

RUNAWAY HOUSE MADE STATE LINE.

With Traction Engine the Sheriff Was Outdistanced

The wild dash made by a quartet of north Nebraska men across Boyd county to South Dakota with a house, was finally successful according to the Butte Register. The men who ran away with the house, pursued by the sheriff, used a huge traction engine for motive power.

The spectacle of a runaway house, headed under full speed for the South Dakota state line, was so unusual as to attract considerable attention. Frank Danker, who claimed to own the house, started Sheriff Coleman after the house with a replevin order. The sheriff served the order, but no sooner was his back turned than the house was immediately started towards the South Dakota line again.

Hearing what was transpiring the sheriff returned and arrested Louis Engberg, Amos Quarston, Fritz Johnson and J. H. Beltz, at the same time having the house drawn up to the farm of a Mr. Munson, whom he deputized to watch the property. The arrested men secured their release from custody, pending a future appearance in court.

Sunday morning Munson was awakened by the exhaust of the engine at about 3 o'clock. Going out he found some men running off with the house. They crashed straight through two wire fences, breaking wires and tearing up posts—straight ahead they went in another supreme effort to reach the state line. At this critical moment there was a breakdown. Undaunted, the men repaired the break and triumphantly advanced towards the coveted goal, which they this time succeeded in reaching.

Danker and Engberg both claim the ownership of the house. The latter contracted with a man named Lynn to move the house. Lynn fulfilled his contract, and though there is a warrant out for his arrest, he is just now safe in South Dakota. Larceny is charged against the house movers.

Back to the Shop for "Kid" Jensen.

Its back to the blacksmith shop for "Kid" Jensen, the Norfolk fighter who broke his right wrist in a prize fight at Gregory during the rush. Jensen is not out of the ring by any means, although for some time the "manly art" has been a matter of rather secondary consideration to him. But his wrist just now puts him out of the way of fights so he has gone to shoeing horses to strengthen the wrist. Jensen arrived in Norfolk yesterday to go back to work at the Peters' shop. His family will join him from Council Bluffs Sunday.

"My right wrist is a little weak," said Jensen today, "but the shop will soon fix it and I will be right for a brush by the holidays."

Since his wrist was broken Jensen has been in an exhibition match in Cheyenne. While in Omaha he saw "Farmer" Burns, throw Oscar Wason again the other day. Burns told Jensen that he expected another match between Gotch and the "Russian Lion" in America and that he did not believe that the match would be pulled off in England.

RAY LAMPHERE PLACED ON TRIAL

Introduction of Evidence Begins in Guinness Murder Case.

CORONER IS FIRST WITNESS

Jury is Secured and Prosecutor Smith Outlines Case Against Accused Man Tells in Detail What the State Expects to Prove.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 13.—The introduction of evidence in the trial of Ray Lamphere, for the murder of Mrs. Belle Guinness and her three children, by setting fire to the house, began this morning, a jury having been secured and State's Attorney Smith having made his opening statement to the jury. Coroner Mack was the first witness called.

Prosecutor Smith's opening statement consumed an hour and in it he went into much detail as to what he would prove.

After reading the Indiana statute, which provides that where a person or persons lose their lives in a fire willfully started by another, even though he had not intended to cause the death of the person or persons, it becomes murder in the first degree and is punishable by life imprisonment. Prosecutor Smith stated: "All we are required to show is that the defendant set fire to the house and these occupants lost their lives by reason of this act."

Mr. Smith says the evidence will show that Lamphere made remarks to various persons indicating his hatred for Mrs. Guinness and his intention to do her harm, including statements that he knew how to get money from her. The fact that Mrs. Guinness felt for Lamphere was touched on, and then the prosecutor took up the story of the night of the fire and what the state would prove. He said that by Lamphere's own statements it would be proven that he set the alarm clock at Mrs. Smith's house, when he spent the night, for 3 o'clock in the morning of April 28, and that fifteen minutes later he left there.

