

SOCIETY

Pleasures of the Week. The ladies of the First Congregational church are adding to their pipe organ fund by giving a chain of luncheons.

Misses Lillie Kallstrom and Fay Summers were pleasantly surprised on Friday evening at the home of Miss Leona Lenz.

Mrs. F. G. Gettinger entertained another large company of ladies at a Kensington on last Saturday. On Wednesday forty ladies were guests of Mrs. Gettinger at a pretty bridge luncheon.

Mrs. John Dietrich gave a very attractive 1 o'clock luncheon on Friday, complimenting her sister, Mrs. Dennis of Dubuque.

Mrs. J. T. Thompson gave a pretty 1 o'clock luncheon on Thursday in honor of Mrs. M. A. McMillan.

The "Nameless" bridge club enjoyed a meeting in the home of Mrs. C. L. Chaffee on Tuesday afternoon.

Last Saturday afternoon a company of eighteen ladies perpetrated a pleasant surprise on Mrs. C. L. Chaffee and her sister, Mrs. O. H. Daniels.

Mrs. A. C. Smith was hostess to the Neighborhood Kensington on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. C. Roland entertained a number of ladies at a "thimble" party Thursday afternoon in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Cook.

The Household Economics department of the Woman's club enjoyed a meeting in the home of Mrs. Culmeise on Norfolk avenue Monday afternoon.

The Altar society of St. Mary's church met with Mrs. J. Horiskey on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Kloke of Omaha, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Huse.

Mrs. Seefeld, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss Mason, several weeks, left Wednesday for California.

Mrs. M. A. McMillan will leave on Wednesday for West Point, where she will spend several weeks and then go on to Omaha for the winter.

Mrs. E. M. Huntington has returned from Peoria, Ill., where she attended the wedding of her brother.

Mrs. George Korb of West Point, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. M. A. McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burnham and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Braden will entertain at dinner on Monday and Wednesday evenings next week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burnham.

Might Jail William Barnes. Albany, N. Y., Oct. 28.—William Barnes, jr., chairman of the republican state committee, was yesterday ordered to show cause before the state supreme court at Ballston next Monday why he should not be committed to the Albany jail for refusing to answer certain questions at the investigation which a senate committee is conducting into the Albany city and county affairs.

Italy Sends More Troops. Rome, Oct. 28.—Another army expedition to Tripoli sailed secretly from Naples during the night. As was the case with the former expeditions, the troops were brought to the port and placed on transports with the knowledge of comparatively few persons.

be strengthened with other ships after the convey has passed through the straits of Messina.

London, Oct. 28.—From dispatches from Tripoli, reaching England by way of Malta, which in part were reaffirmed by censored dispatches reaching Rome, it is apparent that Italy's campaign in Tripoli has already cost more lives than the government anticipated.

The total circulation for the week Oct. 16-23 was 204 volumes. Of this number only twenty were non-fiction.

Ship Out Nebraska Apples. West Point, Neb., Oct. 28.—John E. Wiesner of this place has shipped two carloads of Cuming county apples to Highmore, S. D.

Dedicate State Road. Columbia, Mo., Oct. 28.—After traveling by automobile, some of them for 150 miles, across central Missouri over the newly laid-out "old trail route," nearly 300 motorists from all parts of the state met here today to dedicate that road as the official cross-state highway.

Ainsworth. Eight inches of very wet snow fell Wednesday evening and night. John Combs, who has made Ainsworth his home for some years, left for Massachusetts to visit his mother, and incidentally to come into an inheritance of about $200,000.

Neligh Eastern Star Banquet. Neligh, Neb., Oct. 28.—Special to The News: The order of Eastern Star in this city gave a 6 o'clock banquet last evening in the banquet room of the Masonic hall to the members and invited friends.

Horse Is Stolen. West Point, Neb., Oct. 28.—Special to The News: A sorrel mare and saddle, the property of William Tighe, a farmer of Bancroft, was stolen from his premises and up to this time no trace has been found of the thief.

