A LOST MINE FOUND AGAIN

Old Santa Fe Teresa Gold Mine in Mexico Is Rediscovered.

Bisbee, Ariz., Oct. 7.—Mexican officials at Cananea yesterday announced the rediscovery of the old Santa Fe Teresa gold mine, one of the few really "lost" mines of the southwest which was known to have been worked by the Spaniards more than a century ago, and which has been lost since 1810.

The main shaft was well preserved, but the timbers had been removed and the earth caved in. Two skeletons were found at the bottom of the shaft. Indians had kept possession of the mine so long that its location had become a mystery to the Mexicans. The Mexican government is now making arrangements to take charge of the mine.

FLOODS IN OHIO VALLEY

Eleven Inches of Rain Fall Within Forty-Eight Hours.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 7.—Almost unprecedented rains have fallen in the lower Ohio river valley in the last three days and threaten to reach flood stage soon. In the last thirty-six hours the river at Paducah, Ky., has risen 6.5 feet and continues to rise. At Evansville, Ind., the river was rising at the rate of 3 of a foot an hour. The rainfall at the latter point totaled eleven inches in forty-eight hours, breaking the record.

At Louisville, Owensboro, and other points in Kentucky, Evansville, Booneville and other places in southern Indiana, the rain has caused much damage.

Bridges have been carried away, crops destroyed and railroad tracks washed away.

A dispatch from Booneville, Ind., says 500 persons are homeless and that the deluge has destroyed much property in southern Indiana. Damages to bridges and roads in six counties in Kentucky have been placed at half a million.

NOMINATED AS A OUMMY

Democrats in Massachusetts Name Man who Agrees to Withdraw.

Boston, Oct. 7.—Although the democrats of Massachusetts after a stormy thirteen hours' convention at Faneuil Hall early today nominated Frederick W. Mansfield of Boston for governor, the party probably will have another candidate to oppose Governor Eben S. Draper in the coming campaign. Mr. Mansfield's selection was a temporary expedient, made when a decision on the two candidates before the convention became impossible, and was intended to fulfill the legal requirement that the nominee's name be filed with the secretary of state by 5 p. m. today. It is understood Mr. Mansfield will withdraw to make way for a candidate chosen by a committee appointed for the purpose.

This committee also will select a candidate for lieutenant governor. The withdrawal of the three candidates and the active participation of a squad of policemen enabled the convention, which convened at noon yesterday to adjourn at 1:30 a. m. today after nominating Mr. Mansfield. The remainder of the state ticket nominated is:

Secretary of state, A. Z. E. Charest; treasurer, General B. F. Peach; auditor, Charles C. Paine; attorney general, John Ratigan.

The Foss and Vahey leaders at 1:15 a. m., presented the conference solution of the difficulty—the nomination of Mansfield with the understanding he would withdraw in favor of some one else within seventy-two hours after the filing of nomination papers. The convention accepted the proposition and a committee consisting of Vahey supporters and two Foss men was appointed to choose a permanent candidate for governor and lieutenant governor. This committee went into conference with the state committee this forenoon.

HEADS NEBRASKA BANKERS.

GEORGE N. SEYMOUR.

All northern Nebraska feels pride in the selection of George N. Seymour of Elgin as president of the Nebraska Bankers' association.

Mr. Seymour started his banking career in Neligh in 1888, when he accepted a position in the Merchants bank of Neligh, which has been out of existence for many years. After a short duration here he went to Elgin and started the Elgin State bank, and has been continually in that institution for twenty-two years as its president. He also holds this distinguished position in the Atlas bank of Neligh.

Upon being elected the president of the Nebraska bankers at Omaha last week and carried to the speaker's stand, in making his speech of acceptance he said he would rather be the president of the Nebraska bankers than governor of the great state of Nebraska, at the present time. He accompanied the Nebraska delegation in a special coach to the American bankers association, which is now in session at Los Angeles, Calif.

against Christ Norcker for exceeding the village speed limit for automobiles was heard on appeal from the police court of Newman Grove. Some days ago Christ Norcker, the owner of a garage at that place, was arrested charged with having violated the village ordinance limiting the speed of automobiles and was tried before the police judge and acquitted. Judge Bates dismissed the case on the grounds that the case had been once litigated and verdict for acquittal found.

