

TRIP UP BONESTEEL LINE IS PLANNED

TO EXTEND GREETINGS TO NORTH STATE AND ROSEBUD.

PLANS FOR NORFOLK EXCURSION

An Excursion Visit to the Prosperous and Growing Towns on the Bonesteel Line is Planned—Trip an Inspiration.

In a Norfolk excursion trip up the Bonesteel line as far north as Dallas Norfolk citizens are offered a splendid chance to boost Norfolk as a logical distributing center for all this part of the northwest, to cement friendship with nearly a score of prosperous growing towns on the Northwestern line, and, incidentally, to imbibe new Norfolk enthusiasm by viewing the great stretch of fertile territory to the north and west and by rubbing shoulders with the well wishes Norfolk has gained in north Nebraska and southern South Dakota.

The proposed Norfolk excursion contemplates a trip in a special Northwestern train the entire length of the Bonesteel line with a provision for stops at every town enroute. At Dallas the party, if present plans carry, will drive out into the reservation country to view the splendid bit of territory that is to be added to this section, the special train running up the line one day and returning the day following.

Suggestion Came From Outside.

The suggestion of a Norfolk visiting excursion came from north Nebraska. It was broached to Mayor Sturgeon and to other men connected with the Commercial club by a few north Nebraska citizens. "You Norfolk people don't realize the field that lies just beyond your door," they said, "Norfolk ought to get acquainted with the country that is forging ahead just now faster than any other section in the United States. Those wholesale houses would come faster if Norfolk people would arouse themselves to the prize offered. You had better come up and see us." And so the Norfolk visiting excursion was born.

Railroad Does Its Share.

The Northwestern was approached at once and agreed to do its share. A special train was promised if seventy-five passengers were guaranteed. Details were mapped out and the movement started on foot.

The guarantee list has been opened by Mayor J. D. Sturgeon and it is believed that the required seventy-five names can be doubled or tripled at once. Names should be handed to Mr. Sturgeon at once in order that arrangements can be carried through.

Excursion in a Fortnight.

The day for the excursion will not be fixed until the guarantee list is signed up, but it is planned to make the trip up the line in about two weeks.

Norfolk has aspirations to become a jobbing center. In the new country which has developed in recent years to the north there is a strong reason why this ambition can be realized. Norfolk business men will gain new enthusiasm when they view the territory which is tributary to Norfolk and for which Norfolk is the logical gateway city. So Norfolk citizens are invited to shake hands with their neighbors in North Nebraska and southern South Dakota.

MONDAY MENTION.

Miss Georgia Austin arrived home Saturday from Wayne.

Mrs. R. O. Webb and daughter Ruth went to Albion Friday to visit relatives.

Miss Warrick of Meadow Grove arrived at noon to visit Miss Katherine Witzgman.

A large number of Wayne normal college graduates passed through the city Saturday on their way to their respective homes.

Miss Lillian Moore and Miss Barbara Keck of Dallas and Miss Clara Lancaster of Elkpoint arrived Saturday to visit the Misses Heltzman for a few days.

Miss Anna Fair left at noon for York.

Dr. P. H. Salter went Verdigré at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Carney returned Saturday from their trip to Salt Lake City.

George Shippee of Tilden was in the city yesterday.

J. R. Losh of Carroll was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. P. Koutz of Hoskins was in the city Saturday.

Dan Foley of Bristow spent Sunday in Norfolk.

Miss Emma Botts of Madison was in the city Sunday.

A. L. Killian has gone to the Chicago market on business.

Mrs. E. A. Waddell returned to Meadow Grove Monday noon.

F. Corke of Tilden was the guest of his son, A. A. Corke, Sunday.

Miss Lenora Strick of Battle Creek is visiting at the home of J. W. Strick.

Superintendent F. M. Hunter arrived in the city at noon from Ashland.

C. E. Burnham was called to Adell, Ia., Monday on account of the illness of a relative.

E. W. Zute went to New Ulm, Minn., Monday to attend the trustee's meeting of a German Lutheran seminary.

A. T. Hutchinson of Valley is taking charge of the A. L. Killian store while

A. L. Killian is in Chicago buying the fall stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mathewson, who have been visiting at the home of Darius Mathewson, returned to Wait hill Sunday.

Miss Warrick, who has been the guest of Miss Katherine Witzgman for a few days, returned to Meadow Grove Monday noon.

Miss Opal Corryell left Monday for Berkeley, Calif., where she will enter her sophomore year in the state university of California.