The Hyde Trial. Kansas City, Oct. 28.—A new panel of fifty venemen appeared for examination in the Dr. B. Clark Hyde murder case today.

South Norfolk News. Mrs. Harry Hoskinson and daughter Genevieve, arrived home from a visit with Neligh friends and relatives last evening.

August Miller started to work in the roundhouse this morning.

L. C. Chapman went to Clinton, Ia., where Mrs. Chapman will undergo an operation.

Mrs. B. L. Melvine of Missouri Valley, was here yesterday.

Frankie Diacol went to Stuart last evening on business.

Mrs. F. P. Etter and son Orange F., passed through South Norfolk yesterday on her way home from La Porte City, Waterloo, Osage, Hampton, and other points in Iowa.

H. W. Libby, secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Machinists of Winona, Minn., was at the shops yesterday.

Phillip Kampman went to Omaha to visit with his brother, C. R. Kampman, who is in a hospital there.

Miss Hannah Norris of Tilden, was in the city last evening enroute from Omaha where she visited with her father, who is in one of the hospitals there.

Dr. O. S. O'Neill has just returned from the Rosebud country, bringing with him samples of corn from his two farms nine miles northwest of hard and well shelled.

Norfolk firemen are planning an entertainment in honor of George Clements, one of their members who a few days ago went to Stanton and was quietly married to Miss Marie Ballar of this city.

The Norfolk branch of the Nebraska Federation of Retail dealers are keeping up the Norfolk campaign against those who come here and peddle without a license.

Two one-story buildings occupying the best business corner in Chamberlain were destroyed by fire.

Dr. O. S. O'Neill has just returned from the Rosebud country, bringing with him samples of corn from his two farms nine miles northwest of hard and well shelled.

The book committee is planning to purchase quite a number of new books at once. The larger part of the books will probably be works of reference, travel and biography.

Janet McKenzie Hill's "Practical Cooking and Serving" is a splendid cookbook for practical use.

Mrs. W. H. H. Hagey very kindly donated to the library a number of books and magazines.

There is a new book of delightful essays by Samuel Crothers. It is called "Among Friends," and contains the following essays:

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

G. H. Daum is in the city from Indiana, visiting his son, E. G. Daum.

Mrs. M. G. Barber of Belmont, Wis., is here to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. P. W. Knapp.

The tops of railroad cars arriving in Norfolk from the west are covered with almost half a foot of snow.

In a game of tennis on the Country club court Friday afternoon J. S. Mathewson defeated Burt Mapes in three straight sets.

While stepping from his train at South Omaha Thursday, Conductor J. A. Nix of the Northwestern road accidentally fell and sustained a bruised leg.

Mrs. Joseph A. Adams fell in the cellar of her home, but was not seriously hurt.

The Commercial club rooms will be furnished. Secretary A. W. Hawkins reports that he is now assured of sufficient financial aid from business men to furnish the home.

Walter H. Barnhart, son of City Attorney H. F. Barnhart, has bought the Calumet restaurant on Earl Watkins.

Frank Genuag has moved into his new home at 1104 Taylor avenue.

Miss Nora Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Burnett, South First street, died Friday afternoon from heart trouble.

On account of the meeting of Woman's club will meet next Monday at 1:30 in the library building.

John McCarrigan, aged 75, living on West Park avenue, while working as a carpenter on a new house, fell and broke two ribs.

Fay A. Nightingale and Miss Clara Harrison went to Stanton Saturday afternoon where they were married.

Frank Barnes resigned his position with the Norfolk Transfer company to go to Bonesteel to look after the farm interests of his brother-in-law, who is minus one hand as the result of being accidentally shot while out hunting for chickens.

a Norfolk boy, will commence this evening. One of Norfolk's wholesale poultry houses which ships live chickens to the western coast occasionally, engaged Schellely to take charge of the car.