BROWNE ON STAND.

This to End Sessions of Lorimer Investigating Committee.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Lee O'Neil Browne, minority leader in the legislature which elected Senator Lorimer May 26, 1909, was scheduled today to resume the witness stand before the Lorimer investigating committee. Browne denied he had ever given any money to Representative Charles A. White who testified that Browne had bribed him to vote for Senator Lorimer.

The hearing of witnesses will practically be completed with the testimony of Browne, according to the announced purpose of the counsel, unless Representative Robert E. Wilson, said to have been an agent in the payment of money to some of the legislators, is served with the subpoenae issued for him. There is probability that today will close the sessions of the committee here.

A NEW IDEA IN RATE MAKING.

Divide the Country into Districts, on Federal Court Lines, the Plan.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 7.—In a letter he wrote today to Governor Stubbs of Kansas, O. B. Colquitt, member of the Texas railroad commission and democratic nominee for governor, suggests a plan by which Texas and several other states may combine for the purpose of regulating railroad freight rates. He says in part:

"It has occurred to me that by an act of congress such states as Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas, which exchange products largely with each other, might be authorized through their state railroad commissions to fix such rates and regulations on tonnage passing between said states as may be deemed necessary and that such course would bring about a more perfect and satisfactory regulation of interstate commerce than we can ever expect through the medium and channels now employed.

"It may be well, also, to amend the interstate commerce act so as to provide for a division of the country into contiguous districts composed of the states which largely interchange or exchange products with each other and provide for the appointment of an interstate commerce commissioner for each of these districts who could frequently consult with the railroad commission of the several state comprising his district with authority to promulgate orders affecting rates for the said districts subject to revision by the full membership of the interstate commerce commission at fixed intervals or on extraordinary occasions at called sessions."

New York, Oct. 7.—The Associated Press this morning received direct from Lisbon a dispatch from Senor Bernardo Machado, the minister of foreign affairs in the newly constituted provisional government of Portugal, in which the republican leader sets forth the purposes and aims of the present government.

"The republic of Portugal has been proclaimed by the army, the navy and the people.

"The maintenance of order completely assured. There is general adhesion to the government in the provinces. The enthusiasm of the public is unsurpassed.

"The provisional government has been at a great duty, involving much work. It has in effect a country to make over. Concerning other programs, I can say that we will endeavor to put in operation the program of the republican party. This includes a policy of decent representation, both in the local administration and the government of colonies.

"The financial budget is to be equalized in the general interest of the country and it will be made up with honesty and fairness. The national wealth will be developed.

"All national alliances now existing will be respected and friendly relations with all other states are desired. "Freedom of the press will be assured and all star chamber methods and opportunist laws will be abolished.

A Public School System.

"Public instruction will be completely secularized, relieved from religious control and the religious teachings will be suppressed. We plan the establishment of a broad system of public instruction, both primary and advanced, under government endowment.

"The re-organization of the army and the navy, whose patriotic services have been beyond all praise, will be proceeded with.

"The government has profound respect for public opinion and it approaches its task with a high resolve to perform duties with unflinching honesty. It wishes to serve the best interests of the country.

"The foregoing sets forth in a few words the purposes, the acts and the earnest endeavors in these moments of anxious labor of the members of the provisional government of Portugal.

"I send the above at the request of the president of the provisional government, Theophile Braga.

(Signed) "Bernardo Machado, "Minister of Foreign Affairs."

NOVEL SUIT IS STARTED

WILLIS M'BRIDE SUING AMERICAN EXPRESS CO.

FOR REFUSING TO PAY ORDERS

A Unique Suit for Revenge Against the Elgin Agent of the American Express Company is Begun by President of National Bank of Elgin.

Neligh, Neb., Oct. 7.—Special to The News: Three novel lawsuits to get revenge against the American Express company were started in Antelope county yesterday by Willis McBride, president of the National bank of Elgin. Mr. McBride sues in three courts for refusal on the part of the express company to pay eighty-five express orders for $20 each, presented last Monday at 3:55 p. m. The express company's agent at Elgin had refused to accept drafts and insisting upon currency, whenever he had money due him.

Mr. McBride went to Omaha recently and bought $2,000 worth of express orders in $20 denominations. Eighty-five of these he presented at the Elgin office Monday and payment was refused. A protest fee of $2.02 is tacked on each order.

