Thirteen Prizes Given in The Daily News Contest---All of Them Are Now on Display in the Stores of Norfolk Merchants. They are High Class.

SEE YOUR FRIENDS AND RELATIVES AT ONCE Do Not Allow Some Other Contestant to Get Your Friends Pledged to Her Support Before You Awake to This Proposition. See Them First.

The special offer for new subscribers closes Saturday night, October 2, at 10 p. m. The contest closes October 23, at 11 p. m. Do not get these dates confused.

THE GRAND PRIZE.

One Four-Cylinder 30 H.P. Overland Automobile purchased from A. Koyen, local dealer, and H. Van Brunt, Council Bluffs, Ia., distributor. Four $350 pianos. One of these is the world renowned H. P. Nelson piano and was purchased from the H. R. Ward Piano company, who are the exclusive factory agents for this piano. The other three instruments are the celebrated Hammond make and were purchased from the C. S. Hayes piano house, where they are now on display.

Four Full One-Year Courses in the Wayne Normal school of Wayne, Neb. Four Beautifully Engraved Ladies' Gold Watches, two of which are now on display in the show windows of George H. Burton, and the other two in the show windows of Scofield & Wetzel. Both of the above named local dealers will be glad to have you call and inspect the watches.

counts twenty votes and a girl can be nominated as many times as she can get blanks. With the passing of each day the interest in the contest is spreading more and more and the enthusiasm of the contestants is reaching a higher pitch. From the impetus given the work of gathering the free popular votes during the past few days, it is an assured fact that the project will be one of the greatest successes ever conducted by any newspaper.

Both in the city and in the territory outside of the city over which the contest extends, there is the element of activity that bespeaks favorable for some great things during the next few weeks, or even days. Every day many votes are received from the candidates or their friends which completely changes the aspect of the contest in certain districts. Without doubt, the contest now in progress and by which the winners of the grand prizes will be decided, will become the greatest and most gigantic ever attempted by any newspaper before it is brought to a close October 23, 1909. The votes that will decide who will be the winners, are free to patrons.

Votes are allowed to patrons upon payment for subscriptions, for new subscriptions and also by coupons printed in the paper daily. No increase in the price of the subscription is made; to the contrary, there is a saving in paying in advance, and it is, therefore, a pleasure for the candidates to go among their friends and solicit their votes in the contest that will prove the ability of the young women in the counties over which the contest extends.

Either an automobile, a piano, a gold watch or a scholarship, can be won by any contestant who is industrious enough to organize her friends and wage an aggressive campaign. The prizes are magnificent and they will be eagerly sought for, and it will stand the candidate well in hand to always be watchful and keep up a lively interest in The Daily News contest. The prizes are rich enough to cause envy to enter any heart and every one in the territory mentioned as being included in the contest would gladly be made the recipient of any of them. They will be distributed only in accordance with the wishes of the people who live in the different communities and it, therefore, behooves every candidate to be up and doing all the time. Call upon your friends, telephone them, write to them and get them to aid and assist you in your campaign for the free votes that mean so much.

Remember that there are thirteen prizes in all, contestants in any certain district are in no way competing with any other district for any of the prizes, with the exception of the touring car, which will be given to the contestant securing the largest number of votes in the entire contest. There will be one $350 piano, one full course scholarship in the Wayne Normal school and one gold watch will be given in each and every district; if the touring car is won in your district, the contestant second highest in the same district will be declared the winner of one of the four $350 pianos.

Subscriptions Ballots. The contestants in the outside districts can send in the subscriptions as soon as secured and the votes to which they are entitled will be mailed to them, and can be voted at once or saved by them for a reserve. By doing this the paper can be started to the subscriber at once, which will enlarge your campaign.

The contest manager is at The Daily News office and is prepared to answer all questions of those who call or write to him. Call on the contest manager and he will prepare you for making a campaign that will accomplish wonders.

Second Payments. A great many people do not understand, and for their information we wish to say that anyone starting to take the paper since the contest started will always be considered a new subscriber during the life of the contest and votes given accordingly. If you start the paper now and pay something in advance and wish to pay more later during the contest you will still be considered a new subscriber and votes will be issued accordingly.

Subscription Books. If you are not provided with a subscription book notify the contest department and they will forward one to you at once. If any of the contestants are not getting the paper we will be very glad to place them on the free list during the contest.

When Votes Are Counted. All votes received here before 1 p. m. will appear in the day following afternoon issue of The Daily News. The standing of the contestants as it appears today only includes all votes cast before 1 p. m. Monday.

Future Orders. In some cases contestants will find that prospective subscribers are now paid in advance for some other paper and do not desire to have two daily papers at the same time. In order that candidates may secure these subscriptions, we will hold their paper until they order it.

Open Evenings. For the benefit of those who are not able to get to this office during business hours the contest department will be open every evening.