"We will also prove," continued the state's attorney, "by Lamphere's own statement that he took the road going by the Guinness house and that he was on the spot when the fire broke out, about 4 o'clock, and that he was the only person around at that time. We will prove that he was at the Lake Erie crossing at 4:50 a. m. This is a mile and a quarter away. We will show that instead of going on the highway, Lamphere jumped over fences and ran along through the woods to John Ross' place, where he was going to get a broad axe before continuing to the Warwick place, where he was employed.

"We will show by the evidence that when he was arrested at 7 o'clock at night that the first thing he said was 'Did those folks get out of the house?' So you see the foremost thing in his mind was the burning of the house."

DEMOCRATS ASK HIGHER TARIFF.

Unusual Situation Develops at House Committee Hearing.

WANT INCREASE ON BARYTES.

Republicans Declare It Should Be Taken From Protective List—Paint and Color Men Satisfied With Present Rate of Duty.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The Democratic members of the house ways and means committee favoring an increase in the rate of duty and the Republican members assuming an attitude against a protective rate on "barytes," an article listed in schedule A of the tariff, was the unusual situation which developed at the hearing before the committee. Former Representative M. E. Rhodes and A. G. Nason, S. M. Evans of North Carolina, and Charles J. Staples of Buffalo, N. Y., spoke in favor of increasing the duty on crude barytes and when Mr. Evans took up the argument, speaking of the barytes deposits in North Carolina, Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee, the Democratic members of the ways and means committee became interested. Representative Poon of North Carolina, a Democrat, told Mr. Evans that if he could show that the mining of barytes was made unprofitable because of the prevailing tariff he would have the support of the minority members of the committee in the recommendation for an increase in duties. Despite the assertion by Mr. Rhodes that Missouri was carried in the last election for Taft because of the belief that a higher protective tariff would be enacted, the Republican members of the committee, led by Chairman Payne and Representatives Longworth and Boutwell, apparently desired to bring out the fact that no higher duty was necessary on barytes.

The hearing on the proposed revision as affecting the schedule on chemicals, oils and paints was completed.

The hearing on schedule H of the tariff, covering spirits, wines and other beverages began today.

The arguments presented were in the main technical and in favor of the retention of the present rates of duty. The prevailing attitude with regard to schedule A is epitomized in the following words of Eugene Merz, a paint and color manufacturer of New York, who submitted a brief:

"It will be seen that the duty at present levied is but moderate and is necessary to equalize European and American conditions, and we respectfully submit that the present rate of duty on our products should be left undisturbed."

BACHELOR HITS TARIFF.

Urges Revision on Articles Sold Cheaper Abroad Than in This Country.

Washington, Nov. 12.—An immediate revision of the tariff schedules affecting articles that are alleged to be sold by American manufacturers in foreign markets at lower prices than in this country was urged in behalf of the interests of American farmers by former Governor N. J. Bacheider of New Hampshire, national master, in his annual address before the National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry.

Mr. Bacheider also made a strong plea for postal savings banks, parcels post and highway appropriations at the next session of congress. Commenting upon the purpose of President Roosevelt's country life commission, Mr. Bacheider stated that the commission already has ascertained, from letters sent by farmers in every part of the United States, that the reform which would mean more to the farmer in dollars and cents was adequate appropriation for the improvement of highways.

BRYAN TALKS OF FUTURE.

Hopes It Will Not Become Necessary to Run for Office Again.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 18.—"My friends do not require me to prejudge the future and I shall not take the advice of my opponents on this subject. I shall continue to write and speak in defense of things which I believe to be good for the American people. I hope it may never become necessary to run for office again, but I will not attempt to decide that question until the time comes to act. I do not see any necessity to say more on the subject."

In answer to the direct question.

"Will you run for the presidency again if conditions arise to warrant it?" William J. Bryan dictated the above statement.