A representative of the express company from Chicago is said to have gone to Elgin to see Mr. McBride, trying to make a settlement, but he refused to pay the protest fee.

Suits were filed in the courts of Justice of the Peace J. W. Payne of Elgin, John L. McAllister of Neligh and County Judge Robert Wilson of Neligh. Hearing in each instance comes up next Monday.

MICHIGAN DEMOCRATS.

They Meet and Denounce Tariff Bill. Favor Bipartisan Boards.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 7.—Denunciation of the Payne tariff bill and of the congressmen from Michigan who aided in its passage, was outlined today as the strongest plank in the platform of the democratic state convention to be adopted today.

The delegates to the convention expressed pleasure over what is designated by them as the evasive tactics of the republican convention in meeting the tariff issue yesterday, and they prepared for fierce onslaught on the measure and its adherents.

The promise of bi-partisan appointments and commissions throughout the state in the event of the democratic victory was expected to largely eliminate the state issues in the fight and center the contest on the tariff and other national measures. Vigorous charges of republican misrule in the state, which was asserted in greater part to have been exposed in the previous campaign of Lawton T. Hemans, the present democratic nominee for governor, also were expected to form part of the platform.

The selection of bi-partisan commissions, it was asserted, will insure a fidelity and vigilance on the part of the state officials not to be obtained in any other manner.

TWO ARRESTS ARE MADE.

It is Believed the Times Dynamiters Have Gone a Long Distance.

Los Angeles, Oct. 7.—Two men were arrested and are being held for investigation in connection with the Times building dynamiters. They are Charles Nehr and Frank Russell. The former, according to the report turned in by the arresting officer, declared that "the unions have something else up their sleeves."

Captain Flammer indicated his belief that the men who actually blew up the Times would not be found in San Francisco. The detective chief is of the opinion that the plot to destroy the Times and the home of its owners was carefully worked out, as ample provision made beforehand for the escape of the conspirators. The arrests are expected to be made at some point far distant.

Another body was taken from the ruins. This makes seventeen bodies so far recovered. It was not identified.

The condition of the body indicates that if any others fell near it when the flames were at their height they were burned to cinders and were shoveled out and carted upon flat cars with debris to be hauled away.

WOULD KILL THE PRINCE

ASSASSINATION OF A CHINAMAN NARROWLY AVERTED.

WOULD BE SLAYER IS CAPTURED

As He was Drawing a Revolver with Which to Assassinate Prince Tsai Hsun, Uncle of Emperor of China, a San Francisco Chink is Caught.

San Francisco, Oct. 7.—An attempt to kill Prince Tsai Hsun, uncle of the emperor of China, as he stepped from the overland train at the Oakland mole half an hour before boarding the liner Chiyeo Maru for the return trip to China, was frustrated yesterday afternoon by Harry Moffitt, secret service operative, and Detective Sergeant George McMahon of the local police department when they seized George Fong, a member of the Young China association, as he was about to draw a revolver with which to fire upon the royal visitor.

Fong was handcuffed and quickly taken from the crowd that had gathered at the station to welcome the prince upon his return to this city from his visit to the east. Fong was taken across the bay on a ferry boat and hurried to Moffitt's offices where he confessed his intention to assassinate Prince Tsai Hsun. A five-chambered revolver, fully loaded, was found in his pocket. The arrest was made so quickly and quietly that neither Prince Tsai or any one of his party or members of the reception committee knew of it until the steamer was ready to sail. Then Rear Admiral Thomas S. Phelps, representing the government of the United States, on the final ceremonies attending the visitor's departure was informed by Moffitt of what had happened. Whether the prince was told of his close call from death was not learned.

In his statement to secret service men Fong denied that his action was the result of a conspiracy. He said that the organization to which he belonged, while revolutionary in tendency, is in no way responsible for his attempt to slay the prince.

Fong expressed regret that he had not accomplished his purpose, saying that he wanted to be a martyr to the cause to which he had consecrated his life and that he wanted to awaken his countrymen. He said he would have considered it an honor to have been put to death had he accomplished what he sought to do.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 7.—Miss Flora Wilson will campaign in Iowa with her father, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, which reached here today. Secretary Wilson will address a republican meeting at Atlantic October 26 at which Miss Wilson will sing. The following day Secretary Wilson and Miss Wilson will be heard at Audubon.