The Norfolk branch of the Nebraska Federation of Retail dealers are keeping up the Norfolk campaign against those who come here and peddle without a license.

Two one-story buildings occupying the best business corner in Chamberlain were destroyed by fire.

Dr. O. S. O'Neill has just returned from the Rosebud country, bringing with him samples of corn from his two farms nine miles northwest of hard and well shelled.

The book committee is planning to purchase quite a number of new books at once. The larger part of the books will probably be works of reference, travel and biography.

Janet McKenzie Hill's "Practical Cooking and Serving" is a splendid cookbook for practical use.

Mrs. W. H. H. Hagey very kindly donated to the library a number of books and magazines.

There is a new book of delightful essays by Samuel Crothers. It is called "Among Friends," and contains the following essays:

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

G. H. Daum is in the city from Indiana, visiting his son, E. G. Daum.

Mrs. M. G. Barber of Belmont, Wis., is here to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. P. W. Knapp.

The tops of railroad cars arriving in Norfolk from the west are covered with almost half a foot of snow.

In a game of tennis on the Country club court Friday afternoon J. S. Mathewson defeated Burt Mapes in three straight sets.

While stepping from his train at South Omaha Thursday, Conductor J. A. Nix of the Northwestern road accidentally fell and sustained a bruised leg.

Mrs. Joseph A. Adams fell in the cellar of her home, but was not seriously hurt.

The Commercial club rooms will be furnished. Secretary A. W. Hawkins reports that he is now assured of sufficient financial aid from business men to furnish the home.

Walter H. Barnhart, son of City Attorney H. F. Barnhart, has bought the Calumet restaurant on Earl Watkins.

Frank Genuag has moved into his new home at 1104 Taylor avenue.

Miss Nora Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Burnett, South First street, died Friday afternoon from heart trouble.

On account of the meeting of Woman's club will meet next Monday at 1:30 in the library building.

John McCarrigan, aged 75, living on West Park avenue, while working as a carpenter on a new house, fell and broke two ribs.

Fay A. Nightingale and Miss Clara Harrison went to Stanton Saturday afternoon where they were married.

Frank Barnes resigned his position with the Norfolk Transfer company to go to Bonesteel to look after the farm interests of his brother-in-law, who is minus one hand as the result of being accidentally shot while out hunting for chickens.

cost $7,000 and was insured for $2,000. Coe I. Crawford has been challenged by R. C. Richards to a public debate on the latter's primary bill.

The Norfolk branch of the Nebraska Federation of Retail dealers are keeping up the Norfolk campaign against those who come here and peddle without a license.

Two one-story buildings occupying the best business corner in Chamberlain were destroyed by fire.

Dr. O. S. O'Neill has just returned from the Rosebud country, bringing with him samples of corn from his two farms nine miles northwest of hard and well shelled.

The book committee is planning to purchase quite a number of new books at once. The larger part of the books will probably be works of reference, travel and biography.

Janet McKenzie Hill's "Practical Cooking and Serving" is a splendid cookbook for practical use.

Mrs. W. H. H. Hagey very kindly donated to the library a number of books and magazines.

There is a new book of delightful essays by Samuel Crothers. It is called "Among Friends," and contains the following essays:

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

G. H. Daum is in the city from Indiana, visiting his son, E. G. Daum.

Mrs. M. G. Barber of Belmont, Wis., is here to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. P. W. Knapp.

The tops of railroad cars arriving in Norfolk from the west are covered with almost half a foot of snow.

In a game of tennis on the Country club court Friday afternoon J. S. Mathewson defeated Burt Mapes in three straight sets.

While stepping from his train at South Omaha Thursday, Conductor J. A. Nix of the Northwestern road accidentally fell and sustained a bruised leg.

Mrs. Joseph A. Adams fell in the cellar of her home, but was not seriously hurt.

The Commercial club rooms will be furnished. Secretary A. W. Hawkins reports that he is now assured of sufficient financial aid from business men to furnish the home.

