The populists and their campaign managers are not very well satisfied with the net results of the visit of Mr. Bryan. The party management generally regrets the little interest awakened and the campaign managers feel considerably disappointed over their failure to make the amount of hard cash anticipated out of the visit. They had arranged to sell $500 or $1,000 worth of seats in the opera house, and for weeks had been hawking the tickets about the streets hunting for suckers willing to pay $1 for the privilege of seeing and hearing man talk for ten minutes. Notwith standing there was a large number of ticket ellers, and that they all worked hard for two weeks, less than 100 patriots were found willing to part with their dollars. The managers relied upon the general excitemen to carry the crowd to the opera house when the time came for the speaking, and they were not altogether in despair on Saturday afternoon. The crowd came, but it came with such a rush that ticket sellers and ticket takers were swept aside as chaff. Not a dozen tickets were sold after the curtain went up on the free eliver show, and but a dozen tickets were sold and their show, and but went up on the free silver show, and but few of those who had paid their dellars in advance were able to secure their seats. In the crush and rush that swept the ushers, the crush and rush that swept the ushers. Standing on this stone we behold the divine glory and life and immortality are brought to light. It is charged that he forged an organ note and embezzeled the proceeds of a sale. After committing the crime he left the employ of the organ firm and came to this city. He has been here for two months, but the fact was only recently discovered. He was seen on the street on Saturday by the Avoca constable during the Bryan parade. The constable sent word to the Avoca justice, and the latter came down yesterday with the warrant. The two men took their prisoner home with them last evening.

A very pretty and correspondingly happy wedding occurred last evening at the residence of Mrs. Kurtz on Washington avenue, when they surrendered their daughter to Mr. Frank Eigan. The ceremony was performed by Justice Cook, at 8 o'clock, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The house was beautifully decorated. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Eigan will be at home during the winter in the little cottage where they were married, and a large number of friends will join in wishing them all the happiness possible.

A peep into the play of the game, how consideration. In 1861 the southern states declared that our constitution was a compact among states. Yale was scored on twice, though only one touchdown was allowed, and Princeton was scored on once. It is true Harvard did not run up much of a score, but the defensive scheme was probably a wise one. The Indians' gains were neutralized by long punts every time, while the Harvard men, holding themselves back for Saturday's game with Princeton, attempted few gains through the line or around the ends. The generous treatment of the Indians by the Harvard students comes as a welcome relief after the grand larceny by the Yalensians a week ago.

comer as a welcome relief after the grand larceny by the Yalensians a week ago.

All interest now centers in the Harvard-Princeton game to be played on Saturday. Harvard did not show up strong on Saturday, though its defensive work when the Indians were within a few yards of the crimson goal was great foot ball. Captain Wrightington is still kept out of the game by a lame knee, but with Dunlop, Cozzens, Sullivan, Brown and Beale the back field is strong anyway. If the line were as good Harvard would have a great team, Princeton has been steadily improving, and impartial critics generally now regard it as the strongest eleven playing. Its score against Corneli—37 to 8-looks big when compared with Harvard's score against the same team—13-4. Last year Corneli held Princeton down to six points; it did the same in '91. In '92 Princeton cancelled its game. In '93 the score was 44-6, and in '94 it was 12-4, always in favor of Princeton. With one exception, then, this year's score is Princeton's best against Cornell, and it is significant that the exception was in the year that Princeton defeated Yale. The Tigers are in splendid condition, and their hopes are high for not only capturing the Harvard game on Saturday, but also the Yale game two weeks later. Tale game two weeks later.

George Dyer's West Point cadets scored against Yale on Saturday, but then that trick has become so common this season that it scarcely needs special mention. On Wednesday of last week the Elizabeth Athietic club also scored on the Elis. It such teams can score against Yale it will be very strange indeed if the Jerseymer canno; do some scoring on November 21.