Ruef Denied Charge of Venue.

Barrel of Beer Causes Grief.

Tekamah, Neb., Nov. 13.—A half barrel of beer has brought three young Tekamahans to grief, and one of them has been assessed $140 fine and costs. This town being "dry," Gustav Anderson, G. Workman and Charles Vay were forced to have their refreshments shipped in from an outside town. This they did and the beer arrived on election day. In order to divide the liquid, the three youngsters took it to the rear of a voting booth, where they were arrested, it being within 100 feet of the polls. Anderson was first tried and it cost him $140, but the other two took an appeal.

OIL CASE TO HIGHEST COURT.

Supreme Bench Will Be Asked to Sustain $29,240,000 Fine.

CONFERENCE AT WASHINGTON.

Application Will Be Made for Writ of Certiorari to Bring Up and Review Action of Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Following the recent decision of the circuit court of appeals in Chicago in refusing the United States government a rehearing of the Standard Oil case, made famous by its $29,240,000 fine, the department of justice officials decided to carry the case to the supreme court of the United States. The decision was reached after an all day conference between Attorney General Bonaparte and government attorneys who have been engaged in the case. Application will be made to the supreme court, when it reconvenes Monday, Nov. 20, for a writ of certiorari to bring up and review the action of the circuit court of appeals.

The following statement was issued by the department immediately following the adjourning of the final conference:

"A prolonged conference was held at the department of justice with respect to the action of the circuit court of appeals in Chicago in refusing a rehearing of the Standard Oil case. At different times during the day Attorney General Bonaparte was in consultation with Solicitor General Hoyt, United States Attorney Sims of Chicago and his assistant, J. H. Wilkerson, and F. B. Kellogg, special counsel in the civil suits against the Standard Oil company. It was found that a considerable number of changes had been made in the opinion of the court of appeals originally rendered, and that Judge Baker of that court had filed a separate concurring opinion which differed materially in its reasoning from that of Judge Grosscup. After a careful consideration of all phases of the situation it was determined that an application should be made to the supreme court of the United States when it reconvenes Nov. 20 for a writ of certiorari to bring up and review the action of the circuit court of appeals."

The necessary papers for this purpose will be prepared without delay."

TAFT FOR PHILIPPINE SUGAR.

Interesting Disclosures Predicted at Ways and Means Hearing.

Washington, Nov. 18.—That the opinion which had been expressed by Secretary Wright in favor of free trade with the Philippines for tobacco and sugar are the views of President Elect Taft was the freely expressed belief among those present in the committee of the house at the hearing of the sugar schedule. Secretary Wright's familiarity with the situation in the American-Asiatic possession lead to the belief that he will disclose some interesting facts when he appears before the committee later.

Edwin F. Atkins of Boston, a large sugar plantation owner in Cuba, told the committee that the reciprocity treaty with Cuba, by which the island products enjoy a 20 per cent differential from the regular duties, expires next month. He read two cablegrams from Cuban sugar and tobacco growers, asking the committee to defer action on these articles. Mr. Atkins argued that the tariff on sugar be reduced and that Cuba be given the existing differential on this lower rate. He also said that there was great danger of an insurrection in Cuba if the tariff on Cuban sugar is not reduced.

GOVERNMENT NO GUARANTOR.

Labels on Food Products Must Not Indicate Inspection by Officials.

Washington, Nov. 18.—According to a sweeping decision by the commissioner of patents any label bearing the inscription, "Guaranteed under the pure food and drug acts, June 30, 1906," where such inscription is intended to imply that the government is responsible for the purity of the goods, will be refused registration. It is claimed that hundreds of packers and others throughout the country are so printing their labels as to give this impression, whereas it is held by the officials that the government simply accepts the assertion of the manufacturer that the goods are pure and then investigates his business. Upon proof that the pure food and drug act is being violated the goods are confiscated and the manufacturers punished.

BOMB EXPLOSION WRECKS HOME.