Walter H. Barnhart, son of City Attorney H. F. Barnhart, has bought the Calumet restaurant on Earl Watkins.

Frank Genuag has moved into his new home at 1104 Taylor avenue.

Miss Nora Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Burnett, South First street, died Friday afternoon from heart trouble.

On account of the meeting of Woman's club will meet next Monday at 1:30 in the library building.

John McCarrigan, aged 75, living on West Park avenue, while working as a carpenter on a new house, fell and broke two ribs.

Fay A. Nightingale and Miss Clara Harrison went to Stanton Saturday afternoon where they were married.

Frank Barnes resigned his position with the Norfolk Transfer company to go to Bonesteel to look after the farm interests of his brother-in-law, who is minus one hand as the result of being accidentally shot while out hunting for chickens.

with automatic safety blocking systems, which are otherwise mechanically infallible.

According to the official report, the accident was due to the action of Robert E. Lee, head brakeman of a west-bound freight train, which had been sidetracked to allow the westbound fast mail to pass.

The Norfolk branch of the Nebraska Federation of Retail dealers are keeping up the Norfolk campaign against those who come here and peddle without a license.

Dr. O. S. O'Neill has just returned from the Rosebud country, bringing with him samples of corn from his two farms nine miles northwest of hard and well shelled.

The book committee is planning to purchase quite a number of new books at once. The larger part of the books will probably be works of reference, travel and biography.

Janet McKenzie Hill's "Practical Cooking and Serving" is a splendid cookbook for practical use.

Mrs. W. H. H. Hagey very kindly donated to the library a number of books and magazines.

There is a new book of delightful essays by Samuel Crothers. It is called "Among Friends," and contains the following essays:

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

G. H. Daum is in the city from Indiana, visiting his son, E. G. Daum.

Mrs. M. G. Barber of Belmont, Wis., is here to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. P. W. Knapp.

The tops of railroad cars arriving in Norfolk from the west are covered with almost half a foot of snow.

In a game of tennis on the Country club court Friday afternoon J. S. Mathewson defeated Burt Mapes in three straight sets.

While stepping from his train at South Omaha Thursday, Conductor J. A. Nix of the Northwestern road accidentally fell and sustained a bruised leg.

Mrs. Joseph A. Adams fell in the cellar of her home, but was not seriously hurt.

The Commercial club rooms will be furnished. Secretary A. W. Hawkins reports that he is now assured of sufficient financial aid from business men to furnish the home.

Walter H. Barnhart, son of City Attorney H. F. Barnhart, has bought the Calumet restaurant on Earl Watkins.

Frank Genuag has moved into his new home at 1104 Taylor avenue.

Miss Nora Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Burnett, South First street, died Friday afternoon from heart trouble.

On account of the meeting of Woman's club will meet next Monday at 1:30 in the library building.

John McCarrigan, aged 75, living on West Park avenue, while working as a carpenter on a new house, fell and broke two ribs.

Fay A. Nightingale and Miss Clara Harrison went to Stanton Saturday afternoon where they were married.

Frank Barnes resigned his position with the Norfolk Transfer company to go to Bonesteel to look after the farm interests of his brother-in-law, who is minus one hand as the result of being accidentally shot while out hunting for chickens.

the defendant, were again under challenge for their views of capital punishment.

According to the official report, the accident was due to the action of Robert E. Lee, head brakeman of a west-bound freight train, which had been sidetracked to allow the westbound fast mail to pass.

The Norfolk branch of the Nebraska Federation of Retail dealers are keeping up the Norfolk campaign against those who come here and peddle without a license.

Dr. O. S. O'Neill has just returned from the Rosebud country, bringing with him samples of corn from his two farms nine miles northwest of hard and well shelled.

The book committee is planning to purchase quite a number of new books at once. The larger part of the books will probably be works of reference, travel and biography.