He said:

This is flag day. Every day ought to be flag day. I cannot think of anything that is more wholesome, anything that is more elevating than to turn our thoughts to the American flag, the stars and stripes, the banner of glory, the symbol of free constitutional government, of individual liberty and of public law and order. It symboliuss to us the union of states, not a confederacy, but a nation, a nation constituted by the people of all states; a nation endowed nor with all powers, but cadowed with specific powers and within the limit of those powers supreme. The states have reserved certain powers—those that relate to local government, your schools, your different states we are the clitzens of the United States and we revere and cherish one flag. Now, it happens that in this campaign the question of the powers of the national government is again brought under consideration. It was noticed that the leaders among the silverites were holding numerous whispered con-sultations in the corners of the hall and in the wings of the stage. The cause of it was announced from the stage that the meeting was a strictly silver affair, and that no republican would be allowed to speak. A. E. Walkup, the republican speaker, was scated on the stage and he immediately withdrew. At the same time all of the republicans who were in the hall withdrew and the place looked deserted.

After the few remaining silverites had gathered themselves together D. Clem Deaver talked populist doctrines to them. He exhorted his coparceners to "die in the last and administered several words comfort to the adherents of the silve

"Among the accounts that furnished us with the most amusement was that pub-lished in the Diario de la Marina concern-ing an attact upon Artemisa a few days ago hear that the same account was sent the United States and published as authennews. Still, after my visit to New York Philadelphia and Washington, I feel that the readers of American papers have learned to discern the difference between Spanish and Cuban news.
"At Artemisa the fight was well carried on, and some of our heavy guns were much to splendid advantage. We did not attempt to pass the trocha, for it was not a part of General Macco's program. Ariemisa was quite strongly entrenched and over 4,000 men were there garrisoned. Maceo did not give practice to the artillery. The enemy was annazed, I am sure, for during nearly two hours time there was no response from the town.

"General Maceo personally directed the We retired in good order E. Bertrand, L. W. Dongress and Harry had shelled our position. HAVANA, Nov. 1.-Lieutenant Colone Condeviela secured information that the in surgents had a comp in the neighborh of Cegimar, near Guanabacoa, which is just opposite the city of Havana. Lieu tenant Colonel Fondeviela pursued and over took them as they were possing the rive of Barucayabo. He took the positions which hey held at Bodega Sitle, in ains of Guanabo, and put to the bayor the last of them in their retreat. The test of the insurgents was fifty-two killed, while the Spanish lost one captain and fourtee ETIVATOR.

Cuban Sympathizer Insanc.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.-Albert D. Powers manager of the Cuban relief bureau of his city, has been found demented in Tennessee. News of his discovery was telcago a month ago mystified alike the po-ice and friends of the missing manager Colonel Powers' telegram contained no de tails of his son's condition or wanderings and does not name the city in which h was found. The disappearance of your Powers just at the launching of the ambitious project of the Cuban relief bureau gave rise to a belief at first that he had been murdered. Colonel Powers, father of the young man, is the president of the First National bank of Owensborough, Ky.

An Important Difference. To make it apparent to thousands, who hink themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a costive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Company only, and sold by all druggists.

Enjoins a Vermillion Barber. VERMILLION, S. D., Nov. 1.—(Special -Temporary injunction papers were yes granted by Judge Smith restraining F. S. Jordan from performing the services of a barber and citing him to appear before him at Yankton, Monday, at 2 o'clock, to answer. The temporary injunction was granted upon the application of Enger Bros., who purchased the barber shop of Jordan & Walker a couple of months ago. It was a part of the contract in writing that Jordan & Walker would not engage in the barbering-husdness or work at the trade for a term of two years in the city of Vermillen. Some time ago Jordan opened a shop and a few days later Walker followed suit. Horetofore it was always supposed that for a violation of a contract similar to the above only damages could be collected, but under recent decisions of the supreme courr it has been held that the proper fellef is through the process of in-F.