Italian Quarter of Philadelphia Scene of Black Hand Outrage.

Philadelphia, Nov. 13.—The boarding house of Ignatius Spira, in the Italian quarter of the city, was wrecked by a bomb placed on the front doorstep early this morning, supposed by agents of the "Black Hand." Gregoria Delando and his family of seven occupied front rooms on the first floor of the house and Delando and three children were severely hurt. The front of the house was practically blown in. A few days ago Giuseppe Rocco, who lives near the Spira house, was warned in a "Black Hand" letter to place $1,000 at a point indicated in the northern part of the city. An aunt, Ann Filippi, had just come to his home from Italy, supposedly bringing a good sum of money. When the threatening letter was received she left and went to the boarding house, which was dynamited this morning.

SMUGGLER BOAT IS WRECKED.

Six Chinese From Canada Killed While Landing at Buffalo.

Buffalo, Nov. 13.—A motor boat, containing ten Chinamen and three white men, was wrecked on the breakwall at the foot of Michigan street. Six of the Chinamen were drowned, being dashed to death against the rock-ribbed sea wall. The four survivors were rescued by the crew of a police boat. The three white men escaped and the federal authorities and local detective force are scouring the city endeavoring to round up men suspected of being engaged in the smuggling of Chinamen into this country from Canada.

At first it was supposed the white men perished, but from one of the surviving Chinamen it was learned that they succeeded in clambering over the slippery rocks and fled, leaving the Chinamen to their fate.

LOOKOUT INN IN ASHES.

Famous Old Mountain Hostel Destroyed by Fire.

Chattanooga, Nov. 18.—Famous old Lookout Inn, on the crest of Lookout mountain, was destroyed by fire last evening, together with its contents. The owners stated that a deal had just been consummated for the sale of the inn property for a consideration of $135,000 and but for the fire the deal would have been closed today. There was but $26,000 insurance on the hotel and its furnishings. Aside from the hotel, four cottages and their contents were destroyed, entailing a loss estimated at $15,000.

The general theory is that a defective flue is responsible for the fire. From the city the fire was a spectacular one during its early progress, but soon the mountain was entirely enveloped in a dense cloud of smoke. With the coming of darkness, however, the smoke cleared and the outline of the crest of old Lookout was marked by a rim of red fire, with the downward mark resembling a huge figure "9." The hotel was completed in 1889 and contained about 400 rooms. Prince Henry of Prussia pronounced it the most ideal spot he had ever visited and the scenery more gorgeous than that of the Swiss Alps.

SPLIT IN THE TEMPERANCE RANKS.

Anti-Saloon League to Ignore Prohibition Party in Future.

Des Moines, Nov. 13.—At a secret session of the central district convention of the American Anti-Saloon league it was decided to adopt a policy ignoring the Prohibition party entirely. Trickery on the part of the Prohibitionists during the recent campaign in Nebraska was openly charged. It was further declared that amalgamation with the party had resulted in failure and defeat for the Anti-Saloon league in every state where it had been attempted.

State superintendents present asserted that the Prohibition party was their greatest foe in the fight to secure the election of men favorable to temperance legislation. The liquor interests took advantage of this fact, said the league officials, and used every means to further split the temperance ranks. National Superintendent Baker made an address, in which he pointed out the disadvantages of any co-operation with the Prohibitionists.

Will Recognize Old Acquaintances.

The many people on the stage during the performance of George Ade's notable drama, "The County Chairman," which comes to the Auditorium Saturday night, does not merely form a background. You will recognize the village smart clerk, the fellows who hang around the depot, those always in front of the postoffice and never get any mail, the oldest inhabitant, the village milliner who is a flirt, the man who keeps the general store, the station agent, the noisy fellow who is always talking about subjects that he only understands vaguely, the tousled hair boy who has been in swimming, the village orphan who waits on the table in the boarding house, and many others, some playing leading parts, some have not a word to say, but all are part of the picture. George Ade has been able to write a play like "The County Chairman" because he was brought up in a little village of the west himself and knows just what he was talking about. Being a politician he shows many "gun shoe" methods employed in politics.