Janet McKenzie Hill's "Practical Cooking and Serving" is a splendid cookbook for practical use.

Mrs. W. H. H. Hagey very kindly donated to the library a number of books and magazines.

There is a new book of delightful essays by Samuel Crothers. It is called "Among Friends," and contains the following essays:

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

G. H. Daum is in the city from Indiana, visiting his son, E. G. Daum.

Mrs. M. G. Barber of Belmont, Wis., is here to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. P. W. Knapp.

The tops of railroad cars arriving in Norfolk from the west are covered with almost half a foot of snow.

In a game of tennis on the Country club court Friday afternoon J. S. Mathewson defeated Burt Mapes in three straight sets.

While stepping from his train at South Omaha Thursday, Conductor J. A. Nix of the Northwestern road accidentally fell and sustained a bruised leg.

Mrs. Joseph A. Adams fell in the cellar of her home, but was not seriously hurt.

The Commercial club rooms will be furnished. Secretary A. W. Hawkins reports that he is now assured of sufficient financial aid from business men to furnish the home.

Walter H. Barnhart, son of City Attorney H. F. Barnhart, has bought the Calumet restaurant on Earl Watkins.

Frank Genuag has moved into his new home at 1104 Taylor avenue.

Miss Nora Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Burnett, South First street, died Friday afternoon from heart trouble.

On account of the meeting of Woman's club will meet next Monday at 1:30 in the library building.

John McCarrigan, aged 75, living on West Park avenue, while working as a carpenter on a new house, fell and broke two ribs.

Fay A. Nightingale and Miss Clara Harrison went to Stanton Saturday afternoon where they were married.

Frank Barnes resigned his position with the Norfolk Transfer company to go to Bonesteel to look after the farm interests of his brother-in-law, who is minus one hand as the result of being accidentally shot while out hunting for chickens.

The Library

RED HATS FOR AMERICANS.

Pope Will Grant Them to Farley, O'Connell and Falconi. Rome, Oct. 30.—The pope will create a large number of cardinals at the consistory to be held Nov. 20.

Monsignor J. Granite Di Belmonte Pignatelli, ex-papal nuncio at Vienna.

The Most Rev. Francis Bourne, archbishop of Westminster.

Monsignor Van Rossum, redemptorist.

Shoemaker a Woman. Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 29.—Hundreds of Salt Lake City people who have patronized "William" H. Cleery, a shoemaker, for twenty years, were surprised to learn today that "William" is a woman.

Elephant at Dinner. New York, Oct. 30.—A white elephant stalked across Broadway in the "white light" district and crowded its way into a hotel dining room, where the New York Giants were being given a complimentary dinner.

Dies of Football Injury. Pierre, S. D., Oct. 30.—Roy Farrer, a young school boy, died here from injuries received in a scrub game of football.

Approves Fisher's Speech. Chicago, Oct. 30.—President Taft, addressing the American Mining congress, took considerable pains to make it clear that he fully indorsed the speech of Secretary of the Interior Walter L. Fisher, who outlined the government's plans for Alaska.

Bears Disappoint Woman. Lima, O., Oct. 30.—In an attempt to end her life while suffering from despondency, Miss Anna Harter, 32 years old, today leaped into a pit at the city park, in which were confined two large bears.

Want Grosscup's Place. Chicago, Oct. 30.—A delegation of jurists and politicians from Peoria, Ill., called on President Taft and urged the appointment of William Jack of Peoria, to succeed Peter S. Grosscup, who recently resigned as United States circuit judge.

An Employers' Liability Ruling. Meriden, Miss, Oct. 30.—Ruling in a damage suit involving the federal employers liability act today, Circuit Judge Buckley held that if the cars causing the accident carried interstate shipments the state was without jurisdiction.

Shoemaker a Woman. Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 29.—Hundreds of Salt Lake City people who have patronized "William" H. Cleery, a shoemaker, for twenty years, were surprised to learn today that "William" is a woman.

