougher than some of the steak affairs were conducted with so much himself with true imperial dignity. sold elsewhere, it is certainly going integrity and fairness as they are tosome. day.

Good advice from Sam Langum: formed."

them with the full dinner pail and they little republic. will be lined up again with the republicans this fall.

because the last session of congress ey is plenty. Forty-five million dollars previous session in the history of the is put to the soaring skyscrapers the in gold has been sent back to Europe nation. But isn't the country growing stenographers in the upper offices will and the contraction has not been felt. faster and making more improvements all be flirting with the man in the of Mark Twain, in her ability to think This is a republican year.

A wisely observant exchange saye: "Whenever you find a man who knows was done for the country's welfare. every thing the chances are that you will sooner of later discover that he knows everything wrong."

The flying machine is here and here to stay. Already trips are being made to London, Paris, Berlin and the other capitals of Europe, on schedule time.

Some one of the enthusiastic admirers of Mr. Bryan in a speech referred to him as the only democratic statesman left. A voice from the galleries shouted, "Yes, left twice."

Mr. Bryan does not seem pleased with the injunction plank in the republican platform. Is it possible it was inserted without his consultation and advice?

Taft to wear in the white house. The Russian Black sea fleet in its not a single target hit. Is it any won-for congress to meet these conditions?

The money appropriated by congress

we are a great people.

recent practice maneuvers had three fairly and squarely. gun explosion and two mutinies and

Emperor Francis Joseph, emperor

a tragic career. He says, "In this life nothing has been spared me." His wife was assassinated by an anarchist, his only son met an untimely end by murder or suicide, he has seen his dominion dwindle into comparative insignificance and the imperial powers of office have vanished one by one before the advancing demands of de-Dr. Wiley, the pure food expert, says we are a nation of rascals. Dr. mocracy. He remains a sad and lonely figure, those who have seen Wiley must have the dyspepsia. The him say his face is the saddest they facts are that there has never been a Life Insurance building, which are the "Elect men who have the confidence ton government regards with anxiety more than six months and cost about sofas and chairs, the sofas designed of the people, confidence established the situation at Panama. There are a quarter of a million dollars, have to be transformed into beds when not by promises, but by deeds per- many prophecies of a revolution fol- been duly fitted. These plans call for so needed. There are also two bedlowing the election of July 12. Secre- a building sixty-two stories high-909

The wage earners know how it is to tone to President Amador as to what out-distance the Singer building, finished in white enamel walls. Furwork for the party which provides this government will expect from the which is a near neighbor. When com- ther on is a well equipped office, furpleted the Equitable building will nished in mahogany with every con-

affairs.'

have but one rival in height, the Eiffel Some of the papers are protesting tower in Paris, which rears a skeleton venience for the transaction of business. The other main apartment is frame work of iron and steel to a the dining room, which is fitted to

Miss Clara Clements, the daughter for herself is evidently a chip of the resides. He is one of those sound, old block. She sees some things that need adjustment and she is not a bit United States will not be obliged to afraid to speak her mind about them.

go about labeled Mark Twain's daughter when I am doing my best to pur-number of columns of advertising, but with the November payments. the London Times sets up a new stan-newspapers of the country speak so loaf around on a lecture tour or tramp issue contained a quarter of a million words. Some of this unusual out- highly of Mr. Taft that they almost lazily through Europe. That's why I Tripp county reservation land open-

The platform this year, taken is satisfactory to the republicans of price, ortsmouth on the Ohio river: after Not many cities have the chance Iowans this year increased which the family emigrated to lowa, as a whole, is a strong document. The Madison he certainly is to the rest of their consumption of oranges by seventhat Norfolk will have in this land in covered wagons, where his early party has not dodged any important the county. The Chronicle vouches ty per cent. over any preceding year. rush. It affords an opportunity for manhood alternated between farming issue likely to come up, but has stated for him as follows, which is sufficient The people were satisfied with the city-advertising that ought not to be and teaching country school. Having its position on all national questions evidence that he bears the O. K. of fruit, the Union Pacific was satisfied overlooked. Norfolk ought to make graduated from the law school of the the most of it. The town ought to that paper: "The announcement of with its returns from the freight Iowa state university, with the degree

