

Magee Gives Legg a Race. Omaha, Aug. 18.—Harry Legg, of the Minneapolis Country club, Minneapolis, was 2 up on Jerome P. Magee, Omaha Country club, and Ralph Rider and E. Howard Adams were all square at the eighteenth hole in the semi-finals of the championship flights of the trans-Mississippi golf tournament when the cards were turned in at midday.

A big gallery followed both matches. The quality of golf played was hardly up to that of the past two days, but sensational plays by all four of the golfers were frequent. Legg was 4 up on Magee at one time, but the wily little Omaha took two holes and halved another at the end of the forenoon play, reducing the Minneapolis man's lead.
