ABYSSINIA AND THE EUROPEAN CONFLICT.

young emperor has refused every effort of the German agents to induce him on their side. The British, French and Italian nations have guaranteed independence of the boy's domain. It is Abyssinia that will decide the great conflict. Should she enter, the victory is the allies'; and if she stays out, Persia's aid to Turkey and Germany will carry the day. Whichever way it goes, the dark face holds the power in the balance. It carries one back to the days of the Civil War in the United States, when the black man was called, and turned what seemed sure defeat for the Union troops into victory.

ABYSSINIA IN DETAIL.

Location—East Africa, between the Red Sea and the Blue Nile. Bounded by Nubia on the northwest, the Italian colony of Eritrea on the northeast, the country of Danakil on the east, and the Egyptian Sudan on the west.

Kingdoms—It comprises the kingdoms of Tigre, Amhara with Gojam and Shoa and the outlying dependencies of Harrar, Kaffa and Enarea.

Area—308,000.

Population—8,000,000.

Capital—Addis Abeba.

Ruler—Emperor Lidji Jeassu.

SURGEON GENERAL WILL SEND REPRESENTATIVE TO OMAHA.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 14.—For the first time in years, the Surgeon General's office of the United States will be represented at a convention held in Omaha. The United States Public Health Service office has promised to send a man to the annual meeting of the Nebraska Public Health Association which will be held in Omaha, January 25 and 26.

Local men interested in the organization are very happy over this promise of Government officials. They predict an unusually large attendance at the meeting. Invitations are being sent to all physicians in the state by the Bureau of Publicity urging them to attend the meeting.

Americans have too much prejudice for Haiti. The army has no business there. Bring it home.