FOR LOVERS OF COMEDY.

"The County Chairman" Appeals to Them Most of All.

George Ade's quaint comedy "The County Chairman," which will be presented at the Auditorium Saturday night evidently has no rivals in the esteem of the public for its long and long triumph attested by packed houses which approve with delighted laughter the many drobbled and drawn types and plectral comedies of the play. "The County Chairman" appeals especially to the lovers of comedy, and the graphic and realistic portrayal of characters which Ade has transferred from his own life to a fund of merriment in the hands of who appreciate clean and fully painted human nature. Ade said of it:

"The production is radically different from any of the other comedies. It is a plain every day comedy of an election for prosecuting attorney in a rural county in the mid-west, some time in the '80's. In the '80's is a somewhat indefinite period, just far away to give us a tinted perspective of things that happened then. We all remember a county campaign, the opposing candidates, the bitter rivalry, the oratory from stumps and the bedecked platform and store boxes."

We all remember the fife and drum corps and the villagers marching in parade carrying banners. The village loafer, who never worked except when there was a campaign; we know the village milliner and the village school teacher, and by just shutting his eyes one minute when a strapping youngster rode in on an ordinary bicycle of the vintage of '80 odd, every man in the audience could transport himself back to a situation like that seen on the stage.

The story is of a political campaign, with an office at stake for which there are two candidates, one an elderly skinflint and the other a young lawyer just starting out, who is in love with the pretty daughter of the rival candidate.

Take Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities, and avoid a serious malady.

Sometimes there are instances in life like those in story books: An Atchison girl engaged herself to a carpenter, thinking he was poor, and discovered on the eve of her wedding day that he had $150 in the bank. He had not told her, wishing her to love him for himself alone.

TOP NOTCH SHOW SATURDAY NIGHT.

"The County Chairman" Corking Good Comedy.

IT BUBBLES OVER WITH MIRTH.

Early Seat Sale Indications Point to Packed House for George Ade's Famous Comedy, Which Will Be Splendidly Played Here Saturday.

From the number of seats that were sold during the first hour of the advance sale on "The County Chairman," George Ade's superb comedy which comes to the Norfolk Auditorium Saturday night of this week, it is evident that one of the largest audiences of the season will greet the play when the curtain rises. And nobody will make a mistake in going.

In my opinion "The County Chairman" is the best play that has been brought to Norfolk in five years," said a prominent Norfolk man who saw the comedy and play only two weeks ago at the large cities.

A Satire on Politics.

This rich comedy is a funny satire on politics. It is the local "The County Chairman" and all will be recognized as a comedy of the highest quality. It is a satire on politics. The comedy is a satire on politics. The comedy is a satire on politics.

Save People Coming.

Save people coming. Save people coming. Save people coming. Save people coming.

Auditorium management has guaranteed the attraction in order to induce it to play Norfolk. This is done because of a lasting faith in the loyalty of Norfolk people toward high quality, wholesome, metropolitan theatrical attractions.

Incidentally it might be tipped off that upon Norfolk's patronage of such attractions as "The County Chairman," when they are brought to town, depends the future possibility of booking other first-rank shows. "The Man of The Hour," is to be in this vicinity within a couple of months. Fremont is trying to get it by raising a $500 guarantee. If Norfolk gives a packed house to "The County Chairman" the chances are good for getting Fremont's date on "The Man of The Hour."

But it is on account of the real merits of "The County Chairman"—one of the very best comedies that has ever been brought to Norfolk, that the Auditorium should be packed Saturday night.

The attraction is a regular $1.50 show. By a special guarantee arrangement the management was able to place the prices at 25c, 50c, 75c and $1, in the hope of filling the house.
