BRYAN TO

NOT SQUELCHED BY DEMOCRATIC STATE PLATFORM.

WANTS COUNTY OPTION ELECTION

Mr. Bryan Issues Statement in Which He Urges All Democrats in Favor of County Option to Nominate Option Candidates for Legislature.

Lincoln, July 28 .- W. J. Bryan will continue the contest for county option and the initiative and referendum.

In a statement issued today he says: "While the failure of the democratic convention to endorse county option was disappointing, still the fight for county option in the democratic party has not been in vain. In the first place, it has helped to secure a direction in favor of the initiative and referendum in both parties, and now that all parties have declared for it, there is no doubt of the necessary amendment being submitted at the next session of the legislature.

"The populist party declared for county option two years ago and it was to be expected that it would de clare for it again. The work now to be done is to secure county option can didates in every senatorial and repre sentative district. The democrats who favor county option should turn out at the primaries and nominate a candidate favorable to county option. The republicans in favor of it should be as active in securing the nomination of republican candidates favorable to county option.

"Candidates should be nominated by all parties in each district and I have no doubt that this can be done in a For One Whole Day His Name Didn't great many districts. If the demo cratic convention had endorsed county option the issue would have been elim inated from our campaign for state officials, congressman and senator."

A County Option Fight.

Minneapolis, July 28.—The Minne sota state democratic convention was called to order today for nomination of the full ticket. Congressman W. A. Hammond was temporary chairman. On account of harvest now in progress over the state, country delegates have been slow in arriving and most of them did not arrive till this morning. Interest centered in the gubernatoral nomination and the fight on county

LAWYER ROBBED ESTATES?

Charles H. Ostrander Died Bankrupt and Probably Short in Accounts. New York, July 28.-When Milo J. White, as attorney, filed an accounting in the estate of Charles H. Ostrander, the Mount Vernon lawyer, who committed suicide about a year ago, at White Plains yesterday, it developed that a man supposed to be worth several hundred thousand dollars, a leader in the community, died not only a bankrupt, but an embezzler from half a dozen estates he had in his charge. So far he is known to be short $25,000. Ostrander, who was about 60 years old, was regarded as one of the solid, substantial lawyers of Winchester county. He was married and lived with his wife and daughters in a fine mansion on Chester hill, Mount Vernon. He had lived in Westchester all his life and was the first law partner Bourke Cockran had. Cockran was teaching school at Tuckahoe when Ostrander, a young lawyer, persuaded him to study Blackstone. They entered into a partnership and mortgaged their office furniture to go to Carmel, Putnam county, to defend a man accused of murder. The defense gave a hint of ability which afterward made Cockran famous.

Would Allow Town to Have Liquor by Paying High License.

Ottumwa, Ia., July 28.-Such town ships and municipalities of Iowa as are willing to pay a high license for the sake of trafficking in liquor may do so in the event of democratic suc cess at the forthcoming gubernatorial election. At least the platform adopted at the convention of that party here says so, but the pledge was not made without a fight, both in committee and on the floor. Former Congressman Wade, chairman of the resolutions committee, defended the plank against a vigorous assault on the party of

J. B. Weaver. "I am tired of belonging to a party which is known as the liquor party, declared Mr. Wade. "Where a majority of a community desire liquor, it should have it and vice versa. That is personal liberty, and it is democracy." Mr. Weaver grew vehement in re-