AUTO HITS TRAIN.

Scribner Party Has a Close Call at Crossing.

Scribner, Neb., Oct. 7.—John Shafer, near Scribner, ran his auto squarely into the side of freight train No. 339, and escaped with his life and the lives of the others seated with him, because the nose of the machine hit a truck and rebounded instead of plunging under the car. The automobile cut a circle and bumped into the train a second time before it could be got under control. This time it was knocked clear across the next track and landed in a ditch. Nobody was hurt and the damages, it is estimated, will not be over $250.

IS TOLD TO GET DIETZ

CAMERON DAM DEFENDER REFUSES GOVERNOR'S TERMS.

BUT HE OFFERED COMPROMISE

Diets Agreed to Surrender if All the Charges Against Him Save the Horrel Shooting Were Withdrawn—This the Governor Declined to Do.

Winter, Wis., Oct. 7.—After a long conference with Attorney General G. L. Gilbert and Colonel Munson, secretary to Governor Davidson of Wisconsin, John F. Dietz, the Cameron Dam outlaw, absolutely refused to give himself up peacefully to the officers of the law and announced that he would defend himself to the last against the attempts of Sheriff Madden and the deputies to arrest him.

The representatives of the governor assured Dietz that no violence would follow his arrest, that he would be given an impartial trial and change of venue and that ample counsel would be provided him at the expense of the state if necessary. To all of these offers and even to the entreaties of his visitors, Dietz turned a deaf ear.

Every available rig in town wended its way toward the Dietz cabin when the outlaws made their start and almost the whole town watched from the woods, a distance of 700 rods from the cabin, during the conference. After Dietz's final refusal to give himself up the entire party of officials, deputies and townspeople came back to Winter to take further counsel and await developments.

It has been learned today that Dietz proposed the following terms of surrender at yesterday's conference:

"I will surrender," he said, "if all charges against me are dropped except the Horrel shooting. I am willing to stand trial on that."

Dietz has refused the terms offered by Governor Davidson's representatives and Deputy Thibault has been told by Sheriff Madden to "do his duty."

Threats for Governor.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 7.—A score of letters threatening death or containing hints at violence, received by Governor James O. Davidson, were submitted today by the executive to the police.

It is expected a guard will be placed around the executive residence to-night. The letters apparently are inspired by the governor's attitude in the Dietz affair.

THE WHOLLY SANE DULL.

A Diseaseless, Stupid Age Foreseen by a Scientist.

New York, Oct. 7.—The man of the future will be a sane, diseaseless, stupid, stupid creature—when science shall have robbed the world of both disease and genius.

Such was the picture drawn today by Dr. William G. McCallum, professor of pathology in the Columbia university college of physicians and surgeons. He was speaking at the opening of the school year of the Institution of Medicine. "All diseases except those due to accidental causes, such as a burn, poisoning, cuts, etc., would be entirely eliminated, he asserted.

"In the study of disease," said he, "we have made the most progress up to date, but in the cure of disease we have made little, with a few brilliant exceptions, including yellow fever.

"All insanity in time will be stamped out with the exception of that resulting from imprudence and intemperance, which always will exist, as they are the price of a man's personal liberty."

Of the diseaseless, insanity-proof age, Professor McCallum said:

"Indeed, since development of genius and of special individuality and charm seldom seem allied with perfect mental symmetry and balance, but rather with some slight defect which permits concentration in another direction, I am not sure that it might not be very dull to live among people of invariable, unblemished sanity."

Taylor for Tennessee Governor.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 7.—United States Senator Robert L. Taylor, three times governor of Tennessee and whose term in the United States senate does not end until 1912, was nominated for governor by the regular democratic convention. Governor M. R. Patterson was nominated several months ago to succeed himself, but his nomination caused a split in the party and he withdrew from the race, hoping thereby to unite the party. It was in the interest of harmony that Senator Taylor was nominated. He accepted the nomination but said he would not retire from the senate unless elected governor.

On the north side he straightened the street and laid 184 feet by eight feet. On the south side 146 feet by four feet and 176 feet by eight feet.