R. H. Reynolds is beginning the erection of a two-story brick building at Plainview. He took a force of masons with him Monday morning to begin the foundation.

Miss Margaret Booth, one of the twin daughters of Rev. Edwin Booth, narrowly escaped having one eye put out Sunday, while she was playing in the large tent on the chautauqua grounds. A small tent pole fell and struck the little girl just above the right eye cutting such a gash that Dr. Bear found it necessary to take two stitches to close up the wound. A bruise was also made beneath the eye.

The Blick claims against the M. & O. line, arising out of the running down of the two Blick brothers by the morning passenger from Sioux City at a point near Wakefield, has been compromised and settled. Anton Blick, one of the brothers, was killed and Enoch Blick knocked unconscious. The latter at this time has not the slightest recollection of the accident although his mind is perfectly clear on all other points. On the morning of the accident he can remember events up to the time he was within a mile of the crossing. From that time he can recall nothing. The brothers were driving a team of mules which made the crossing in time and escaped uninjured. J. C. Engleman of Norfolk represented the Blicks.

Mrs. Elizabeth Leonard of this city, in Creighton on a short visit with her cousin, Mrs. W. H. Green, was suddenly stricken with apoplexy, dying about 11 o'clock Monday morning. The body was brought to Norfolk on the noon train. Mrs. Leonard has spent nearly all of her life in Norfolk but for the past year has been keeping house for Father Kerns at Wayne. She has been home three weeks on a vacation and had gone to Creighton for a short visit. Death was entirely unexpected. Mrs. Leonard was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kennedy of this city. She is survived by a four-year-old son. It is a sad coincidence that about seven years ago Miss Alice Kennedy of this city, a cousin of Mrs. Leonard and a sister of Mrs. Green, was suddenly stricken with heart failure while on a visit at the Green home.

URIAH JACKSON IN TERRIBLE FALL STRUCK MILK HOUSE.

SCALP REMOVED BY THE BLOW

Uriah Jackson, Living Eight Miles Southwest of Tilden, Died From Effects of Terrible Fall—No One Saw Accident.

Tilden, Neb., Aug. 10.—Special to The News: Falling forty-seven feet from a windmill tower, Uriah Jackson, a farmer living eight miles southwest of Tilden, received a terrible injury from which he died.

The man struck the roof of a milk house, a large portion of his scalp being removed by the blow as clean as if it had been done by a surgeon.

An hour after the fall the man was found. A medical examination showed that he was terribly injured. He never regained consciousness. Today the body was shipped to his old home in Indiana for burial.

RILEY WAS ADMITTED TO BAIL.

Believed That He Will Have Trouble in Getting the $5,000.

Bonesteel News: Attorney W. B. Backus, representing the defense in the case of the state against W. A. Riley, charged with the murder of J. E. Ritts at Burke, July 18, and who was refused bail by Judge Biglins at his preliminary trial last week, has received an order from Judge Smith that his client may be released on bail of $5,000 upon the approval of the court. It is thought that it will be difficult for Riley to secure this amount of bail, but an earnest effort is being made by his friends to secure it.

IDLE NEW YORKERS WOULD COME WEST

CHARITY ORGANIZATION WRITES TO MAYOR STURGEON.

The idle men of New York are looking westward to the Nebraska harvest fields where an annual cry goes forth for farm hands.

Mayor Sturgeon has received the following letter from the joint application bureau of the Charity Organization Society of New York and the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, under a date line of last week from the bureau offices at 195 East Twenty-Second street, New York City:

"J. D. Sturgeon, Mayor, Norfolk, Neb.—Dear Sir: I have learned that there is a great demand for laborers in your part of the country. Can you suggest any way of arranging transportation for the idle men of New York City to Nebraska? I understand that there are a great many farmers anxious to get help but are unable to find any in Nebraska. Of course in a large city like New York it is extremely hard to find men who have had experience on a farm, but if farmers would be willing to take these men and teach them to do farm work, they would be willing to begin at very low wages.

"We have placed 75 to 100 of these unskilled men on New York state farms this summer and as a general thing they have been giving satisfaction.

"I realize that it would be very hard to be sure of a man's going to Nebraska unless provided with an escort.

"If you can suggest any way of providing transportation, I can furnish all the men you can use in that part of the country.

Respectfully yours, Charles K. Blatchly, Superintendent."

Miss Sinkular's Case.

