last week and, although they were not injured they very easily could have been. Riders should warn people walking in front of them. Dr. J. W. Mahood will deliver a lecture on "The King Is Coming" at the First Methodist Episcopal church at 7:45 this evening. The Georges will sing. The lecture by Dr. Mahood on "What An Earthquake Did" was heard by a large audience. Dr. Mahood was in San Francisco during the earthquake and very nearly lost his life.

tract they were to release it and give absolute title at the end of four years. When the sugar factory was abandoned, four years ago, the sugar company agreed to give possession of the buildings and land to the Norfolk Industrial company, which is composed of the men who originally donated to the sugar factory fund.

Registered on the Thirteenth. Engel defied superstition and registered on the thirteenth of the month. That was on Wednesday. Last night he left Butte for Gregory to find out whether his having filed on a Tripp county claim will make it impossible for him to take advantage of his new good fortune.

iversity, he has absorbed all the atmosphere which attaches to football traditions of the east. His father a professor in a preparatory school, Coy was brought up among youngsters whose ambition was some day to figure on the football field, or the diamond, or in the shell for one of the large universities of the east.

were awakened by the noise of corn kernels hitting the glass. Sunday will be Halloween, but it will be generally observed Saturday. Congressman E. W. Norris of McCook addressed an audience of school teachers, pupils and others interested, at the high school auditorium yesterday afternoon on the "Panama Canal."

TUESDAY TOPICS.

Burt Mapes returned from Meadow Grove. Hans Rowher went to Pender on business. Mrs. R. S. Lackey has returned from a visit in Iowa. G. D. Butterfield returned from Standing Rock, S. D. Deputy Game Warden J. B. Donovan of Madison came to Norfolk Monday night.

It seems that after working hours Saturday evening Nordwig returned to the shop, got out some blank checks on the different banks, from his employer's desk and, choosing one of the Madison State bank checks, filled it in for the above amount, and forged Mr. Koerber's name to it.

Chas. Nordwig Again a Forger. Madison Chronicle: Charles Nordwig of Norfolk, who has been working for several weeks in Otto Koerber's tailor shop in this city, is on the list of "missing but wanted" since Sunday evening, on account of forging his employer's name to a check for $20.50 and getting the check cashed.

He has no thought of selling his chance for first selection of a farm. Aberdeen, S. D., Oct. 27.—When the name of William J. Engel of Butte, Neb., was announced by Judge Witten as the drawer of the first number in the Cheyenne and Standing Rock land lottery, cheers went up from the throats of the thousands who had waited out of curiosity for operation of the drawing.

He made ten touchdowns for Yale last year, and there are some who believe that if he had been allowed to run once more in the Harvard game when he was close to the goal, Yale would have scored a touchdown. The Crimson was watching him in every play however, and almost all of the Harvard defense was devoted to stopping Coy. Princeton was not so fortunate.

Miss Rose Kirschner and Edward Flx drove to Madison, where they were married at noon. Although the young couple tried various means of escaping their friends, they were unsuccessful. While at breakfast a large tray full of knives was brought to them and taken up by a large number of transient people at the Pacific hotel.

JEFFRIES WILL SURELY FIGHT.

Former Champion's Word as Good as a Cash Forfeit. Kansas City Star: The return of James J. Jeffries with the light of battle in his eyes comes as pleasing news to the followers of biffdom and the athletic promoters. While Jeffries was actively engaged in jugging his fellowmen his word was always as good as a cash forfeit, but since his retirement many of his former admirers have reached the stage where they believe that he has been dimming the pugilistic horizon with threats simply for advertising purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hans of Battle Creek were in the city. Miss Mattie Smith of Schuyler is here visiting friends. W. J. Dowling of Madison was calling on Norfolk friends. E. P. Weatherly is back from a business trip to David City. Mrs. C. B. Montgomery and children of Pilger were in the city.

Norfolk Beats Columbus, 12-0. The Norfolk high school football team won its game at Columbus Saturday against the Columbus high school football team, 12 to 0, in an sensational and spectacular gridiron contest as is put up by most of the big college teams.