Ben Davis for the office of commis- charges and the growers were well spruce up when the time comes, on of LL B., in 1876, he settled down to the practice of his chosen professioner for the First district will be re- pleased with the prices which the account of "the company." The paysion of the law at Norfolk, where he ceived with pleasure and gratification fruit brought. All three got their ing plans, started over twenty years as ruler is being celebrated, has had by his many friends, not only in this money's worth, and the railroad and ago, ought to be brought into culminhas since resided and steadily gained the confidence and esteem of his district but over the entire county. the association have the principal exation in order to prevent these visifriends and fellow citizens of Madison tors from looking upon a deep and Mr. Davis is an old time resident of pended in advertising back in their county and the state at large.

sloppy main street. the county and is one of our most pockets and the reward of enterprise prominent and successful farmers. He along with it. But the profit is not The Tripp county rush may be made owns a splendid farm three miles all accounted for yet. Interest on the to mean much for Norfolk.

northeast of this city, upon which he original advertising outlay will be col-BARTON FOR AUDITOR. lected by the railroad and the fruit Silas R. Barton, of Grand Island, hard-headed, capable business men growers for years to come. Yes, adgrand recorder of the A. O. U. W., has whom the county needs to conduct her vertising pays. Publicity is the necesformally announced his candidacy for sary adjunct-the advance agent-of the position of auditor of public acany marked success along all lines of

The most perfectly equipped and activity. The business man who does roomy official car in the world is not see it is simply blind. mary election to be held in September. of any kind.

owned by Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, A personal acquaintance with Mr. Barpresident of the Canadian Pacific rail-Two years from now Wayne county ton extending over a number of years. will be wanting the republican candi date from the Eleventh district. Wayne enables the writer to youch that he is one of the most careful, painstaking county's interests will demand that officers in Nebraska, and if elected to the right to furnish the candidate, esthe position of state auditor he would tablished by long precedent, be granted by Madison, Stanton and Pierce counmake an officer that the republican party would feel proud of. Not only and has since been engaged in prac ties in good faith. It is self evident is he a capable official but he is popthen that Wayne county republicans must concede the privilege of naming ular with all with whom he comes in the man this year to Stanton county contact, and as a vote getter there is no one in the state who would bring To refuse to allow Stanton county greater strength to the ticket. Followto name the senatorial candidate this year would be nothing short of treaching is his announcement, published in the Wood River Sunbeam: ery. Pierce county four years hence

To the Nebraska republica will want her turn. And the same rule formally announcing my candida applies there. R. Y. Appleby of Stanauditor of Public accounts, I deer. ton merits the confidence and supbut proper and due, to those who.

port of the Eleventh district. If nomvotes I am about to respectfully solicit inated he will come nearer being to make a statement as to my political convictions and what it elected this fall than any other man wil mean, should I be nominated by the who could be nominated, all things republican party at the September priconsidered. Madison county is not marles, and elected in November, so egotistic or so selfish as to conpay postage on their letters that con-she says "Need I mention that I refer the statesmanship in the Eleventh I am heartily in accord with the principles of the republican party, as expressed in the state platform of two ears ago, and with the reforms ad opted by the last legislature, and shall ty. Most of the republicans of Madido all in my power to continue the son county are willing to admit that enforcement of the laws enacted by the sue a musical career? Father is, of Stanton and Wayne and Pierce counrecent assembly; I have been, and am course, a genius-and that is what ties have just as capable men to repsympathy with the administration makes me so tired. I have a mind resent the party as has the county in want to say, without qualification, that of Governor George L. Sheldon and to scour Europe for a secret hiding which is located Newman Grove. And it will give me pleasure to be able to place, and when I have found it, to most of the republicans of Madison labor with him, side by side, so far as take to bed to stay a couple of years county, thank heaven, have enough the duties of the office to which I asand arise-a genius. For the bed love of fair play and a square deal pire will permit. In the matter of the railroads and habit is a receipt for father's success. about them to remain true to an agree-While I have been tiring myself out ment, written or implied, by virtue of in an endeavor to rise to the heights which Madison county has already reas anybody else's daughter, he has ceived its share of the fruit.