The details of the charges which the state is seeking to establish against Miss Bessie Sinkular, the Herrick milliner who is charged with starting the fire which burned up an entire business block, are given as follows by the Herrick Press in its report of the preliminary hearing:

One witness testified that Miss Sinkular was at the Hotel Herrick the night of the fire. That she left the place twice a short time before the fire and that the last time she was seen on the walk leading to the alley back of the buildings which were later burned. Another witness testified to having seen a tall woman near the alley behind the building but would not swear positively that the woman was Miss Sinkular. Still another witness testified to having seen her behind her own millinery store a few minutes before the fire. Another witness testified that Miss Sinkular had removed most of her household furniture and a portion of her millinery goods a short time before the fire, also that the value of her stock from the judgment of an expert was from $200 to $300 whereas it was insured for $500. A gasoline can found behind the millinery store after the fire was identified as the property of Miss Sinkular. This testimony together with the nature of the fire at its start and the fact that it did start in Miss Sinkular's millinery store, together with a number of co-operative details led the judge to believe that the woman should be held for a hearing in circuit court. Miss Sinkular was not placed on the stand to testify, her attorneys thinking it best not to expose their line of defense before the case is called in circuit court this fall.

A Genuine Visiting Junket.

It is expected that the excursion train, if plans go through, will result in a genuine visiting junket all along the line and that the Norfolk excursion crowd will be augmented at every town. The train schedule will give a splendid chance for an exchange of visits between neighboring cities. And a train filled with north state and Rosebud boosters would be a common inspiration.

The round trip tickets sold in connection with the excursion will permit a return on any train.

SEPTEMBER 1 STILL THE DAY.

Tripp County Allotments Will Be Completed by That Time.

Herrick Press: Major Kelley, Indian agent at the Rosebud agency and Allotting Agent Scriven came down to Herrick where they were met by Superintendent Caton of the Indian farm on Ponca creek, and ex-Superintendent Cressman. Their business here was in connection with the cancelling of some allotments in the case of Riley and permitting the allottees to make new choices in Tripp county. Allotting Agent Scriven informed us that he thought the allotting in Tripp county would be completed by September 1. Under these circumstances there seems to be no reason why Tripp county should not be opened to settlement yet this fall and we look for the proclamation to be issued at almost any time now.

Chrissey Went a Fishing.

West Point Republican: "Chrissey," the obliging and somewhat round deputy county clerk, had the genuine fisherman's luck Sunday. Four sunfish were the sum total of his reward for laboring and sweating along the banks of McKirahan lake from sunup to sundown. That would have not been so bad, but his tale of woe arose in this wise: When ready to start home he rowed across the lake to get his companion, Dr. Thomsen. Instead of easing up on the oars as he approached the bank, he kept in full swing, hitting it in full force. The result was perfectly natural—the boat turned turtle, rolling over with its startled occupant just as suddenly and as gracefully as you please. All Thompson heard for a few seconds from under the upturned craft was a succession of gurgles, indicating that the submerged mariner was involuntarily quaffing a strange drink. When finally released, he presented a decidedly moist appearance. "Lake water," says he, "may be good for bathing, but as for a beverage, it is the worst ever."

HAYWARD IS IN NORFOLK

STATE CHAIRMAN IS MADE NATIONAL SECRETARY.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE HERE

HAYWARD WILL LEAVE STATE FOR NATIONAL FIELD.

STATE IS SURELY REPUBLICAN

Sunday Judge William Hayward, Coming to Norfolk for Political Conference, Learned of His Appointment as National Secretary.

Judge William Hayward, for the past year chairman of the Nebraska state Republican central committee, learned just before reaching Norfolk Sunday night of his appointment as secretary of the national committee, to be placed in charge of western headquarters in Chicago during the present presidential campaign.

Judge Hayward when he reached Norfolk had not been informed of his appointment beyond the press dispatches on the subject and was not prepared to discuss his future course until he could reach Lincoln and receive official word from Chairman Hitehoeck. Judge Hayward admitted in Norfolk that the appointment was too big a thing to be passed up. He will accept.

Mr. Hayward has not yet determined whether or not he will resign his office as chairman of the Nebraska committee. No definite line of action in this regard will be taken by him until he has returned to state headquarters in Lincoln, there to confer with party leaders. It was pointed out that the Nebraska state Republican candidates will themselves choose a new chairman immediately after primary election day, September 1.

The Norfolk Conference.

