THE FAT WOMAN'S RING.

The woman showed a fat finger in whose folds of flesh was imbedded a plain gold ring. "How much will you let me have on this ring?" she said to the pawnbroker. "I can't tell until you take it off so I can weigh it," he said.

Blamed the Last One.

A man who from all appearances had dined well, but not wisely, bought a ticket at the box office of a theater where a farce was being produced in German. The man settled comfortably back in his seat, smiling at the pretty stage setting and evidently prepared to enjoy an evening of pleasant diversion.

So They Flip a Coin.

Two Norfolk men who own a half section of land in Cheyenne county together, sold it a few days ago and had to take mortgages. An equal amount of money was placed on each quarter section and two mortgages were taken. One half of the land was better than the other and an argument ensued between the sellers at a local bank.

That Rain Was General.

Reports received at the Northwestern railroad headquarters in Norfolk Wednesday showed that a good rain had fallen all over northern Nebraska as far west as Wood Lake, and north-west into the Rosebud reservation country. The rain was heavier most places than at Norfolk.

Drives Girls Like Horses.

If you were a young girl, around 14, how would you like to be hitched like a horse to a garden plow and be compelled to drag the plow across the field and back again, night after night?

Fairfax Boy is Injured.

Fairfax, S. D., July 6.—Special to The News: Lorin, 10-year-old son of Attorney Charles Milner, was thrown from a bronco and one foot held in the stirrup. The horse kicked and broke the boy's leg above the knee.

New York to See Pictures.

New York, July 6.—Mayor Gaynor said that the Jeff-Johnson fight pictures could be shown in New York city without interference on the part of the city authorities so far as he was concerned. He had no more right to stop the pictures, he said, than to stop publication of the story of the fight.

The Celebration at Stuart.

Stuart, Neb., July 6.—Special to The News: This town had one of the best celebrations in its history. The weather was ideal. In point of numbers the crowd may have been exceeded a time or two in the town's history, but a finer looking crowd was never before assembled here.

Religious Debates in Spain.

Valentine, Neb., July 6.—Special to The News: The fight between Bordeaux, a young quarterbreed, and young Hale, a white man, at Rosebud on the Fourth, in which Bordeaux got shot, seems to have been a case of self defense on Hale's part. It seems that Hale is a young eastern boy and was in the habit of going around without a hat and young Bordeaux and a few of his cronies had been taunting and making fun of Hale all day.

Strange Fishing Matches.

In the olden time in England lords and ladies sometimes invented queer amusements. They were always on the lookout for some novelty, and one of the strangest they discovered was fishing by a goose. A line with a baited hook attached having been fastened to the goose, tied to its leg, she was swung into the water from the boat in which were all the gay lords and ladies.

The Soldier Ant.

The lion is the king of beasts, but all of his magnificent strength and ferocity would avail him nothing when he faced a mere ant. But this ant is not the usual kind which peacefully goes about its domestic duties day by day. It is the terrible driver or soldier ant, said to be the most invincible creature in the world.

Salem to Honor Hawthorne.

The memory of Nathaniel Hawthorne, whose writings aroused much antagonism toward him at Salem, Mass., generations ago, is to be honored by the citizens of Salem, the Civic league having planned to erect a bronze memorial. A statue of the author, designed by Bela L. Pratt of Boston, will probably be accepted by the committee. It will cost about $30,000, which is to be subscribed for publicly. An effort will also be made by the Civic league to purchase the birth place of the noted writer.