Elephant at Dinner. New York, Oct. 30.—A white elephant stalked across Broadway in the "white light" district and crowded its way into a hotel dining room, where the New York Giants were being given a complimentary dinner.

Dies of Football Injury. Pierre, S. D., Oct. 30.—Roy Farrer, a young school boy, died here from injuries received in a scrub game of football.

Approves Fisher's Speech. Chicago, Oct. 30.—President Taft, addressing the American Mining congress, took considerable pains to make it clear that he fully indorsed the speech of Secretary of the Interior Walter L. Fisher, who outlined the government's plans for Alaska.

Bears Disappoint Woman. Lima, O., Oct. 30.—In an attempt to end her life while suffering from despondency, Miss Anna Harter, 32 years old, today leaped into a pit at the city park, in which were confined two large bears.

Want Grosscup's Place. Chicago, Oct. 30.—A delegation of jurists and politicians from Peoria, Ill., called on President Taft and urged the appointment of William Jack of Peoria, to succeed Peter S. Grosscup, who recently resigned as United States circuit judge.

An Employers' Liability Ruling. Meriden, Miss, Oct. 30.—Ruling in a damage suit involving the federal employers liability act today, Circuit Judge Buckley held that if the cars causing the accident carried interstate shipments the state was without jurisdiction.

Shoemaker a Woman. Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 29.—Hundreds of Salt Lake City people who have patronized "William" H. Cleery, a shoemaker, for twenty years, were surprised to learn today that "William" is a woman.

Elephant at Dinner. New York, Oct. 30.—A white elephant stalked across Broadway in the "white light" district and crowded its way into a hotel dining room, where the New York Giants were being given a complimentary dinner.

Dies of Football Injury. Pierre, S. D., Oct. 30.—Roy Farrer, a young school boy, died here from injuries received in a scrub game of football.

CARRIAGE WAS OVERTURNED.

Stanton Buggy, Meeting Norfolk Car, Capsizes—Two Sides to Story. Stanton, Neb., Oct. 30.—Special to The News: A carriage occupied by four Stanton young people was tipped over and badly damaged, without resulting in injury to anybody, yesterday afternoon when the team met an automobile from Norfolk.

Are You a Salesman?

"Salesmanship is a science," said Secretary R. C. Wagner of The Bankers Reserve Life Company of Omaha.

FIVE DEAD IN WRECK.

Collision at Rock River, Wyo., on Union Pacific. Omaha, Oct. 30.—Five men killed and forty-eight passengers injured is the result of a collision of Union Pacific passenger train No. 4, the Atlantic Express, with a freight train at Rock River, Wyo.

Fifteen-Story Club House.

New York, Oct. 29.—A fifteen-story club house, costing $2,500,000, was dedicated here by the "Mother Lodge" of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks.

Fowler in Air Long Time.

Mariocopa, Ariz., Oct. 30.—In an attempt to set the American record for sustained flight, Aviator Robert G. Fowler, transcontinental flier, remained aloft for four hours and twenty-six minutes.

Sioux City Girl Honored.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 30.—A 12-year-old girl is coming from Sioux City, Ia., to unveil the tablet that will be dedicated here on Nov. 6 to mark the spot where John Catlin kept Newark's first school in 1676.

HUMAN FALLIBILITY THE CAUSE

Rock Springs, Wyo., Oct. 30.—Human fallibility caused the wrecking of a Union Pacific passenger train, which ran into a freight train near here and resulted in the death of three men and injuries to thirty other persons, according to an official report from the investigation by the railroad company.

SOUTH DAKOTA AT A GLANCE.

Thirty-two young men took the examinations at Deadwood and Custer for positions as forest rangers in the Black Hills forests.

Willie, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Crook, of Midland, was killed in a cave-in while playing along the banks of Bad river.

Fire supposed to be of incendiary origin destroyed several business buildings at Vermillion. The loss was $9,000, partially covered by insurance.