

Try Dime Novel Careers.

Sloux Falls, S. D., May 26.—Special to The News: With the object of proving themselves as great heroes as the heroes depicted in some of the dime novels they had been reading, three young boys whose parents reside upon farms in the vicinity of Andover, went upon the rampage, and before the heavy hand of the law could be laid upon them they had done considerable damage upon the farms in the vicinity of their homes. They started their "career" of crime by shooting and killing a valuable dog belonging to a neighboring farmer named William Boyd. Then they raided adjoining farms, taking apart bugles and farm machinery, letting great quantities of seed grain out upon the ground, shooting through windows of farm houses and committing other acts of devilry. They finally were rounded up by officers and taken before an Andover justice, who fined them an aggregate amount of $97 for their "fun." The three boys, whose ages range from 10 to 16, also have terms in the state reform school starting them in the face.

DEFEAT SIMMONS.

Olaf Nelson of Yankton Heads Workmen, Winning by Single Vote. Pierre, S. D., May 28.—After a hard day's caucusing Olaf Nelson of Yankton won election to the office of grand master workman at midnight over T. M. Simmons of Huron. Twelve thousand votes were cast, Nelson winning by one vote only. Other officers are: J. D. Lavin of Aberdeen, grand recorder; J. F. Smith, grand overseer; S. H. Goodfellow, foreman; J. E. Platte of Clark, receiver; Dan Newell of Sturgis, grand judge; Emil Cullin of Highmore, inside watch; F. S. Rowe of Fort Pierre, outside watch; C. W. Dilger of Rapid City, trustee. Representatives to the grand lodge for next year's meeting, which will be held at Deadwood: Sol Starr of Deadwood, S. D.; T. M. Crane of Redfield, and T. M. Simmons of Huron.

What was designed as the administration plank based on the Nebraska plan of assessment, was adopted as the rate for insurance, the minimum being 60 cents on $1,000 under 25 years of age, and the maximum $2 for 60 years and over. The problem of adjustment of rates played an important part in the selection of the head officer, Simmons standing practically for the old rate, while Secretary J. D. Lavin of Aberdeen has gone on record for an adjustment and a decided raise in the rates over those now in force.

Officers elected by the D. of H. are for the following two years: Mrs. Emma Court of Spearfish, grand chief of honor; Mrs. Emma Thayer of Brookings, grand lady of honor; Mrs. Etta Dore of Milbank, grand chief of ceremonies; Mrs. Kate Sessions-Holmes, grand recorder; Mrs. Mary Noyes Farr of Pierre, grand receiver; Mrs. Cox of Sloux Falls, grand usher; Sophia D. Pfeiffer of Parker, grand outside watch; Mrs. Graybill of Lead, grand inside watch.

FOREST CITY WANTS TRADE.

Fight is to be Made by Merchants Near Cheyenne River Reserve. Sloux Falls, S. D., May 28.—Special to The News: The business men of Forest City are laying plans to make a strong fight to capture and retain the trade of a vast section of country directly across the Missouri river from that place, now included in the Cheyenne River Indian reservation. The tract will be disposed of under the lottery system and it is believed everything will be in readiness to have the drawing some time during the coming fall.

The rival towns for the trade of a large part of the tract to be opened, especially the southern portion, are Forest City and LeBeau, both situated on the east bank of the Missouri river. LeBeau at present is the terminus of the Minneapolis & St. Louis railroad, which is expected to extend a line westward when the Cheyenne reservation is opened to settlement. This would give LeBeau a decided advantage over Forest City, but notwithstanding this the people of the latter town are not discouraged.

They believe they will be able to figure out some plan by which they can capture and retain the trade of at least the Fox Ridge region, which lies directly west of Forest City. Some of the more aggressive residents of Forest City even intimate that if necessary they will be prepared when the time comes to extend a branch line of railroad of their own into the tract to be opened, and thus monopolize the trade of the region for their own town.

Dakotan Acquitted of Murder. Sturgis, S. D., May 28.—Emerson Eichler, accused of the murder of Fred Bolinsack, was found not guilty by a jury. Eichler claimed the killing of Bolinsack was accidental.

County Attorney Won't Act. Neligh, Neb., May 28.—Special to The News: Jefferson Eddy, who shot Barney Hansen last Monday afternoon outside of the justice court room at Brunswick, was brought to this city on Wednesday, but the county attorney failed to see any necessity of filing an information before the county judge. The prisoner was taken back to Brunswick and placed under bonds.

Eddy claims that he fired his revolver in self defense, as he was afraid of personal injuries from Hansen, who is a much larger and younger man.

No improvement has been apparent in the injured limb of Hansen. As was previously stated in The News, the bone was badly shattered and amputation is feared. The patient was taken to Sloux City yesterday and placed in a hospital.