Some Spectacular Runs. There were some spectacular runs. At one time Columbus intercepted the ball in their own territory on a forward pass by Norfolk, and the Columbus runner chased down the field for seventy yards, to within three yards of the goal line, when Kelleher caught and downed him.

Street Car Company Fights. Omaha Company Declares There is No Cause for State's Acting. Lincoln, Oct. 27.—John L. Webster, representing the Omaha Street Railway company, filed with the state railway commission a demurrer to the petition of citizens of Omaha who asked that the commission investigate the capitalization and fare charges of the company.

WEDNESDAY WRINKLES. The West Side Whist club meets with Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Parker tomorrow night. There will be a regular meeting of Beulah chapter, No. 40, O. E. S., Thursday evening in Masonic hall.

HELP FOR STRICKEN BABIES. New York Doctor Reports Progress in Fight on Infantile Paralysis. In a lecture in New York on infantile paralysis Dr. I. Strauss told of his efforts to discover a remedy for the disease, which became epidemic in Brownsville, Brooklyn, last August, killing scores of children.

It will be Johnson, not Jeffries who will dodge the issue," said the retired champion. "I will be on hand to fight on a winner take-all basis and then you will see that the negro has only been bluffing—simply looking for a healthy losing end of a large purse." Although Jeffries has not engaged in a fight for more than five years—and his last engagement wasn't a real fight, Jack Munroe being his opponent—he believes that he can get into condition—at least be good enough to whip the negro. Jeffries is only 33 years old, but he has been far from an exemplary young man.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Conrad of Hadar were in the city Tuesday visiting friends. Fred Feyerherm, county treasurer of Stanton county, was in the city Tuesday. Mrs. M. Crotty, who is here visiting friends, returned to her home at Pierre this evening.

No 1 May Not Get Claim. The register and receiver of the land office at Gregory declined to state whether or not William D. Engel, having filed on a quarter section in Tripp county four days ago, will be eligible to take advantage of his good fortune in the Standing Rock and Cheyenne drawing.

Yale's Greatest Player. Ted Coy to be a Conspicuous Figure in Football This Year. "Ted" Coy of Yale, no matter what happens, is bound to be one of the most important figures on the green gridiron this year. He is captain of his team and in his last year as an Eli. He will have served the allotted time in football when he finishes in the final game with Harvard, which will be played at Cambridge in November.

Evangelistic services start at the Christian church tonight at 7:30. Mr. and Mrs. Clutter, evangelists, will conduct the services. J. S. Mathewson, Darius Mathewson and C. P. Mathewson of Walthill returned from a week's camping near Newport. Although the ducks were not so plentiful, there was enough game to afford a fine week's outing.

Chances to find a servant "as good as mother used to have" are offered to users of the want ads. Perhaps you can write the most eagerly read ad that will appear in tomorrow's paper—say a help wanted ad!

For the last year, however, the big fellow has cut out the "grape" and late hours, and there is no doubt but what he has been really trying to find out whether he can "return." He has always said that he would never fight the negro unless he was positively satisfied that he could stand a long siege of training. He has been doing light work for the last six months and it is evident now that he believes that he is due for more honors in the squared circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koss, who have been here visiting with the George B. Christoph family, returned to their home at Fremont. Mr. Koss is a member of the state pharmacy board. The Wednesday club meets Wednesday with Mrs. J. S. McClary. N. A. Rainbolt made a fine catch of two good sized fish yesterday afternoon.

Chief of Police Marquardt says Nordwig left Norfolk Monday for Sioux City. County Attorney Nichols was here from Madison yesterday and told Chief Marquardt that no warrant has yet been issued for the man, and that he would telephone in case one was issued.

Team of Horses Burn. Valentine, Neb., Oct. 27.—A fire broke out at night in an old barn near the depot and it was totally destroyed, burning a fine team of horses that were in the barn at the time. It is supposed to have started from tramps. The team belonged to a rancher who had just bought them and intended to take them out to his place.

W. C. T. U. Session Ends. Omaha, Oct. 27.—The closing day of the thirty-sixth annual convention of the national Women's Christian Temperance union was devoted to reports of organizers and superintendents. As customary, the morning session was preceded by an hour of song and prayer. The franchise, work among the soldiers and sailors and the importance of physical education were subjects of addresses by the superintendents of the union.
