ITALY'S LAST PREVIOUS WAR

IT WAS WITH ABYSSINIA, AND SHE SUFFERED HEAVILY.

FIGHTING LASTED FOR YEARS

Her Army Was Overwhelmed, and Thousands of Dead Were Left on the Field-Defeat Caused Downfall of Italian Ministry.

Italy has transported her soldiery to the northern coast of Africa before in ages past, for all Mauretania, the land of the Moors, was once a Roman province. Tripoli was originally a Roman colony, although there were inhabitants before that epoch of occupation who were akin to the Berbers. With Menelik was concluded a treaty between Abyssinia and Italy which contained a clause which later was to be the subject of much discussion. It was concluded in 1889 at Accialli and contained the clause, "His majesty the king of kings of Ethiopia consents to make use of the government of his majesty the king of 14.40 Italy for the treatment of all questions concerning other powers or governments." On the strength of this Italy an-

She established a state territory given to 12 13 17 82 colony in certain territory given to 18 18 1.80 her under this treaty by Menelik and gave it the name of Eritrea. Coins bearing the image of the Italian ruler were prepared for this new colony. Menelik, however, became suspicious and soon regretted the signing of the 11.69 treaty. He had addressed communi-72 cations to both Germany and England that he was emperor of Ethiopia, and in reply had been told that his notification should have been sent through the Italian government. It occurred 5.62 to the monarch that the translation of his treaty had been faulty and that ditional Sub- he did not intend to say consent, but Lot Blk.