C. J. Lindstrom, who has given up his place as joint cashier for the Union Pacific and M. & O. railroads here in order to take a place as agent with the M. & O., has been temporarily assigned to Jackson, Neb., as agent for the M. & O. Until a definite assignment is made Mr. and Mrs. Lindstrom will have their household goods stored at Jackson.

Some dissatisfaction seems to exist in regard to the change of time in the departure of the Union Pacific accommodation train to Columbus, the time of departure having recently been advanced from 2 until 1 o'clock. Norfolk business men complain that the shopping time of people who come up the Columbus branch to visit Norfolk stores is too much curtailed. Complaint also comes from Madison lawyers and others who have business to transact here. Norfolk people who are in the habit of going down to Madison on the afternoon train view the change differently, some saying that the additional time in Madison is desirable, others that it brings the two Madison trains too close together and that a person who has to go at 1 p. m. might as well go at 11 a. m. The change especially inconveniences those who come in at the Junction at noon and seek to go south. A Battle Creek girl came in recently to take the teachers' examination at Madison and, finding the train gone, had to drive overland. She contracted a cold and has been ill in Madison with pneumonia. Madison live stock shippers are quoted in the Madison papers as saying that the change means an hour more for the stock in shipment and that they are opposed to the early start for this reason. An effort will undoubtedly be made to have the train put back until 2 o'clock.

Ex-Sheriff George W. Losey of Battle Creek is in the city visiting friends. A district convention of rural carriers will be held in this city Monday.

Governor Schallenberger, the orator at the Norfolk high school commencement exercises at the Auditorium, spoke to the high school graduates at Lyons Thursday evening before coming to Norfolk. Tuesday he spoke at Ravenna and Wednesday at Kearney. Saturday the governor closes his week's trip with an address at Crete. Among the out-of-town visitors were: G. Wenke, Carl Scheninger, Plainview; John Neyour, Miss Maude Gibbons, Creighton; Henry Schwartz, Winnetoon; Maude Davis, Madison; Jake Van Norrman, Chas. Schramm and W. L. Beatty, Foster; John A. Ehrhardt, Stanton; Mrs. Edmund Scott, Lake Andes; S. D.; C. H. Stewart, Pierce; P. M. Fulton, Burke; S. D.; Mrs. J. F. Boyd, Neligh; F. L. McNown, Winslow; D. G. Shannon, Gregory; Joseph Coombs, Spencer; K. G. Anderson, Wakefield, and R. S. Dickman, Columbus.

Again the new marshal, Bernard Risk, and the moon made friends. Like his predecessors, the moonbeams taken to Sloux City yesterday and placed in a hospital.

Associated Harvard Clubs.

Cincinnati, O., May 29.—The Associated Harvard clubs, in their morning session that convened at 10:30 o'clock, elected Thomas W. Slocum of New York, class of '09, as president. Cleveland, Ohio, was selected as the next meeting place in May, 1910.

Police Feel Confident.

The police had no opportunity during the night to communicate with Union Pacific officials and made no attempt at identification. Chief Briggs, however, believes he has secured the right men and that he will soon be able to unearth additional evidence. He is sure Gordon and the fourth man have a room in Omaha which has not yet been located, and search is now being made for it.

"Beat It; Here Comes the Police."

The police dragnet was put out for the fourth man, who made his escape. The capture of the other three was not made without considerable difficulty. The first of prisoners to see the detectives shouted to his companions to "Beat it; here comes the police." All four started to run, with the detectives in pursuit. One was stopped by a detective near where he was discovered and the other two ran into the arms of an officer.

They were unarmed but showed some disposition to resist. The officer, however, forced them at the point of a revolver to surrender. The fourth man escaped to the Missouri river bottoms.

The Omaha automobile patrol hurried to the scene and brought Gordon and Tortenson to Omaha in the search of the latter's room.

Gordon Fits Robber Description.

Gordon fits well the description given by the Union Pacific trainmen of the younger of the four who held up the Overland and Woods, who gives evidence of being the leader, has a manner of speech similar to that described by Engineer Mike Johnson.

Desperate Men Without Doubt.

"The elaborate equipment of this gang is evidence sufficient to indicate they are desperate men," declared Chief Briggs. "I have never seen a better layout in my experience. There can be no doubt these men have pulled off some good jobs, and I believe further developments will show that they are the men we are looking for."

Discovery of the Revolvers.

The discovery of the revolvers was made by a pupil of Brown Parks school, who was playing in the vicinity. The cache where the stuff was hidden was under a bank overlooking the Missouri river. He brought the revolver to his teacher, Mrs. Nora Freeman, who notified the police. Detectives kept watch of the place, believing the owners would return for their revolvers.

Now Hunt for Mail Pouches.

The place where the revolvers were found is about three miles from the scene of the hold-up and is an admirable place for "planting."

Further Search Will be Made Today.

In the hope of finding some of the missing mail pouches.

Try to Trace Hat.

Portland, Ore., May 28.—Efforts made here today to trace the man "Gordon" arrested in Omaha on suspicion in connection with the Union Pacific robbery were unsuccessful. S. Rosenblatt and Co. have no recollection of selling a hat to anyone of that name.

May Not Sell Any Kind of Fish.

Madison, Neb., May 28.—Special to The News: The impression seems to prevail in some localities that there is no law now prohibiting the sale of catfish.

Dan Gellus, Chief Game Warden.

Lincoln, Neb., in a letter to Deputy Game Warden J. B. Donovan, dated May 22, 1909, says:

"In regard to the sale of fish I beg to advise you that the sale of all fish taken from the public waters of this state is prohibited by law at all times of the year under penalty. A bill permitting the sale of carp, buffalo, catfish, suckers and gars was passed by the recent legislature. This bill was also approved by the governor, but, owing to a discrepancy in the bill, it is null and void. It provides for no appeal of the section of the old law in conflict therewith. I consulted the attorney general regarding this matter and he informed me that the courts have held that bills of this nature do not become operative and therefore the old law is still in effect."

Unruh Too Weak to Stand.

Madison, Neb., May 28.—Special to The News: Peter Unruh was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. His daughter accompanied him and, being too weak physically to remain standing during the arraignment, he was permitted to be seated. Counsel for the defense filed a demurrer, but the court overruled it as to seven counts and sustained it as to three counts. The case was continued until the fall term.

In the case of Anna Margardt.

against James F. Walton, the court instructed the jury to find a verdict for the plaintiff. This was an action to recover for services rendered by the plaintiff as nurse for Walton's wife. The defendant made no defense.

The afternoon was taken up with the case of Mrs. Papstein vs. J. J. Clements.

Mrs. Papstein sued Sheriff Clements to recover value of goods he took from the place where she resided under a writ of ejectment. As a most suitable and convenient place of storage he took them to Norfolk, and plaintiff claims they were destroyed and she sued to recover damages for conversion of property. Attorney A. R. Oleson of Wisner was present as a witness in this case, he owning the farm from which the plaintiff was ejected. J. C. Engelman is attorney for the prosecution and M. D. Tyler for the defense.

Replevin action was commenced in the district court today by Burr Taft against Andrew Nord.

Signers to Referendum.

Madison Originating in Pennington County Sanctioned by Wood. Rapid City, S. D., May 27.—Mayor Chauncey L. Wood of Rapid City, who has taken a lead in the circulation of a petition asking a referendum vote on the law passed by the last legislature giving the governor power of removal of local officials, states that he has been informed that a sufficient number of signatures have been secured to assure a vote on the law. The petition was largely signed in Pennington county, particularly in Rapid City. The bill provides that all constitutional officers of the state, not liable to impeachment and all elective county, township, city, municipal and precinct officers, except members of the legislature, can be removed from office by the governor after notice of hearing for misconduct, malfeasance or crime or misdemeanor, has been given. Heretofore the law has given power to remove part of these officials, the act of the last legislature simply extending the governor's authority. It had its origin in a request for its introduction by a minister of the state.

Neligh and Stanton to Play.

Neligh, Neb., May 29.—Special to The News: The challenge recently issued by the members of the high school baseball team claiming the championship of northeast Nebraska, has been questioned by the Stanton high school team, and they have consented to play the Neligh boys at the Riverside ball park next Monday afternoon. This promises to be the most interesting game of the season, as Stanton is credited with putting up a fast article of ball, and the home boys not having lost a game this year, are going to make the effort of their lives in retaining a clean record.

HEROIC RESCUE.

Brave Deed of South Dakota Man on Stormy Lake. Madison, S. D., May 29.—Friends of Charles Parker will call the attention of the Carnegie hero fund commission to his remarkable rescue of a party of five from Lake Madison last Sunday, and suggest that he be unquestionably entitled to decoration by a hero medal.

Parker and son and John Uthe with three sons were rowing on Lake Madison Sunday when the wind, which developed into a gale, began washing water into the boat. It became evident that the party would sink very shortly, with the boat taking more water every moment. Parker accordingly leaped into the water and, taking the rope attached to one end of the boat in his hand, struck out for the shore. The task of towing a boat loaded with five persons a half mile through four foot waves to the shore would have appalled a less vigorous swimmer than Parker. As it was, he was compelled to drop the boat twice and rescue a child of Uthe and carry him to shore. Notwithstanding his three journeys, in which he traveled about a mile and one-third through the water, Parker succeeded in landing the boat with its three remaining occupants.

To make his task more difficult, Uthe, who could not swim, held his senses and tried to cling to the already overburdened swimmer and Parker was compelled to fight him off. After reaching the shore, the party
