Tom Hight has gone to Gordon on business. Attorney C. C. Wright of Omaha was in the city. Dr. J. H. Mackay is at Omaha visiting with friends. Mrs. Tanner of Battle Creek was a visitor in the city. Herbert Hauptl has gone to Omaha to visit with friends. William Hauptl returned from a days' visit at Omaha. J. E. Haase returned from a business trip to Orchard. B. B. Kummerer and Peter Stafford, Jr., have gone to Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McLeod of Stanton were visitors in the city. C. H. Krahn drove to Pierce county Wednesday to visit with relatives. C. P. Williams of St. Paul, Minn., is in the city visiting with his daughter, Mrs. G. S. Southward. G. Marotz, Mr. and Mrs. William Marotz and Miss Bertha Marotz of Hoskins were here visiting with friends. Archie Gow, who was here visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gow, has returned to his home at Carlock, S. D. Mrs. H. Winder, enroute from Omaha to Denver, was in the city calling on friends. Mrs. Winder is a former Norfolk resident. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blakeman and their son, Chas. Blakeman, have gone to Omaha, where they will spend a few days with friends. James Killian of Cedar Bluffs, Neb., and Lloyd J. Killian of Pasadena, Calif., were in the city visiting with their uncle, A. L. Killian. R. B. McKinney is on the sick list. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grant, a son. Two large flocks of geese passed over the city yesterday afternoon. A. Buchholz accompanied his wife to Omaha at noon, where at the Clarkson hospital Mrs. Buchholz will undergo an operation. The 15-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Johnson of Hoskins died early Thursday morning from an attack of brain fever. A passenger on a Northwestern train was taken suddenly ill at noon and physicians were called to the Junction depot to attend her. Myron Collamer has resigned his position as clerk at the Fair store and, in company with his wife, will leave for Atkinson, where they will make their home with Mr. Collamer's father on a farm. Mrs. Joseph Kratke has secured a $200 peace bond with which she will endeavor to obtain the release of her husband, who is now confined in the county jail awaiting trial by the district court. Justice Eiseley refused to approve the bond, although he declares the bond is perfectly good and can be acted upon after the county sheriff has put his approval upon it. Mrs. Kratke some time ago charged her husband with cruelty, brutality and threatening to do great bodily harm. Kratke was bound over to the district court after declaring he would kill the judge if he put him in jail. For a Game at Neligh. Neligh, Neb., Oct. 4.—Special to The News: The baseball fans of this city are arranging for a game of ball at the Riverside park grounds for a purpose of $75 between the Royal aggregation of ball tossers and that of Tilden, the champions of the Elkhorn Valley league. No definite report has been received from Tilden, but the Royal players immediately accepted the proposition. These two teams played during the first day of the races in this city and was won by Royal by a score of 2 to 0. The Friend Courting Meet. Friend, Neb., Oct. 6.—The racing in the national futurity coursing meet was pushed hard here and the first heat, which was started Tuesday, was completed. A part of the second heat was also run. About 200 dogs are entered in the running and so far there has been little action to pick favorites. Captain Klucullen and Ella Brazon are being talked of as possible money dogs. After the running in the first class has been completed the puppy stakes and consolation stakes will be run off. Today's racing will see the completion of the second heat and possibly of the third. Rabbits are in poor condition. Notice to Contractors. Public notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the board of county commissioners of Madison county, Neb., for the erection and completion of a brick addition to the county jail, on the courthouse grounds at Madison, Neb. Said addition to be erected according to plans and specifications on file in the county clerk's office at Madison, Neb. No bid will be considered unless accompanied by a certified check for $500 payable to the county clerk of Madison county, Neb., which shall be forfeited to said county in case the successful bidder refuses or fails to enter into a contract if same shall be awarded to him. The party receiving the contract will be required to give a good and sufficient bond in such amount as said county commissioners may specify, conditioned for the faithful performance of said contract. Bids will be received at any time prior to 12 o'clock, noon, of October 25, 1910, by the county clerk of Madison county, Neb., and said bids will be opened by the commissioners at Madison, Neb., October 25, 1910, at 2 o'clock p. m. The commissioners hereby reserve the right to reject any and all bids. Done by order of the county commissioners of Madison county, Neb., at Madison, this 4th day of October, 1910. S. R. McFarland, County Clerk.