Chairman Hayward was brought to Norfolk Monday for a conference with the chairman of the Republican committees of this section of the state. The conference here is the seventh of its kind to be held by Colonel Hayward. The eighth and last conference will be held at Valentine Tuesday. The final conference will probably be in charge of F. P. Carrick of Lincoln, the state secretary, as Chairman Hayward expects to leave Norfolk Tuesday morning for Lincoln.

Republicans Sure of the State.

"We are sure of the state for Taft," said Chairman Hayward in Norfolk. "Without being over confident or bragging I can say that the state is in unusually good condition to go solidly Republican, giving Taft the electoral vote and Governor Sheldon the biggest majority any governor ever received.

"We have eighty Republican counties. State pride has been worked throughbare, step outside of Lancaster county and you do not hear it. The state as a whole is content with conditions and the voters are going to vote for themselves and their families rather than for Mr. Bryan."

Afternoon Conference.

Chairman Hayward arriving in Norfolk with his secretary, J. L. Brown, established headquarters at once at the Oxnard hotel. As most of the chairman came in on the noon train the Norfolk conference went over until Monday afternoon. The first chairman to arrive was Louis Smithberger of Stanton county. Madison, Pierce, Knox, Boone, Antelope, Holt, Boyd, Wayne, Cedar, Stanton and Platte counties were selected to be represented here.

The "Nebraska System."

It is just such work as Chairman Hayward is doing in Norfolk which has won him the national secretaryship. Mr. Hayward was recently called in conference to explain the Nebraska card system by which a working directory is kept of every voter in the state. This was started back in 1889, pushed forward by Chairman Lipdsay, dropped during off years and developed in presidential years. Last year Chairman Hayward perfected the system in preparation for this year's fight. "Last year's campaign," said Mr. Hayward, "was almost entirely directed to paying the way for the presidential fight."

Hayward a Young Man.

Judge Hayward is one of the young men who have come to the front in this year's campaign. He is a son of the late Senator M. L. Hayward of Nebraska City. His first Nebraska distinction was his record gained as a football player at the state university. He completed his law course in 1888 and that year went south with the Second Nebraska as captain of the Nebraska City company. He became colonel of the regiment. Returning he was elected county judge of Otoe county and was one of the youngest men who ever held that position in the country. Judge Hayward was the leading candidate in the congressional convention which finally nominated Congressman Pollard. For the past year he has been chairman of the state committee.

TOMORROW NAMES AS "WEED CUTTING DAY"

MAYOR STURGEON URGES PREPARATION FOR THE RACES.

Tomorrow is "Weed Cutting Day" in Norfolk. An army of citizens, possessed of proper city pride, will sally forth in the morning to attack weed forests on vacant lots and to give an additional touch of neatness to their own yards. That is they will do this if they approve the suggestion formally made by the mayor in naming a "weed cutting day."

The object of the anti-weed crusade is to put Norfolk at its best when the city's visitors come here this week for the races.

"I would like to see every tree that needs trimming, trimmed tomorrow, every yard given a little additional care and every weed patch slaughtered without mercy to give the city a boost during the races," said the mayor.

Rosebud Telephone Meeting.

Bonesteel News: On Tuesday the regular meeting of the stock holders of the Gregory County Interstate Telephone company was held in this city and the report of the various officers were received and passed upon in the regular way. The election of a board of directors for the ensuing term resulted as follows: E. A. Jackson, Dallas; C. B. Young, Dixon; W. A. Kinnie, Burke; Louie Simmons, Herrick; S. M. Lindley, Bonesteel; Herb McKee, Gregory; C. A. Johnson, Fairfax; Frank Mullen, Lucas; Wm. Krotter, Stewart, Neb.

The board of directors meeting elected the following officers: Wm. Krotter, president; C. A. Johnson, vice president; S. M. Lindley, secretary and treasurer; I. D. Lindley, assistant secretary, and G. H. Meredith, general manager.

A five per cent dividend on the stock of the company was declared and the same will become payable October 1.

John Didn't Stop in Norfolk.

Creighton News: John Andres went down to Norfolk Tuesday morning and he said he did not know where he would go from there, but when Wayne was mentioned the color in his face gave him away.

Mrs. Pinkham Recovering.

Herrick Press: Mrs. Frank Pinkham, who attempted to kill herself and two children at their home near Bonesteel, is recovering. The baby child, whom the mother slashed its throat with a pocket knife, died Friday evening and was buried in the Bonesteel cemetery Saturday. The six-year-old boy is recovering from his wounds and will live. Temporary insanity was undoubtedly responsible for the murder and attempted suicide.
