

"BROTHER SEES SPECTRE OF DEFEAT, WEARING A SHINY HELMET"

Writes Rev. Dr. Charles W. Gordon, "Ralph Connor," Famous Author and Chaplain of Cameron Highlanders.

Toronto, Ont., July 26.—Rev. Dr. Charles W. Gordon, famous as an author and minister, Chaplain of the 5th Battalion Cameron Highlanders, writes to the Toronto Globe, an interestingly English newspaper, that Great Britain "takes the spectre of defeat in this war."

By CHARLES W. GORDON (Ralph Connor).

Every one has been carefully saying that this war is a serious business, but no man living has even known himself, know in three months ago, how serious it was.

And on London streets and in London offices, in the drawing rooms and at week-end meals are asking each other in whispers questions they would not dare to ask aloud, and are getting answers sometimes that give a queer feeling at their hearts.

Every man in the empire that ought to be listened to sees no hope of victory, absolutely none, and little hope of even a drawn battle, unless conditions be changed—changed so as to be utterly different from those under which the war has hitherto been waged.

But everybody, when by himself, refused to cheer up. He was mostly engaged during those lonely moments in blaming in his own particular way, something or somebody, and not the Germans either, but very largely those in the War Office.

Evolution and Revolution in Europe.

(From "Washington Post.") There is in this war, beyond this war and as sure to follow this war as night follows the day, a mighty financial, industrial, social and political revolution in Europe.

There are but two of the powerful belligerent powers whose industrial system seem to be standing the strain of the war and suffering but little from the prevailing conditions, and that is true of these two countries is due to the fact that in each one of them the intense nationalism of the populations has made them subordinate everything to the cause of their respective countries.

France and Germany have both, for the time being, banished both, if it treason exists in the minds of any Gaul or German, no expression in words, deeds or even thoughts.

Then the British people set up loud wailing, and with their eyes fixed on the sea, looked at the situation in the eye and began to cry in their hearts.

Appeal for Munitions Carried to Canada.

What then is the immediate duty of Canadians? To raise large sums of money? Not so much. Old John Bull may be safely trusted to look after the financing of this war.

Canadian shells and machine guns mean the saving of Canadian men.

Let every Canadian wheel that can turn on a shell be set going. Let every Canadian workman and workwoman that can get to a munition factory or gun factory get there and work with all speed. Shells and more machine guns.

Where British soldiers have two machine guns Germans have forty. Shells spent with prodigality—even wasted—mean battalions saved. We have tried fighting machine guns with men, and have learned our bitter lesson.

The British "Who's Who" describes the Rev. Charles W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) as Fellow of the Royal Society; Minister of St. Stephen's, Winnipeg; graduate of Toronto University and Knox's College; representative of Canadian Missions for the Presbyterian Church; D. Knox College and L. D. Queen's University, and the author of many books, including "The Sky Pilot," "Black Rock," "Beyond the Marshes," "The Man from Glenary," "The Angel and the Star," and "The Dawn of Gililee."
