T. R. FOR WILSON?

Colonel May Not Oppose Democrat if Taft is Nominated. New York, Aug. 26.—The Outlook, of which Theodore Roosevelt is contributing editor, prints in its current edition an eulogy of Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey.

Henry B. Needham, who when Col. Roosevelt was president, ranked as one of the "official press agents of the administration," is the author of the article.

New York politicians are wondering if there is a political significance to this fact.

Col. Roosevelt, since the defeat of his candidate for governor at the last election, Henry L. Stimson, now a member of President Taft's official family, has refused to take any part in republican politics in this state.

ton and has won every game except one so far pitched. The exception was the game 1 to 1 with Grand Island.

Just as handsome as ever, gold-crowned teeth and big, shifty eyes gleaming in their dusky setting, Frances Gordon, for years a resident of Norfolk and one of four remaining children of the first colored family that ever lived in Norfolk, was back in town Saturday, visiting old friends.

With her was her brother, Bert Gordon, just from Detroit. They both left for Dallas, S. D., where they'll open a restaurant during the forthcoming land rush.

Frances is now employed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson at Dallas.

J. C. Schultz returned to Norfolk from Aberdeen, S. D., where he reports he will now make his future home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carty of Chadron are here visiting with the August Raasch family.

Mrs. James Maloney of Omaha is in the city visiting with her daughter, Mrs. O. S. O'Neil.

Miss Carrie Thompson has gone to Newman Grove, where she will teach in the high school this year.

Miss Edith Bechel of Fairfax, who is on her way to Wayne normal, stopped for a visit at the home of L. O. Lizer.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kinney and Mrs. Joseph Pilant went to Omaha in an automobile to spend a few days' visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bittner and family and Mr. and Mrs. Cadel Christiansen were here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Christiansen.

Misses Eliza Pitter and Martha Brummund have gone to Creighton and Bazile Mills to spend a week or ten days visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Otis LeRoque of Omaha, who has been here visiting with her sister, Mrs. William Ahlman, has returned to her home. She leaves in a few days for an extended visit on the western coast.

Miss Ricka Gettinger has resigned her position as bookkeeper in the Fair store.

Ex-Capt. Gissman of the Norfolk ball team was on second base for the Norfolk team at Winside Friday afternoon.

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

S. H. Grant returned from a week's visit with his son at Emerick.

F. E. Morrow of Central City was here visiting with M. E. Croster.

W. F. Ahlman went to Bloomfield for a few days' visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carty of Chadron are here visiting with the August Raasch family.

Miss Helen Maylard is in Madison for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Davenport.

Mrs. James Maloney of Omaha is in the city visiting with her daughter, Mrs. O. S. O'Neil.

Miss Ricka Gettinger has resigned her position as bookkeeper in the Fair store.

Ex-Capt. Gissman of the Norfolk ball team was on second base for the Norfolk team at Winside Friday afternoon.

J. S. Jackson, formerly of Norfolk but now of Kansas City, is expected in the city in about two weeks for a visit with friends.

The 3-week-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Horst, farmers living on the Ernest Zutz farm north of this city, died Friday morning.

Jay Hight, who last week sustained a fractured arm as the result of falling from a horse, is now able to be up and enjoy visits to the city.

Catcher Hoffman of the Norfolk team went to Creighton to play in an outfield position with the Creighton team in Saturday afternoon's game.

High school football players are already inflating the piskin with the aid of automobile pumps and getting ready for the football season which will open in this city next month.

The ball game Sunday afternoon between Norfolk and Atkinson on the driving park diamond will be a fast one. Atkinson is said to have "plugged up" somewhat and are coming to win.

The rope bell signal, used to bring the horses from their stalls at the fire station has been cast away and an automatic bell connecting with the signal in the station office has been installed.

A. B. Dillon, deputy grand master Workman of the A. O. U. W., in Nebraska, has decided to move to Norfolk from Anaworth. Mr. Dillon has rented a W. R. Beswick house on South Eleventh street.

A number of Norfolk auto drivers may enter the county fair races at Madison. Frank Massick is considering it. The first prize will be $100, second prize $25. The race is to be five miles long. There are no limitations on cars.

N. A. Rainbolt, who is enjoying a fishing trip at Lake Andes, S. D., writes home that the fishing is better than he ever dreamed fishing could be. He tells of catching more than fifty bass in one day, all of them more than four pounds in weight.

Interest in Golf Matches.

Next Tuesday will be a great day on the Country club golf links. It will be qualifying day for the Mayer cup tournament and every golfer is expected to get out.

This cup is offered for the winner of an open tournament, no handicaps. The sixteen players who make the best scores Tuesday will enter the first round of the tournament. As this is the first open tournament, without handicaps, to be played for a cup, the matches are expected to be eagerly fought.

The fourth round of the Burton cup play will be finished tomorrow and then drawings will be made for the semi-finals. The semi-finals and finals are to be eighteen hole events.

The first round of the directors' cup tournament has been played and the second round is in progress.

Apple Orchards Here Are Great.

"There are apple orchards in the vicinity of Norfolk that cannot be found for yield, anywhere in the world."

This was the surprising statement made at the Ad club meeting last night, on authority of Mr. Evans, of the Evans Fruit company, who have recently installed a wholesale house in this city.

W. H. Blakeman, president of the Ad club, has been driving about the country, with Mr. Evans, pointing out orchards, and amazing crops have been found. There is said to be absolutely no market for these fine apples save that created by the Evans company in the territory north and west of Norfolk.

Boost Home Industries.

In the course of the evening's discussion, it was suggested that one of the most effective ways of boosting Norfolk would be to speak a word of encouragement now and then to people starting new industries in the city.

"Get chummy with Norfolk's new business firms. Call on them. Make them feel we're glad they're here." This seemed to be the sentiment.

Buy an Ad Club Button.

The Ad club has 250 clover little buttons, destined to create interest in Norfolk, which are to be put on sale by members of the club. The buttons sell for $1 each and the profits will go toward pulling the club out of debt.

Everybody wearing an "Ask Me" button has contributed $1 to the club's support.

Push the Paving.

The West Norfolk avenue paving petition will be further pushed by the Ad club. There remains but 529 feet frontage to assure the paving.

Madison Methodist Brotherhood.

Madison, Neb., Aug. 26.—Special to The News: Rev. F. M. Drullner, pastor, assisted by Drs. Ray of Columbus, Dawson of Omaha and Tindall of Norfolk, organized a Methodist brotherhood. The meeting occurred in the church parlors. At 8 o'clock last evening occurred the first annual banquet of the brotherhood. Covers were spread for 125 brothers. The menu consisted of three courses served by the ladies aid society of the M. E. church in the beautiful church parlors recently completed.

Following a delightful musical program William M. Darlington as toastmaster in a pleasing and appropriate manner announced the following toasts:
