MOREY ON THE STAND.

Successor to Havemeyer as Head of Western Country, is Quizzed.

Washington, June 24. - Chester S. Morey of Denver, who succeeded H. O. Havemeyer as president of the Great Western Sugar company upon Mr. Havemeyer's death, resumed the witness stand today before the house sugar trust committee of inquiry.

Mr. Morey was interrogated as to he details of the organization in 1905 of the Great Western Sugar company, which is an organization of Colorado beet sugar factories. The American Sugar Refining company, he said, financed many smaller factories and in the organization of the consolidated ompany now capitalized at $30,000,-00 acquired a majority of the stock. The companies in the great western group were located at Greeley, Eaton, Longmont, Loveland, Windsor, Fort Collins, Sterling, Brush, Fort Morgan, all in Colorado, with factories at Bilings, Mont., and Scotts Bluff, Neb. The last of these, the government laims, were erected to forestall erection of sugar plants by interests inde-
