Demonstrations were reported at Guadalajara, Zacatecas and Tehuantepec. The governor of Jalisco was driven from Guadalajara and at Zacatecas four persons are said to have been killed.

In this city business was suspended at 6 o'clock. By 11 o'clock last night the street cars, several of which had been stoned, ceased operation. Not a single taxicab or coach was to

The elements favored the demonstration, as for the first time in weeks, rain did not fall in the early evening. The clouds withheld their burden until 10 o'clock. With the downpour the crowds, which in the aggregate numbered thousands, began to disappear rapidly and at midnight only a band of 100 or so continued marching. Diaz is Very III.

Gen. Diaz, who has reserved the captain's quarters on a Hamburg-American liner due to sail from Vera Cruz on the last day of the month, continues very ill, despite recent optimistic official reports.
