Osborne, the Blair painter, from death on the gallows or life imprisonment,

In calling Dr. Mackay to the witness stand the attorneys for the defense played their trump card and it is generally conceded that Dr. Mackay's testimony will play an important part in determining the final verdict.

In laying the foundation for Dr. Mackay's testimony as to the mental and physical condition of the defendant, Osborne's attorneys brought out the fact that Dr. Mackay had made a close study of insanity in its various, forms since 1894, and at one time was superintendent of the state asylum for

He testified that he had twice examined Osborne, once in the jail in October, and again on last Saturday was insane on the night of the crime.

Tells of Osborne's Condition. Dr. Mackay's story of the examination of Osborne was the most interesting testimony of the entire case. He told of blindfolding the prisoner and plercing his foot with a pin. Osborne, he declared, sensed the pain but was unable to pull his foot away from the pin point, which showed that be the pastor. his nervous system was in disorder.
