

PEOPLE'S PULPIT...

Sermon by CHARLES T. RUSSELL, Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle.

Three Men and Two Women Whom Jesus Loved.

Text, "Lord, He Whom Thou Lovest Is Sick."

Chicago, June 26.—Pastor Russell of the Brooklyn Tabernacle preached here twice today in Orchestra Hall. As usual he had a large and attentive audience.

All men who have any knowledge of Jesus esteem him—Christians, Gentiles, and Jews. All men whatever their religious convictions are ready to admit the surpassing personality of the great Nazarene and his wonderful words of life.

Let it not be supposed that we are forgetting the length and breadth of Jesus' love for all of his disciples, you, for all who loved righteousness and sought, as he did, to do the Father's will.

"Jesus Beholding Him Loved Him." The rich young nobleman who came to the Lord said, Rabbi, what good thing shall I do that I may inherit the Kingdom of God?

All Bible students surely have noticed how frequently in the Scriptures the word "sleep" is used as a poetical synonym for death.

In no uncertain terms the Master gave the young man to see that while he had been keeping, probably to the best of his ability, the commands of the deacon, he had only imperfectly discerned the meaning of the Divine requirement of love for his neighbor as for himself.

What could we surmise respecting the eternal destiny of this young man who had been striving so earnestly to keep the Law and to gain eternal life, and who turned from Jesus and declined to take up the cross and follow him?

Justice would send such a man to eternal torment under these conditions! If there were such a penalty over him could we suppose that Jesus would have allowed him to go without urging him strenuously, without at least warning him, that by his course he was making the choice of eternal torment?

ter knew that all the people whom he addressed and who failed to accept his message would be consequently consigned to eternal torture, and that he let them go without urging the matter upon them? We could not so think! Thank God we are gradually getting free from the bondage of error fastened upon us by those who mistranslated certain words in our Bible.

We get the proper view when we remember that Jesus' message at that time was "The Gospel of the Kingdom." He was merely inviting whoever might have the ear to hear and the heart to appreciate the privilege to become associated with himself in the glorious Kingdom for which he told his disciples to pray.

"He Whom Thou Lovest Is Sick." Our text stands related to a very wonderful chapter in our Lord's ministry. Jesus with his disciples was about three days' journey from Bethany, the home of Lazarus, Martha and Mary.

All Bible students surely have noticed how frequently in the Scriptures the word "sleep" is used as a poetical synonym for death. "Abraham slept with his fathers." "David slept with his fathers." Prophets, priests and kings are said to have slept with their fathers, whether good or bad.

Coming forth in that judgment time or trial time, all the willing and obedient will eventually be lifted out of sin and death, while those disobedient to the light and opportunity will be again consigned to death—Second Death, everlasting extinction (John v. 28, 29, R. V.).

We have read our Bibles too carelessly in the past and have given too much heed to those who, with less opportunities than ourselves, grossly misinterpreted its teachings.

What could we surmise respecting the eternal destiny of this young man who had been striving so earnestly to keep the Law and to gain eternal life, and who turned from Jesus and declined to take up the cross and follow him?

when "the Sun of Righteousness shall arise with healing in its beams," when Satan shall be bound for a thousand years and deceive the peoples no more.

"Lazarus, Come Forth." Jesus and his disciples turned their steps toward Bethany. Poor Martha and Mary meantime were sorely disappointed. Not for a moment did they suppose that their mighty Friend would allow this trouble to come upon them—that he would neglect to come or to use his power to save Lazarus from dying.

What message of comfort did Jesus express? Did he say, Martha, Lazarus is far better off in heaven! He is with the angels! He is singing and very happy! Surely you would not bring him back to earth again!

No doubt the love of physical combat is rooted in our inherited nerves and in our sympathetic, but selfish and brutal desire to see Jeffries or Johnson strike hard, clever blows and endure punishment, and finally land a thrilling and irresistible blow, but if like power could be manifested in a concrete spectacular manner, in content, with the Troglodyte brutality eliminated, we would be fascinated and thrilled without being unconsciously lowered toward the point where we could watch bull fights and bloody gladiatorial contests with unconcern or delight.