just lain in bed and thought things and got out of bed now and then to NORFOLK AND THE TRIPP RUSH.

a right and equitable assessment of all Norfolk might make the forthcoming property in the future; and deal equitably as to the corporations and the Work should be a matter of enjoy- put is accounted for in the explanation become his warmest advocates. Among am looking for a really comfortable ing mean a very great deal to this officers can best fulfill their obligates of the minority. state. It has often occured to me that a conscientious regard for the inter-

Politically he has been strictly republican and voted with his party, be ginning with the election of President Grant for his second term. Never an office seeker, he has year by year shared in the delegate work of county. district, and state conventions, and never bolted a party nominee. Believing in the progressive character of his party he has ever been found in counts, subject to the decision of the the vanguard of every reform moverepublicans of Nebraska at the pri- ment, while never posing as a faddist

> A few years ago being overtaken with what was considered a fatal sickness he turned, as a last resort, to christian science treatment, became a student of the cult and having regained his health, in 1901 graduated from the Mass. Metaphysical college at Boston with the degree of C. S. B., tice as a Christian Scientist. Mr. Beels has been very modest in the details of his newly chosen profession, never intruding where not desired, and never criticising nor deploring the work of regular physicians, nor those who in their own way seek to relieve suffering humanity, or who seek to follow their own religious views; and is not seeking any special legislation in his own behalf. His only desire and ambition, politically, is how he may best serve the public in all that makes for the protection, progress and prosperity of all the people in the making of better homes and a better citizenship. He stands upon the broad platform of his party subject to revision by the party regardless of individual opinion. He is a sober and industrious citizen, believes in the Christian religion, believes in strict enforcement of the Slocumb law, strictly obeys the anti-treat law of the state and would not violate it for the sake of any office. In the last city campaign at Norfolk he was made chairman of the city republican central committee and was credited with excellent political work, wherein Mayor Sturgeon was elected other corporation assessments I wish by an overwhelming majority of nearo state emphatically that I do not bey two to one after having been overeve the assessments of recent years whelmingly defeated for the same ofhave been unjust to the railroads, vigfice at the election in the previous brously though they have opposed them year. If elected to the office of repand shall do all in my power to secure resentative he expects to represent all the people of Madison county, as expressed by their majority vote, with little tormentors of the baldheaded velopes that will go without postage. man carry round with them germs of The postal service will lose $80,000 in smallpox, tuberculosis, and diphtheria, revenue by this act. The new boom typhold fever and every other conta- to the pensioners is the result of an gious disease in the category, which act passed by the past session of con-inclined. Harmless, indeed! They are agents to send with each voucher one of the deadly foes which civiliza- which the pensioner is required to tion has to combat.

Why will people persist in using the tain their pension papers as the latter to the glaring injustice of having to district are centered in Madison counphrase "as harmless as a fly?" These will be accompanied by return en-they deposit wheresoever they feel gress which requires the pension

American newspapers boast of the been sent out by most of the pension number of pages they print and of the agents, the order will go into effect

The banks are full of money. Mon- appropriated more money than any height of 984 feet. Unless some limit accommodate eight persons.

than ever before and isn't it necessary moon.

In the future pensioners of the fill out in return, a "penalty envelope." As the August payments have already dard when it announces that a recent Some of the leading democratic ## tary Taft has written in no uncertain feet above the curb. This will far a bath room between them, both