Clean, modern furnished room, close to both Dodge and 24th street carlines. Mrs. Ellen Golden, 2302 North 25th street. Webster 448.

Mrs. S. K. Brownlow gave a delightful garden party Thursday afternoon, September 9th, in honor of Mrs. R. C. Cottrell of Oklahoma City. Twenty-seven guests were present.

Mrs. Sadie Hermann, 2405 Hamilton street, has been quite ill for the past two weeks.

Mrs. H. Hall and daughter, Hazel, accompanied by Mrs. Mann and son, Walter, visited the state fair and friends and Lincoln. During their trip they visited the state penitentiary, asylum and other important places in Lincoln. They reported a very pleasant trip, which was made so by the hospitality of their friends.

But He Understood.

The artist was painting—sunset, red, with blue streaks and green dots. The old rustic, at a respectful distance, was watching.

"Ah," said the artist, looking up suddenly, "perhaps to you, too, Nature has opened her sky-pictures page by page. Have you seen the lambent flame of dawn leaping across the livid east; the red-stained, sulfurous islets floating in the lake of fire in the west; the ragged clouds at midnight, black as a raven's wing, blotting out the shuddering moon?"

"No," replied the rustic, shortly; "not since I signed the pledge."—Tit-Bits.

The simple practice of raising your thoughts up into grander views of life will bring a peace that passeth all understanding.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Whereas, it has been rumored that the Undertaking Establishment operated by Allan Jones at 2314 North 24th street, Omaha, is a branch of G. Wade Obee & Co., undertakers, and, whereas, the same is false and untrue, the public is hereby informed that Allan Jones is the only person having, or, of right, claiming any property or interest in the undertaking business at 2314 North 24th street.

This statement is not made with intent to injure anyone, but to keep the record straight and to let the people know that "a live one" is ready to perform the sacred trust of burying the dead. I am always ready, night and day. Call Webster 204.

ALLAN JONES,
Sole Owner and Proprietor.

Humane Warfare.

Uncle (to nephew playing a war-game with a chum)—"If you take the fortress within a quarter of an hour, I'll give you a quarter."

Youngster (a minute later)—"Uncle, the fortress is taken; now let me have the quarter."

Uncle—"How did you manage it so quickly?"

Youngster—"I offered the besieged ten cents, and they capitulated."—Christian Register.

Very few of us will have the chance of heroic self-devotion, but every day brings the petty, wearing sacrifice, which weighs full weight in God's scales."—Osgood.

EUGENICS.

"Father, did you ever lie when you were a boy?"

"No, my son," said the father, who evidently did not recall the past with any distinctness.

"Nor Mother either?" persisted the young lawyer.

"No. Why?"

"Oh, because I don't see how two people who never told a lie could have a boy who told as many as I did. Where could I have got it from?"

POUR LA MERITE.

Aunt Ethel—Well, Beatrice, were you very brave at the dentist's?

Beatrice—Yes, Auntie, I was.

Aunt Ethel—Then, there's the half-crown I promised you. And now tell me what he did to you.

Beatrice—He pulled out two of Willie's teeth!—Punch.

"Why did that young man look so cross when Mrs. Smith told him she heard he had such killing ways?"

"She told him that? Great Scott, He's a doctor!"—Baltimore American.

"Does your boss ever tell funny stories?"

"No, but we have to laugh just the same."—Boston Transcript.
